Where There Is No Child Psychiatrist A Mental Healthcare Manual:

Where There Is No Child Psychiatrist Valsamma Eapen, Philip Graham, Shoba Srinath, 2012-10 A practical manual for community health workers particularly in developing countries Containing an overview of mental illness in children and young people it describes over 50 clinical problems and how to treat them

A School Counsellor Casebook Vikram Patel, Lisa Aronson, Gauri Divan, 2013 The school years tend to be the healthiest period of life but it is also when mental health problems often begin or become more apparent due in part to the challenges posed by unique educational and socialization expectations and physical and psychological developmental changes The majority of youth negotiate these challenges well drawing upon a range of resources to see them through innate reserves of resilience healthy coping strategies and supportive school and home environments But every now and then a young person falters and stumbles Gentle support and guidance informed by knowledge and skills can make all the difference for the troubled youth Providing this informed support and guidance is the role of the school counsellor This casebook is intended to provide a solid foundation for counselling practice in schools This is an accessible guide training tool and resource for school counsellors educational and clinical psychologists school teachers social workers and other health professionals working in all countries to provide services to schoolgoing youth

Where There is No Psychiatrist Vikram Patel, 2003 Even though mental illnesses are common and cause great suffering in every part of the world many health workers have a limited understanding about mental health and are less comfortable dealing with mental illness This book is a practical manual for mental health care for the community health worker the primary care nurse the social worker and the primary care doctor particularly in developing countries After giving the reader a basic understanding of mental illness the book goes on to describe more than 30 clinical problems associated with mental illness and uses a problem solving approach to guide the reader through their assessment and management Mental health issues as they arise in specific health care contexts are described for example in a refugee camp a school health programme or with people suffering from AIDS as well as in mental health promotion The final section combines quick reference information for common problems and it also includes chapters for the reader to personalise the manual for a particular location for example by entering local information on voluntary agencies the names and costs of medicines and words in the local language for emotional symptoms
