In Performance JV Mercanti, 2013-10-01 Applause Books In Performance is intended for young people who are auditioning for both undergraduate and graduate programs as well as professional productions and industry meetings. Featured are dynamic monologues from contemporary stage plays of the past 15 years chosen from the point of view of a professional acting teacher director and casting director. Along with covering the basics of how to match the best monologue to the actor and how to approach the rehearsal and performance of the piece, the book provides a synopsis of each play, a character description, and a list of questions specific to each monologue that will direct the actor toward shaping a complex, honest, and thoughtful performance that has a strong emotional connection, a clear arc, and playable actions.

Contemporary Monologues for Twentysomethings Jessica Bashline, 2023-11-22 The theater of the 21st century in many ways is expanding to require new muscles of its actors and so should their monologue choices. Contemporary Monologues for Twentysomethings is a compilation of monologues for actors ages 15 to 30 incorporating characters from a variety of backgrounds with different stories to tell, giving you the chance to explore those who are close to you and those who may come from someplace else. These monologues are compiled in order of length, with the shortest coming in a little under a minute and the longer pieces running closer to four minutes. All from plays written between 2000 and 2016, the monologues in this book are useful both for exploration in a classroom setting as well as for auditions. Jessica Bashline, adjunct professor of acting at New York University, has assembled a comprehensive collection featuring work written by Neil LaBute, Sarah Ruhl, Zach Braff, Naomi Iizuka, and many more. Every playwright in this book is currently writing. Some of these plays have been produced on Broadway and some in tiny theaters in New York, Minneapolis, San Diego, or other cities around the country. This book offers a chance for emerging actors to explore work by playwrights both emerging and established that is truly contemporary.
My First Popsicle Zosia Mamet, 2022-11-01 A warm and relateable collection of essays exploring the memories we associate with different meals in our lives from a spectrum of talented creators. What is your most poignant memory surrounding food? Of all the essentials for survival—oxygen, water, sleep, and food—only food is a vast treasure trove of memory and of sensory experience. Food is a portal to culture, to times past, to disgust, to comfort, to love; no matter one's feelings about a particular dish, they are hardly ever neutral. In MY FIRST POPSICLE, Zosia Mamet has curated some of the most prominent voices in art and culture to tackle the topic of food in its elegance, its profundity, and its incidental charm. With contributions from Stephanie Danler on vinaigrette and starting over, Anita Lo on the cultural responsibility of dumplings, Tony Hale on his obsession with desserts at chain restaurants, Patti LuPone on childhood memories of seeking out shellfish, Gabourey Sidibe on her connections with her father and the Senegalese dish Poulet Yassa, Andrew Rannells on his nostalgia for Jell-O Cake, Sloane Crosley on the pesto that got her through the early months of the pandemic, Michelle Buteau on her love for all things pasta Jia Tolentino on the chicken dish she makes to escape reality and more MY FIRST POPSICLE is as much an ode to food and emotion as it is to life After all the two are inseparable The Architectural Review ,2004
