Where Nests The Water Hen:

Where Nests the Water Hen Gabrielle Roy, 1967 Where Nests the Water Hen Gabrielle Roy, 1970 Where Nests the Water Hen Gabrielle Roy, 2010-09-07 The story of Where Nests the Water Hen is as pure as the lives of the people in it and as unforgettable. Set in the remote wilderness of northern Manitoba, this sunny tender idyll of daily frontier life captures as few novels ever have the spirit and the surroundings of the pioneers, not the adventurers and trailblazers who make the headlines but rather the humble folk who follow after and remain living out their lives in obscurity to keep the trails open. Where Nests the Water Hen Gabrielle Roy's second novel is a sensitive and sympathetic tale that captures both the innocence and the vitality of a sparsely populated frontier.

WHERE NESTS THE WATER HEN: A NOVEL. TR. FROM FRENCH BY HARRY L. BINSS. Gabrielle Roy, 1951 Where Nests the Water Hen. Introd. by Gordon Roper. Translated From the French by Harry L. Binsse Gabrielle Roy, 1961 Where Nests the Water Hen. Translated from the French by Harry L. Binsse. Introduction [by] Gordon Roper Gabrielle Roy, 1961 Where Are the Voices Coming From? , 2021-10-18 This collection of essays focuses on Canadian history and its legacies as represented in novels and films in English and French produced in Canada mainly in the 1980s and 1990s. The approach is both cross-cultural and interdisciplinary, aiming at articulating Canadian differences through a comparison of anglophone and francophone cultures illustrated by works treating some of the different groups which make up Canadian society: English Canadian, Québécois, Acadian, Native and ethnic minorities. The emphasis is on the problematic representation of Canadianness which is closely bound up with constructions of history and its legacies: dispossession, criminality, nomadism, Gothicism, the Maritime. The English-French language difference is emblematic of Canadian difference. The two-part arrangement, with one section on Literature and the other on Film, sets up the pattern of relationships between the two forms of cultural representation that these essays explore. Essays in the Literature section are on single texts by such writers as Margaret Atwood, Tomson Highway, Ann Marie MacDonald, Anne Michaels and Alice Munro. Gabrielle Roy, Anne Hébert, Antonine Maillet, Bernard Assiniwi and Régine Robin. The Film section, with its mirror structure, both supplements and amplifies this dialogue, extending notions of Canadianness with its emphasis on voices from Quebec and Acadia traditionally othered in Canadian history. Filmmakers treated include Phillip Borsos, Atom Egoyan, Ted Kotcheff, Mort Ransen and Vincent Ward. Denys Arcand, Gilles Carle, Alanis Obomsawin, Léa Pool and Jacques Savoie.
