When a Woman's Fed Up, There Ain't Nothing You Can Do About It...But God Can! Regina Mixon, Emily N Mixon, 2022-07-09 As we share these writings with you we want to let you know that many of the same things you may be experiencing we along with many others have gone and grown through the process We share to encourage you that if God has given you dreams and visions for a brighter future for reasons unbeknown to you at this time keep going When a Woman's Fed Up There Ain't Nothing You Can Do About It But God Can He allows us to grow up in order to go up He helps us to stand for that that we believe in and not cower down to anyone He teaches us about love kindness grace mercy meekness gentleness and allows us to extend these to others He even lets us know when it's time to move on to shake the dust from our feet He sends us to His people for a reason and a season and when the time comes for us to let go He lets us know As you grow through what you go through as you begin the journey of pursuing your purpose with passion as you go and grow through the various trials testing's and tribulations you will come to a point where you declare Enough It's one thing for you to declare it but when God says Enough He means just that Then you are free to SOAR and become the person He created you to be When a Woman's Fed Up when you are fed up you will begin to say No more No more settling for mediocrity No more going along with the status quo No more tolerating less than God's best for your life You will begin to say yes to embracing all that God has for you
