When Saturday Mattered Most The Last Golden Season Of Army Football:

When Saturday Mattered Most Mark Beech, 2012-09 When Saturday Mattered Most Mark Beech, 2012-09-18 When Saturday Mattered Most is the stirring story of the 1958 undefeated Army football team and the controversial coach who inspired Vince Lombardi. It was the end of an era, the last season before the surge of professional football began to lure the nation's best young student athletes away from the military academies. That fall the Black Knights of Army were the class of the nation. Mark Beech, a second generation West Pointer, recounts this memorable and never to be repeated season with Pete Dawkins, the Heisman Trophy winner who rose to the rank of Brigadier General. The long Reclusive Bill Carpenter, the fabled lonesome end who earned the Distinguished Service Cross for saving his company in Vietnam. Red Blaik, who led Army back to glory after the cribbing scandal and had the field at Michie Stadium named in his honor. Combining the triumph of The Junction Boys with the heroics of The Long Gray Line, Beech captures a unique period in the history of football, the military and mid twentieth century America.

Every Army Man Is with You Nicolaus Mills, 2014-11-13 For Army's players, their 1964 football game against a Navy team led by its Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Roger Staubach was a do or die battle. Army had lost to Navy five years in a row. This time a stunning victory by Army changed the Cadets' fortunes and made headlines across the country. With five of its starters playing offense and defense, Army rallied to an 11-8 triumph. The win was the beginning of an even greater challenge for West Point's players. Soon they were in Vietnam fighting a war that did not end as they or America expected. In Every Army Man Is with You, Nicolaus Mills tells the story of that unforgettable Army team by focusing on the lives of seven of its players as they go from the football field to the Vietnam battlefield and back again to the States. Mills sheds light not just on what the players' experiences meant to them personally, but on what their experiences say about the ways the Vietnam era shaped our nation.

Football Fields and Battlefields Miller Jeff, 2018-10-09 The 2003 Army football team achieved futility in major college play that might never be equaled, losing all 13 of its games. The squad that took the field on a frigid December 2003 day in Philadelphia for the celebrated Army Navy game featured only eight fourth year seniors, just a slice of the fifty energetic freshmen plebes in academy vernacular who reported to West Point amid the heat and humidity of the summer of 2000, hoping to land spots on the football team. For most of the fifty West Pointers, this was their best or only opportunity to play major college football. They were bypassed by the big time football schools that award athletic scholarships, which aren't available at the nation's military academies. Making a five year active duty military commitment following graduation was a small price to pay during peacetime. But peacetime in America ended only days into their second year at the academy on September 11, 2001. Those eight seniors, like virtually all of their cadet peers, maintained their commitments to the US Army in the wake of 9/11. They worked their way up from West Point's JV football team as freshmen, earned positions on the Black Knights varsity team as others left the program voluntarily or otherwise, and walked to the center of the field for the coin toss before that final opportunity for victory against the arch rival Midshipmen.

The football field then gave way to the battlefield Most of the eight were deployed overseas serving at least one tour in either Iraq or Afghanistan One won the Bronze Star another the Purple Heart One qualified for an elite Rangers battalion another for the 160th special operations aviation Night Stalkers They took on enemy fire They grieved at the loss of brothers in arms They hugged their loved ones tightly upon returning home There was no more talk of football losses They were winners
