The Woman Babylon and the Marks of Empire Shanell T. Smith, 2014-10-01 The Great Whore of the Book of Revelation the hostile symbolization used to illustrate the author s critique of empire has attracted considerable attention in Revelation scholarship Feminist scholar Tina Pippin criticizes the use of gendered metaphors Babylon as a tortured woman which she asserts reflect an inescapably androcentric even misogynistic perspective Alternatively Elisabeth Sch ssler Fiorenza understands John s rhetoric and imagery not simply in gendered terms but in political terms as well observing that Babylon relies on conventionally coded feminine language for a city Shanell T Smith seeks to dismantle the either or dichotomy within the Great Whore debate by bringing the categories of race ethnicity and class to bear on John s metaphors Her socio cultural context impels her to be sensitive to such categories and therefore leads her to hold the two elements woman and city in tension rather than privileging one over the other Using postcolonial womanist interpretation of the woman Babylon Smith highlights the simultaneous duality of her characterization her depiction as both a female brothel slave and as an empress or imperial city Most remarkably however Smith s reading also sheds light on her own ambivalent characterization as both a victim and participant in empire

Spare the Kids Stacey Patton, 2017-03-21 A challenge to the cultural tradition of corporal punishment in Black homes and its connections to racial violence in America that encourages positive nonviolent discipline for those rearing teaching and caring for children of color Why do so many African Americans have such a special attachment to whupping children Studies show that nearly 80 percent of Black parents see spanking popping pinching and beating as reasonable effective ways to teach respect and to protect black children from the streets incarceration encounters with racism or worse However the consequences of this widely accepted approach to child rearing are far reaching and seldom discussed Dr Stacey Patton s extensive research suggests that corporal punishment is a crucial factor in explaining why Black folks are subject to disproportionately higher rates of school suspensions and expulsions criminal prosecutions improper mental health diagnoses child abuse cases and foster care placements which too often funnel abused and traumatized children into the prison system Weaving together race religion history popular culture science policing psychology and personal testimonies Dr Patton connects what happens at home to what happens in the streets in a way that is thought provoking unforgettable and deeply sobering
