Washington Rediscovered Michael Scott Bieze,Marybeth Gasman,2012-06 Booker T Washington a founding father of African American education in the United States has long been studied revered and reviled by scholars and students Born into slavery freed and raised in the Reconstruction South and active in educational reform through the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Washington sought to use education to bridge the nation s racial divide This volume explores Washington s life and work through his writings and speeches Drawing on previously unpublished writings hard to find speeches and essays and other primary documents from public and private collections Michael Scott Bieze and Marybeth Gasman provide a balanced and insightful look at this controversial and sometimes misunderstood leader Their essays follow key themes in Washington s life politics aesthetics philanthropy religion celebrity race and education that show both his range of thought and the evolution of his thinking on topics vital to African Americans at the time Wherever possible the book reproduces archival material in its original form aiding the reader in delving more deeply into the primary sources while the accompanying introductions and analyses by Bieze and Gasman provide rich context A companion website contains additional primary source documents and suggested classroom exercises and teaching aids Innovative and multifaceted Booker T Washington Rediscovered provides the opportunity to experience Washington s work as he intended and examines this turn of the century pioneer in his own right not merely in juxtaposition with W E B Du Bois and other black leaders

Talk with You Like a Woman Cheryl D. Hicks,2010-12-13 With this book Cheryl Hicks brings to light the voices and viewpoints of black working class women especially southern migrants who were the subjects of urban and penal reform in early twentieth century New York Hicks compares the ideals of racial uplift and reform programs of middle class white and black activists to the experiences and perspectives of those whom they sought to protect and often control In need of support as they navigated the discriminatory labor and housing markets and contended with poverty maternity and domestic violence black women instead found themselves subject to hostility from black leaders urban reformers and the police Still these black working class women struggled to uphold their own standards of respectable womanhood Through their actions as well as their words they challenged prevailing views regarding black women and morality in urban America Drawing on extensive archival research Hicks explores the complexities of black working class women s lives and illuminates the impact of racism and sexism on early twentieth century urban reform and criminal justice initiatives Making a Living in Europe Alan Townsend,2005-08-18 Exploring the relationship between employment change society and economic restructuring Making a Living in Europe shows how the culture of work has been transformed in the industrialized nations of the EU Air Force
