Decolonizing Religion and Peacebuilding Atalia Omer, 2023 An investigation of what consolidating religion as a technology of peacebuilding and development does to people's accounts of their religious and cultural traditions and why interreligious peacebuilding entrenches colonial legacies in the present Throughout the global south local and international organizations are frequent participants in peacebuilding projects that focus on interreligious dialogue Yet as Atalia Omer argues in Decolonizing Religion and Peacebuilding the effects of their efforts are often perverse reinforcing neocolonial practices and disempowering local religious actors Based on empirical research of inter and intra religious peacebuilding practices in Kenya and the Philippines Omer identifies two paradoxical findings first religious peacebuilding practices are both empowering and depoliticizing and second more doing of religion does not necessarily denote deeper or more critical religious literacy Further she shows that these religious actors generate decolonial openings regardless of how closed or open their religious communities are Hence religion s occasional usefulness in peacebuilding does not necessarily mean justice oriented outcomes The book not only uses decolonial and intersectional prisms to expose the entrenched and ongoing colonial dynamics operative in religion and the practices of peacebuilding and development in the global South but it also speaks to decolonial theory through stories of transformation and survival Routledge Handbook of Conflict Response and Leadership in Africa Alpaslan Özerdem, Sinem Akgül-Açıkmeşe, Ian Liebenberg, 2021-09-14 This handbook explores the challenges and opportunities for leadership and conflict response in the context of Africa at several levels Leadership plays a vital role in affecting conflict response but is frequently only examined at the macro level of state government and international organizations This handbook addresses the need to explore challenges and opportunities for leadership at several levels macro global regional national meso NGOs religious groups academics and micro civil society organizations youth groups women s organizations Analysis from multiple levels provides a broader explanation of conflict dynamics and helps to fit localized conflict transformation approaches into wider national or regional structures The multidisciplinary essays presented in this volume encompass the psychological political and structural dimensions of conflict response and demonstrate how its success is fundamentally linked to the style of effectiveness of leadership among other factors The volume is divided into four thematic sections Part I The theory and dynamics of conflict response and leadership Part II Macro level leadership experiences in conflict response Part III Meso micro level leadership experiences in conflict response Part IV Recommendations for improved leadership in conflict response This book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution peace studies African politics security studies and international relations in general The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Peace Jolyon Mitchell, Suzanna R. Millar, Francesca Po, Martyn Percy, 2022-08-15 Incisive contributions from leading and emerging scholars in the field of Peace Studies In the Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Peace a team of renowned scholars delivers an authoritative and interdisciplinary sourcebook that addresses the key concepts history theories models resources and practices in the complex and ambivalent relationship between religion and peace The editors have included contributions from a wide range of perspectives and locations that reflect diverse methods and approaches The Companion provides a collection grounded in experience and context that draws on established developing and new research characterized by academic rigor The differences between the approaches taken by several religious traditions are fully explored and numerous case studies highlight relevant theories models and resources Accessible as either a standalone collection or as a partner to the Companion to Religion and Violence this edited volume also offers A thorough introduction to religion and its search for peace including the relationships between religion and peace and theories and practices for studying the interplay between religion and peace Comprehensive explorations of religion and peace in local contexts including discussions of women s empowerment and peacebuilding in an Islamic context Practical discussions of practices and embodiments of religion and peace including treatments of museums for peace and self religion in global peace movements In depth examinations of lived Christian theologies and building peace including discussions of Martin Luther King Jr and spiritual activism in Scotland Perfect for students and scholars of peacemaking peacekeeping and peace building the Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Peace will also earn a place in the libraries of anyone professionally or personally interested in the field of Peace or Religious Studies International Relations History Politics or Theology

Gender, Conflict, Peace, and UNSC Resolution 1325 Seema Shekhawat, 2018-01-15 There is an increasing amount of literature on various aspects of United Nations Security Council Resolution 1325 While appreciating this scholarship this volume highlights some of the omissions and concerns to make a quality addition to the ongoing discourse on the intersection of gender with peace and security with a focus on 1325 It aims at a reality check of the impressive to do list as the seventeen years since the Resolution passed provide an occasion to pause and ponder over the gap between the aspirations and the reality the ideal and the practice the promises and the action the euphoria and the despair The volume compiles carefully selected essays woven around Resolution 1325 to tease out the intricacies within both the Resolution and its implementation Through a cocktail of well known and some lesser known case studies the volume addresses complicated realities with the intention of impacting policy making and the academic fields of gender peace and security The volume emphasizes the significance of transforming formal peace making processes and making them gender inclusive and gender sensitive by critically examining some omissions in the challenges that the Resolution implementation confronts The major question the volume seeks to address is this where are women positioned in the formal peace making seventeen years after the adoption of Resolution 1325

Faith, Class, and Labor Jin Young Choi, Joerg Rieger, 2020-12-16 Despite the fact that 99 percent of us work for a living and although work shapes us to the core class and labor are topics that are underrepresented in the work of scholars of religion theology and the Bible With this volume an international group of scholars and activists from nine different countries is bringing issues of religion class and labor back into conversation Historians and theologians investigate how new images of God and the world emerge and what difference they can make Biblical critics develop new takes on ancient texts that lead to the reversal of readings that had been seemingly stable settled and taken for granted Activists and organizers identify neglected sources of power and energy returning in new force and point to transformations happening Asking how labor and religion mutually shape each other and how the agency of working people operates in their lives the contributors also employ intersectional approaches that engage race gender sexuality and colonialism This volume presents transdisciplinary transtextual transactional transnational and transgressive work in progress much needed in our time Women and Peacebuilding in Africa Anna Chitando, 2020-11-16 This volume re-centres African women scholars in the discourse on African women and peacebuilding combining theoretical reflections with case studies in a range of African countries The chapters outline the history of African women's engagement in peacebuilding introducing new and neglected themes such as youth disability and religious peacebuilding and laying the foundations for new theoretical insights Providing case studies from across Africa the contributors highlight the achievements and challenges characterising women's contributions to peacebuilding on the continent This book will be of interest to students and scholars of peacebuilding African security and gender On the Significance of Religion in Conflict and Conflict Resolution Christine Schliesser, S. Ayse Kadayifci-Orellana, Pauline Kollontai, 2020-07-01 In this ground-breaking volume the authors analyze the role of religion in conflict and conflict resolution They do so from the perspectives of Judaism Christianity and Islam while bringing different disciplines into play including peace and conflict studies religious studies theology and ethics With much of current academic political and public attention focusing on the conflictive dimensions of religion this book also explores the constructive resources of religion for conflict resolution and reconciliation Analyzing the specific contributions of religious actors in this field their potentials and possible problems connected with them this book sheds light on the concrete contours of the oftentimes vague religious factor in processes of social change Case studies in current and former settings of violent conflict such as Israel post-genocide Rwanda and Pakistan provide real-life contexts for discussion Combining cutting-edge research with case studies and concrete implications for academics policy makers and practitioners this concise and easily accessible volume helps to build bridges between these oftentimes separated spheres of engagement The Open Access version of this book available at <http://doi.org/10.4324/9781003002888> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Exiting Violence Debora Tonelli, Gerard Michael J. Mannion, 2024-06-04 In the 20th and 21st centuries where violence has scarred countless lives the interplay between religion politics and conflict remains a complex web Exiting Violence looks to untangle some of these knots showing not only how faith can ignite bloodshed but also how it can inspire peace and build bridges Resulting from an international collaboration between the Fondazione Bruno Kessler RESET Dialogues Among Civilizations and the Berkley Center for Religion Peace and World Affairs this collection assesses the state of scholarship and explores the differing ways in which religion can contribute to societies and communities exiting situations of violence and hatred From Biblical hermeneutics to Buddhism from secularism to legal systems Exiting Violence offers a nuanced and thought-provoking exploration of the multifaceted role religion plays in the human struggle for peace and justice
