The family response to the sudden deaths of the speaker s two young nieces is at the center of Catherine Barnett s award winning first collection This series of elegies records the transit of grief observing with an unflinching eye how a singular traumatic event can permanently alter our understanding of time danger the material world and family Marked by clarity and restraint these lyric poems narrate a suspenseful wrenching story that explores the depths and limits of empathy Living Room Altar Except for the shirt pulled from the ocean except for her hands which keep folding the shirt except for her body which once held their bodies my sister wants everything back now If there were a god who could out of empty shells carried by waves to shore make amends If the ocean saved in a jar could keep from turning to salt She s hearing things bird calling to bird cat outside the door thorn of the blackberry against the trellis These heart breaking poems of an all too human life stay as absolute as the determined craft which made them There is finally neither irony nor simple despair in what they record Rather it is the far deeper response of witness of recognizing what must be acknowledged and of having the courage and the care to say so Robert Creeley All the Way by Water Elisabeth Stancy Payne,1922 New York Court of Appeals.
