The War In Indo China 1945 54:

The War in Indo-China 1945-54 Jacques Dalloz, 1990 Widely acclaimed when it appeared in French in 1987 this first general history in English examines the colonial background the period of Japanese control the rise of Ho Chi Minh the struggle of his rural based guerrillas through the five former kingdoms and the French defeat at Dien Bien Phu The war which split France and politicized the French army led to the collapse of the Fourth Republic and the reemergence of de Gaulle Although Ho lost the peace he established a model of mid 20th century revolutionary war and set the scene for America's military involvement in Vietnam Certain to become the standard work on the subject The Indo-China War, 1945-1954 Edgar O'Ballance, 1964 French Indochina War Huston, Simon, 2021-07-01 Military mistakes impel strategic reflection The French Indochina War FIW from 1946 1954 furnishes useful insights with some resonance for current challenges A combination of pre existing conditions catalysts and operational drivers caused the cathartic 1954 French defeat Pre conditions included the illegitimacy of the colonial regime repression that polarised nationalist sentiment Economically pernicious terms of trade suppressed industrialisation but oiled speculation until suddenly reversed by devaluation in 1953 that reflected financial disengagement by France but increased American involvement Vacillating metropolitan and the dubious colonial regime of the night club Emperor Bao II fuelled political instability Militarily after the disastrous evacuation of the RC4 in 1950 Viet Minh men and supplies poured across the Chinese frontier In 1954 financial constraints and the looming international peace conference catalysed Navarre the new French commander to gamble on a battle of attrition He bet that the Viet Minh would be unable drag artillery to the remote jungle outpost of Dien Bien Phu but he underestimated their determination strength and adaptability In early December partisans resented the bungled evacuation of Lai Chau The entrenched camp's defences were inadequate and neither infantry sorties nor napalm suppressed VM artillery in the surrounding hills The French aero logistical sub system was overstretched and significant parachute supplies fell into enemy hands Navarre scattered his reserves on a futile and remote side show Operation Atlante The Americans prevaricated and refused to unleash their B29 fleet Iacta alea est the die was cast Anthony Eden, Anglo-American Relations and the 1954 Indochina Crisis Kevin Ruane, Matthew Jones, 2019-07-25 In the spring of 1954 after eight years of bitter fighting the war in Vietnam between the French and the communist led Vietminh came to a head With French forces reeling the United States planned to intervene militarily to shore up the anti communist position Turning to its allies for support first and foremost Great Britain the US administration of Dwight D Eisenhower sought to create what Secretary of State John Foster Dulles called a united action coalition In the event Winston Churchill's Conservative government refused to back the plan Fearing that US led intervention could trigger a wider war in which the United Kingdom would be the first target for Soviet nuclear attack the British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden was determined to act as Indochina peacemaker even at the cost of damage to the Anglo American special relationship In this important study Kevin Ruane and Matthew Jones revisit a Cold

War episode in which British diplomacy played a vital role in settling a crucial question of international war and peace Eden's diplomatic triumph at the 1954 Geneva Conference on Indochina is often overshadowed by the 1956 Suez Crisis which led to his political downfall This book however recalls an earlier Eden a skilled and experienced international diplomatist at the height of his powers who may well have prevented a localised Cold War crisis escalating into a general Third World War

Churchill, Eden and Indo-China, 1951-1955 Nông Văn Dân, 2011 Churchill Eden and Indo China 1951 1955 offers a systematic approach to pertinent international politics providing a historiography and assessing the impact of events such as the Cold War and the Second World War within the context of the governments of Churchill and Eden Revisiting Churchill's wartime helmsmanship in order to shed further light on his post war administration Nông Văn Dân provides a greater historical awareness of the broad international context of decolonized Indo China and South East Asia

Historical Dictionary of the Indochina War (1945-1954) Christopher E. Goscha, 2015-09 This first historical dictionary in English of the Indochina War provides the most comprehensive account to date of one of the most important conflicts of the twentieth century Over 1 600 entries offer in depth expert coverage of the war in all its dimensions Christopher Goscha adopts a path breaking dual international and interdisciplinary approach Thus readers will not only find information on politics and military campaigns they will also discover the remarkable impact this war had on intellectual social cultural economic and artistic domains in France Indochina and elsewhere Indeed rather than limiting the dictionary to the French and their Vietnamese adversaries Goscha explores the internationalization of this conflict from its beginning in September 1945 at Ba Dinh square in Hanoi to its end around the Cold War conference table in Geneva in July 1954 also making it clear that a myriad of non communist Vietnamese Lao and Cambodian nationalists were deeply involved in this war and its outcome In addition to its 1 600 entries the dictionary contains a succinct historical introduction selected bibliography maps illustrations and tables A massive work of outstanding scholarly quality and lasting value this is a reference tool that will be invaluable for researchers students and anyone else hoping to understand the complexity of this tragic conflict

Churchill, Eden and Indo-China, 1951-1955 Nông Văn Dân, 2010-06-15 Churchill Eden and Indo China 1951 1955 offers a systematic approach to pertinent international politics providing a historiography and assessing the impact of events such as the Cold War and the Second World War within the context of the governments of Churchill and Eden Revisiting Churchill's wartime helmsmanship in order to shed further light on his post war administration Nông Văn Dân provides a greater historical awareness of the broad international context of decolonized Indo China and South East Asia

The Geneva Conference of 1954 on Indochina J. Cable, 2000-06-29 The Geneva Agreements of 1954 were widely welcomed They ended a seven year war in Indochina gave France a dignified exit averted wider conflict In later years first Americans and Vietnamese then Russians Chinese Cambodians and even Laotians tried to force Indochina into different patterns of their own devising These new wars triggered by rejection of the Geneva compromise lasted longer killed more people did greater damage and achieved less for everybody Perhaps Churchill was right jaw jaw is better than war war Certainly this lively first hand up dated account of the Geneva Conference of 1954 that triumph of old fashioned diplomacy which Britain initiated and France completed offers a better model for the twenty first century to follow The Wars of French Decolonization Anthony Clayton,2014-06-06 This ambitious survey draws together the two major wars of decolonization fought by France in Indochina and Algeria as well as the lesser but far from insignificant military operations in Madagascar Tunisia and Morocco into a single integrated account It examines traditional French attitudes to empire and how these changed under the pressure of events the military operations themselves the collapse of the Fourth Republic and the return of de Gaulle and the final drama of French withdrawal from Algeria and the ethnic cleansing of its European settler population The End of the First Indochina War James Waite,2012-08-21 The French withdrawal from Vietnam in 1954 was the product of global pressures and triggered significant global consequences By treating the war as an international issue this book places Indochina at the center of the Cold War in the mid 1950s Arguing that the Indochina War cannot be understood as a topic of Franco US relations but ought to be treated as international history this volume brings in Vietnamese and other global agents including New Zealand Australia and especially Britain as well as China and the Soviet Union Importantly the book also argues that the successful French withdrawal from Vietnam a political defeat for the Eisenhower administration helped to avert outright warfare between the major powers although with very mixed results for the inhabitants of Vietnam who faced partition and further bloodshed The End of the First Indochina War explores the complexities of intra alliance competition over global strategy especially between the United States and British Commonwealth arguing that these rivalries are as important to understanding the Cold War as east west confrontation This is the first truly global interpretation of the French defeat in 1954 based on the author s research in five western countries and the latest scholarship from historians of Vietnam China and Russia Readers will find much that is new both in terms of archival revelations and original interpretations Historical Dictionary of Ho Chi Minh City Justin Corfield,2014-11-01 Offering a concise overview of Ho Chi Minh City s history and development the Historical Dictionary of Ho Chi Minh City presents a comprehensive historical survey of the city in the form of an alphabetical list of keywords and names with accompanying definitions Both well researched and authoritative the volume draws upon a wide range of modern sources and contains an introductory essay about the city a chronology a list of acronyms and abbreviations photographs and appendixes of supplemental information History of the Office of the Secretary of Defense: Strategy, Money, and the New Look, 1953-1956 Alfred Goldberg,2001 U.S. Army Counterinsurgency and Contingency Operations Doctrine, 1942-1976 Andrew James Birtle,2006 CMH Pub 70 98 1 This study examines the nature of counterinsurgency and nation building missions the institutional obstacles inherent in dealing effectively with such operations and the strengths and weaknesses of U S doctrine including the problems that can occur when that doctrine morphs into dogma U.S. Army counterinsurgency and contingency operations doctrine, 1942-1976 (Paperbound) Andrew James Birtle, 2006 Communist Indochina R. B. Smith, 2013-04-24 This book examines the history of communist Indochina from the foundation of the Indochinese Communist Party in 1929-30 to the end of the 1970s. It explores the impact of the Japanese invasion of Indochina in 1940 and the subsequent relationship between the Japanese occupiers and the Vichy French colonial regime. It considers why following the Japanese surrender the cause of Vietnamese independence was championed by the Communist-led Viet Minh movement headed by Ho Chi Minh, culminating in the August Revolution and the Viet Minh seizure of power, and analyses the record of the Viet Minh Provisional Government of 1945-46. It goes on to consider key episodes of the Vietnam War which followed partition in 1954, including the Tet Offensive of 1967-68, a crucial turning point in the course of the conflict, and the Cambodia Crisis of 1969-70. Throughout it considers events within Indochina in the context of wider regional and international developments, focusing in particular on the role played by the Chinese, including their support to the Viet Minh in their struggle against the French from 1947 and the issue of Cambodia which eventually precipitated the Sino-Vietnamese War of 1979. The book also explores the main trends in social, economic and institutional development which characterised this period, including village and clan networks, economic and monetary developments, the contrasting systems of North and South after partition, and the consequences of choosing a Soviet economic alignment in preference to links with Japan and capitalist Asia. Written by the late Ralph Smith, a highly respected historian of Asia, this book is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand the history of Indochina.
