The Watchman In Pieces Surveillance Literature And Liberal Personhood:

The Watchman in Pieces David Rosen, Aaron Santesso, 2013-06-18 DIV Spanning nearly 500 years of cultural and social history this book examines the ways that literature and surveillance have developed together as kindred modern practices As ideas about personhood what constitutes a self have changed over time so too have ideas about how to represent shape or invade the self The authors show that since the Renaissance changes in observation strategies have driven innovations in literature literature in turn has provided a laboratory and forum for the way we think about surveillance and privacy Ultimately they contend that the habits of mind cultivated by literature make rational and self aware participation in contemporary surveillance environments possible In a society increasingly dominated by interlocking surveillance systems these habits of mind are consequently necessary for fully realized liberal citizenship div Slavery, Surveillance and Genre in Antebellum United States Literature Kelly Ross, 2023-01-23 This book argues for the existence of deep often unexamined interconnections between genre and race by tracing how surveillance migrates from the literature of slavery to crime gothic and detective fiction not only through the traditional concept of surveillance top down but also the tactics of sousveillance watching from below Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Law and Literature Robert Spoo, Simon Stern, 2025-01-09 The Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Law and Literature surveys the intersection between two important fields of study Interdisciplinary in scope the volume showcases the many ways in which literary and legal methods and insights both converge and remain distinct

The Palgrave International Handbook of School Discipline, Surveillance, and Social Control Jo Deakin, Emmeline Taylor, Aaron Kupchik, 2018-06-07 Truly international in scope this Handbook focuses on approaches to discipline surveillance and social control from around the world critically examining the strategies and practices schools employ to monitor students and control their behavior Bringing together leading scholars from a range of disciplinary backgrounds the chapters scrutinize analyze and compare schools practices across the globe providing a critical review of existing evidence debates and understandings while looking forward to address emerging important questions and key policy issues The chapters are divided into four sections Part 1 offers accounts of international trends in school discipline surveillance and punishment Part 2 examines the merging of school strategies with criminal justice practices Part 3 focuses on developments in school technological surveillance and Part 4 concludes by discussing restorative and balanced approaches to school discipline and behavior management As the first Handbook to draw together these multiple themes into one text and the first international comparative collection on school discipline surveillance and social control it will appeal to scholars across a range of fields including sociology education criminology critical security studies and psychology providing a unique timely and indispensable resource for undergraduate educators and researchers Imagining Surveillance Peter Marks, 2015-06-23 Presents the first full length study of the depiction and assessment of surveillance in literature and film

Political Liberalism and the Rise of American Romanticism Scott M. Reznick, 2024 This volume traces how

American literature evolved in response to widespread conflicts over the very nature of US democracy in the early republic and antebellum eras It examines how American writers reacted to three moments of profound divisiveness in the 1790s 1830s and 1850s The Oxford Handbook of Edgar Allan Poe J. Gerald Kennedy, Scott Peeples, Caleb Doan, 2019 This handbook is currently in development with individual articles publishing online in advance of print publication At this time we cannot add information about unpublished articles in this handbook however the table of contents will continue to grow as additional articles pass through the review process and are added to the site Please note that the online publication date for this handbook is the date that the first article in the title was published online Surveillance David Lyon, 2024-06-25

Very Short Introductions Brilliant Sharp Inspiring Surveillance permeates every aspect of our lives today Once a more limited and often remote aspect of social life today surveillance is central to political economic and everyday life Every click on the keyboard every call text or email every purchase every contact with a doctor or the police or a government department each time you walk under a video camera or pass through a security check and in many other ways you are recorded identified traced and tracked Who processes this free flowing data how and with what consequences is a critical question affecting everyone This is not an alien conspiracy It is the way today's digitally dependent world works Surveillance is not inherently good or bad but neither is it neutral It urgently needs to be understood better because people's lives and life chances depend on it Today surveillance is central to doing business meeting friends organizing governance maintaining security and being entertained Surveillance requires not just exploration and understanding but ethical guidance and political debate How you get credit or welfare benefits or get on a no fly list or are ranked as a consumer depends on surveillance This Very Short Introduction investigates how surveillance makes people visible how it grew to its present size and prevalence how it came to rely on technologies of data handling and how it developed its own cultural features Throughout David Lyon also considers the ethics of surveillance and explores its potential in prompting political struggles

ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable Cinema and Surveillance Martin Blumenthal-Barby, 2024-06-03 Cinema and Surveillance The Asymmetric Gaze shows how key modern filmmakers challenge and disturb the relation between film and surveillance medium and message Assembling readings of films by Harun Farocki Michael Haneke and Fritz Lang the book considers surveillance in such different domains as urban life religious doctrine and law enforcement With surveillance present in the modern world as both a technological phenomenon and a social practice the author shows how cinema as a visual medium presents highly sophisticated analyses of surveillance He suggests that surveillance is less an issue to be tackled from a secure spectatorial position than an experience to be rendered an event to be dealt with Far from offering a general model of spectatorship the book explores how narrative moments of surveillance are complicated by specific spectatorial responses In its intersection of well known figures and a highly topical issue this book will have broad appeal especially but not exclusively among students and scholars in film studies media studies German studies European studies art history and political theory

Secrecy and Surveillance in Medieval and Early Modern England Annette Kern-Stähler,Nicole Nyffenegger,2020-01-20 This volume explores practices of secrecy and surveillance in medieval and early modern England The ten contributions by Swiss and international scholars including Paul Strohm Sylvia Tomasch Karma Lochrie and Richard Wilson address in particular the intersections of secrecy and surveillance with gender and identity public and private spheres religious practices and power structures Covering a wide range of English literary texts from Old English riddles to medieval romances the Book of Margery Kempe and the plays and poems of Shakespeare these essays seek to contribute to our understanding of the practices of secrecy exclusion and disclosure as well as to the much needed historicisation of Surveillance Studies called for in the opening article by Sylvia Tomasch

Spaces of Surveillance Susan Flynn,Antonia Mackay,2017-08-22 In a world of ubiquitous surveillance watching and being watched are the salient features of the lives depicted in many of our cultural productions This collection examines surveillance as it is portrayed in art literature film and popular culture and makes the connection between our sense of self and what is seen In our post panoptical world which purports to proffer freedom of movement technology notes our movements and habits at every turn Surveillance seeps out from businesses and power structures to blur the lines of security and confidentiality This unsettling loss of privacy plays out in contemporary narratives where the selves we create are troubled by surveillance This collection will appeal to scholars of media and cultural studies contemporary literature film and art and American studies

Surveillance and Terror in Post-9/11 British and American Television Darcie Rives-East,2019-07-18 This interdisciplinary study examines how state surveillance has preoccupied British and American television series in the twenty years since 9 11 Surveillance and Terror in Post 9 11 British and American Television illuminates how the U S and U K bound by an historical cultural and television partnership have broadcast numerous programs centred on three state surveillance apparatuses tasked with protecting us from terrorism and criminal activity the prison the police and the national intelligence agency Drawing from a range of case studies such as Sherlock Orange is the New Black and The Night Manager this book discusses how television allows viewers writers and producers to articulate fears about an increased erosion of privacy and civil liberties following 9 11 while simultaneously expressing a desire for a preventative mechanism that can stop such events occurring in the future However these concerns and desires are not new encompassing surveillance narratives both past and present this book demonstrates how television today builds on earlier narratives about panoptic power to construct our present understanding of government surveillance

The Neoliberal Imagination in Contemporary Literature Tammy Amiel Houser,2024-08-06 This book examines the relationship between empathy and neoliberalism as it unfolded in the aftermath of the 2008 financial crisis and through the turbulent 2010s Via close readings of contemporary novels as well as various non fictional texts it traces the changing approaches to empathy in the post financial crisis imagination highlighting a crucial reconceptualization of empathy as a boundaryless force untethered to local or social circumstance This reconceptualization implicitly aligns empathy with the neoliberal ethos of globalism and distances it from the traditional notion of sympathy Via complex dialogue with the novelistic tradition of sympathy contemporary novelists highlight the problematics of boundaryless empathy while exploring ways to resist neoliberal views and values Analyzing engagements with empathy in post 2008 literature and culture the book sheds light on the underlying affective dynamics that enabled the persistence of neoliberalism after the 2008 financial crisis alongside efforts to challenge its dominance

Research Handbook on Law and Utilitarianism Guillaume Tusseau, 2024-10-03 The Research Handbook on Law and Utilitarianism sheds light on contemporary legal culture and the ways in which it interacts with theories of justice Guillaume Tusseau brings together an interdisciplinary range of scholars to analyse the utilitarian standpoint on legal disciplines and legal governance as well as the contribution of utilitarian arguments to current legal debates

Security and Hospitality in Literature and Culture Jeffrey Clapp, Emily Ridge, 2015-10-05 With contributions from an international array of scholars this volume opens a dialogue between discourses of security and hospitality in modern and contemporary literature and culture The chapters in the volume span domestic spaces and detention camps the experience of migration and the phenomena of tourism interpersonal exchanges and cross cultural interventions The volume explores the multifarious ways in which subjects citizens communities and states negotiate the mutual and potentially exclusive desires to secure themselves and offer hospitality to others From the individual's telephone and data to the threshold of the family home to the borders of the nation sites of securitization confound hospitality's injunction to openness gifting and refuge In demonstrating an interrelation between ongoing discussions of hospitality and the intensifying attention to security the book engages with a range of literary cultural and geopolitical contexts drawing on work from other disciplines including philosophy political science and sociology Further it defines a new interdisciplinary area of inquiry that resonates with current academic interests in world literature transnationalism and cosmopolitanism

Lyric Eye Tyne Daile Sumner, 2021-08-05 Lyric Eye The Poetics of Twentieth Century Surveillance presents the first detailed study of the relationship between poetry and surveillance It critically examines the close connection between American lyric poetry and a burgeoning US state surveillance apparatus from 1920 to the 1960s The book explores the myriad ways that poets Ezra Pound William Carlos Williams W H Auden Langston Hughes James Baldwin Sylvia Plath Gertrude Stein Robert Lowell Allen Ginsberg and others explored a developing and fraught environment in which the growing power of American investigative agencies such as the FBI under J Edgar Hoover imposed new pressures on cultural discourse and personal identity In analysing twentieth century American poetry and its various ideas about the self Lyric Eye demonstrates the extent to which poetry and surveillance employ similar styles of information gathering such as observation overhearing imitation abstraction repurposing of language subversion fragmentation and symbolism Ground breaking and prescient this book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature politics surveillance and intelligence studies and digital humanities Identification Practices in Twentieth-Century Fiction Rex Ferguson,2021 Identifying the individual in the 20th century has given rise to technical innovations including fingerprint analysis and DNA profiling as well as methods for classifying identities such as identity cards and digital records This book explores the link between these techniques and the literary representation of self identity in the same period

Post-Apocalyptic Cultures Julia Urabayan,Jorge León Casero,2024-03-19 This book advocates for the necessity of recovering the value of utopias as political projects that open new channels of action The criticism of modern political utopias is based on the supposed impossibility of creating for the future because there is no longer a future apocalyptic ideology However this edited collection seeks to show that the post apocalyptic world in which we live entails a renewed freedom of design for the radical reorganization of institutions Post apocalyptic cultures are not obligated to follow the capitalist anthropocentric correlationist and sovereign modes of the old political project of emancipation the Western enlightenment that has started to collapse With this in mind this book is divided into four sections dedicated to the main themes from which to rethink the projects of political emancipation that are possible nowadays technopolitics posthumanist biopolitics non western politicsl and the crossover between arts and politics The Bloomsbury Introduction to Postmodern Realist Fiction T.V. Reed,2021-03-25 Postmodern realist fiction uses realism disrupting literary techniques to make interventions into the real social conditions of our time It seeks to capture the complex fragmented nature of contemporary experience while addressing crucial issues like income inequality immigration the climate crisis terrorism ever changing technologies shifting racial sex and gender roles and the rise of new forms of authoritarianism A lucid comprehensive introduction to the genre as well as to a wide variety of voices this book discusses more than forty writers from a diverse range of backgrounds and over several decades with special attention to 21st century novels Writers covered include Kathy Acker Chimamanda Ngozi Adiche Julia Alvarez Sherman Alexie Gloria Anzaldua Margaret Atwood Toni Cade Bambara A S Byatt Octavia Butler Angela Carter Ana Castillo Don DeLillo Junot Diaz Jennifer Egan Awaeki Emezi Mohsin Hamid Jessica Hagedorn Maxine Hong Kingston Ursula K Le Guin Daisy Johnson Bharati Mukherjee Toni Morrison Vladimir Nabokov Tommy Orange Ruth Ozeki Ishmael Reed Eden Robinson Salman Rushdie Jean Rhys Leslie Marmon Silko Art Spiegelman Kurt Vonnegut and Jeannette Winterson among others The Art of Identification Rex Ferguson,Melissa M. Littlefield,James Purdon,2021-08-13 Since the mid nineteenth century there has been a notable acceleration in the development of the techniques used to confirm identity From fingerprints to photographs to DNA we have been rapidly amassing novel means of identification even as personal individual identity remains a complex chimera The Art of Identification examines how such processes are entangled within a wider sphere of cultural identity formation Against the backdrop of an unstable modernity and the rapid rise and expansion of identificatory techniques this volume makes the case that identity and identification are mutually imbricated and that our best understanding of both concepts and technologies comes through the interdisciplinary analysis of science bureaucratic infrastructures and cultural artifacts With contributions from literary critics cultural historians scholars of film and new media a forensic anthropologist and a human bioarcheologist this book reflects upon the relationship between the bureaucratic scientific and technologically determined techniques of identification and the cultural contexts of art literature and screen media In doing so it opens the interpretive possibilities surrounding identification and pushes us to think about it as existing within a range of cultural influences that complicate the precise formulation meaning and reception of the concept In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include Dorothy Butchard Patricia E Chu Jonathan Finn Rebecca Gowland Liv Hausken Matt Houlbrook Rob Lederer Andrew Mangham Victoria Stewart and Tim Thompson
