solutions in their own classes and he includes an array of classroom tested ideas for multilingual learners There may not be any easy answers to the complexities of writer s workshop but by identifying and providing advice on common stumbling blocks the second edition of When Writing Workshop Isn t Working provides a solid groundwork freeing up time and creativity for teachers to address the specific needs of their students Conferring with Young Writers Kristin Ackerman,Jennifer McDonough,2023-10-10 If you ve ever sat down to confer with a child and felt at a loss for what to say or how to help move him or her forward as a writer this book is for you If you are a strong teacher of writing but are not seeing results from your students this book is for you Authors Kristin Ackerman and Jennifer McDonough have been teaching writing for several years and know that conferring can be a murky and messy process perhaps the hardest component of all Written from the lessons they ve learned through hard won classroom experience their mistakes and challenges Conferring with Young Writers is based on what Kristin and Jen call the three Fs frequency focus and follow up They ve created a classroom management system that offers routine and structure for giving the most effective feedback in a writing conference This book will help writing teachers and students learn to break down and utilize the qualities that enable good writing elaboration voice structure conventions and focus The authors also provide the knowledge and skills it takes to confer well which will help you improve as a writing teacher and give your students the confidence to think of themselves as writers

A Closer Look Lynne R. Dorfman,Diane Dougherty,2017 Learning more about our writers with formative assessment The tools and strategies you need to use formative assessment to establish an environment where students will internalize ways that they can assess their own writing and become independent writers This hands on guide shares methods for collecting and managing information and shows practical simple and concise ways to document student thinking In the accompanying online videos the authors demonstrate conferences with individual writers small groups and whole groups Quick easy to manage assessment methods emphasize that formative assessment do not have to take a long time to be worthwhile and effective Vignettes from classroom teachers principals and authors add a variety of perspectives and classroom experiences on this important topic Provided by publisher Becoming a Literacy Leader Jennifer Allen,2023-10-10 In this second edition of Becoming a Literacy Leader Supporting Learning and Change author Jennifer Allen reflects on her work as a literacy specialist and how the role has evolved in the decade since she wrote the first edition Her experiences can apply to all school leaders including principals coaches teachers support staff and office administrators Allen focuses on three ideas to describe her work Layered Leadership the multitude of supports in place for teachers to encourage learning and change within schools Shared experiences that develop community and develop common understanding of practices curriculum and assessment Importance of rowing in the same direction in that literacy coaches and leaders stay interconnected and aligned to the goals of the school Allen knows the challenges of teachers face and advocates literacy coaches implement these layers of support within a school including in class support curriculum support and assessment study group facilitation and the cultivation of teacher leadership In Becoming a Literacy Leader she provides an explicit framework for implementing these layers of coaching and explains how administrators can use the literacy leader position to build and sustain change within their schools This book will be the road map for how literacy leaders and coaches approach their work with purpose and intention Online videos that accompany the book bring the text alive by showing readers what coaching looks and sounds like Teaching Writing Gail E.
