The West Coast Modern House Vancouver Residential Architecture:

The West Coast Modern House Greg Bellerby, 2014 A landmark study of one of Canada's most important architectural movements. The West Coast Modern House chronicles the development of Vancouver residential architecture from the 1940s through its continued influence on contemporary practice. The post-war era in Vancouver defined what has become popularly known as the West Coast Style. Through the work of seminal figures such as BC Binning, Ned Pratt, Ron Thom, Fred Hollingsworth, Douglas Simpson, Barry Downs, and Arthur Erickson, Vancouver architects won national awards and international recognition for their innovative house designs. This period is now seen as one of the most important in the city's architectural history. Focusing on the years from 1940 to the mid-1960s, The West Coast Modern House features over fifty examples of modern houses. The book is richly illustrated by photographs taken at the time by noted architectural photographers Graham Warrington, Selwyn Pullan, and John Fulker. Essays by Greg Bellerby, Jana Tyner, and Chris Macdonald elaborate on the history and innovative design strategies of the early period through to an examination of the ways modern architectural concerns are being utilized by contemporary practitioners. The West Coast Modern House enables the reader to come to a greater understanding of the significance of modern residential architecture on the west coast and the persistence and relevance of its innovative design material and construction strategies.

Canadian Modern Architecture Elsa Lam, Graham Livesey, 2019-11-19 Royal Architectural Institute of Canada RAIC President's Medal Award multimedia representation of architecture. Canada's most distinguished architectural critics and scholars offer fresh insights into the country's unique modern and contemporary architecture. Beginning with the nation's centennial and Expo 67 in Montreal, this fifty-year retrospective covers the defining of national institutions and movements. How Canadian architects interpreted major external trends, regional and indigenous architectural tendencies, the influence of architects in Canada's three largest cities, Toronto, Montreal, and Vancouver. Co-published with Canadian Architect, this comprehensive reference book is extensively illustrated and includes fifteen specially commissioned essays.

Ron Thom, Architect Adele Weder, 2022-09-13 A definitive biography of an iconic Canadian architect and a social portrait of the mid-century design world he lived in. Ron Thom came of age in the mid-20th century just as the modern movement and an impending building boom were about to reshape the country. Talented in music and art as well as design, he rejected sleek austerity in favor of modern architecture that is warm, intimate, and beautiful. He worked from coast to coast, and his most renowned buildings, Massey College, Trent University, the Shaw Festival Theatre, and landmark houses, continue to inspire generations of architects as well as the legions of people who work, study, visit, and live in them. In Adele Weder's new biography, Thom emerges as a complex figure, gifted with creative genius but pursued by demons. More than just the life story of one man, this book is a portrait of the society that shaped him. His world included Jack Shadbolt, Arthur Erickson, the Massey family, Barbara and Murray Frum, and many other luminaries of 20th-century Canada. To unpack this multifaceted story, Weder pored through institutional and personal archives in Victoria Vancouver Calgary Montreal Peterborough and Toronto She tracked down and interviewed Thom s surviving friends colleagues and family members across the country from New Brunswick to Vancouver Island Her extensive research serves as the bedrock for Ron Thom Architect a book for anyone interested in a transformative era in Canada s cultural history Dreamers and Designers Francis Mansbridge,2018-10-27 West Vancouver is a community defined by its geography bordered on three sides by the ocean backed by mountainous wilderness and threaded by creeks and ravines This setting gives the region a distinct identity attracting people from all over the world with the prospect of stunning scenery and unparalleled opportunities for outdoor activity but also defines how the community has developed As West Vancouver transitioned from a beachfront cottage community to a region filled with houses that only the affluent can afford its growth has been characterized by ongoing tension between efforts to conserve its natural beauty and the drive to open it up to eager would be West Vancouverites In recent decades the Squamish Nation has also become a major player in shaping the future direction of the area In Dreamers and Designers Francis Mansbridge traces the history of West Vancouver examining how its approach to land use has shaped the region and illustrating the consequences of this fight including the marginalization of its less affluent citizens The text is enlivened by accounts of the major personalities involved in the shaping of West Vancouver and sidebars featuring the voices of West Vancouverites throughout the ages With archival and contemporary photographs that provide a visual account of the changing landscape Dreamers and Designers paints a vivid picture of how West Vancouver s unique setting has defined the dynamic coastal community and the lives of those who reside there Canada Michelangelo Sabatino,Rhodri Windsor Liscombe,2016-11-15 Canada is a country of massive size of diverse geographical features and an equally diverse population all features that are magnificently reflected in its architecture In this book Rhodri Windsor Liscombe and Michelangelo Sabatino offer a richly informative history of Canadian architecture that celebrates and explores the country s many contributions to the spread of architectural modernity in the Americas A distinct Canadian design attitude coalesced during the twentieth century one informed by a liberal hybrid and pragmatic mindset intent less upon the dogma of architectural language and more on thinking about the formation of inclusive spaces and places Taking a fresh perspective on design production they map the unfolding of architectural modernity across the country from the completion of the transcontinental railway in the late 1880s through to the present Along the way they discuss architecture within the broader contexts of political industrial and sociocultural evolution the urban suburban expansion and new building technologies Examining the works of architects and firms such as ARCOP Eric Arthur Ernest Cormier Brigitte Shim and Howard Sutcliffe this book brings Canadian architecture chronologically and thematically to life Downs House II Christopher Macdonald,2016 presents an original and comprehensive overview of the home that local architect Barry Downs built for himself in West Vancouver This house of modest proportions presents the key and formative qualities that have come to represent a West Coast Modern idiom in architecture Blue Sky Living Trevor Boddy,The Images

Publishing Group, 2013 Blue Sky was born out of the ferment of the late 1960s and early 1970s but it has proved to have much more talent tenacity and imagination than most other idealistic initiatives from that time Blue Sky Design for Living, 2019 Does Your House Fit You In 1949 the Community Arts Council of Vancouver posed this question in their catalogue for the seminal Design for Living exhibition at the Vancouver Art Gallery arguably marking the birth of Canada's West Coast Modernist tradition in art and architecture Seventy years later many of these modernist homes have been demolished for redevelopment and yet many more have been renovated and preserved reminders of the spirit of invention experimentation and enlightenment that characterized their original design This catalogue which accompanies an exhibition of the same name presents eight case studies that represent a spectrum of modernist homes Some are by well known architects and designers while others are by lesser known builders but all of which have been restored updated and adapted to the needs of contemporary family life while remaining true to the modernist spirit in which they were originally created West Coast Residential Greg Bellerby, 2007 Demonstrates how modernist traditions are being integrated into contemporary design explains what the defining features of the West Coast mid century vernacular were and asks whether it still exists today Includes homes in Vancouver by B C Binning and Battersby Howat Seattle by Paul Hayden Kirk and Eggleston Farkas Portland by John Yeon and William Tripp Los Angeles by Maynard Lyndon and Barton Myers and San Francisco by William Wurster and Stanley Saitowitz Exploring Vancouver Harold Kalman, Robin Ward, 2012-04-27 Vancouver's streetscapes and neighbourhoods have changed drastically in recent years New buildings representing current architectural trends are mixing with and often replacing those of earlier eras and tastes and a maturing architectural melange is emerging This book invites the reader to explore the city's continually evolving urban landscape in a highly readable yet authoritative guide to its architecture In this completely updated edition of Exploring Vancouver with brand new entries and accompanying photographs Harold Kalman and Robin Ward have divided the city including the North Shore Richmond Burnaby and New Westminster into fourteen areas selecting buildings and structures in these neighbourhoods that represent the best examples of the new and old architecture Each area is preceded by an informative introduction that provides historical context for the entries that follow There are over 400 entries each featuring a short description that combines architectural historical and social commentary The prose is lively as the authors consider the new and the old the modest and the grand the attractive and the not so attractive in a wide ranging work that encompasses everything from heritage to monster homes This book is designed as a walking tour guide with a map of each area showing the location of every entry Reside: West Coast Architectural Responses Dr Michael J Prokopow, Michael Prokopow, 2024-04-23 Stunning contemporary houses illuminate the enduring and evolving influence of the West Coast Modern architectural style in B C Decades after gaining international recognition through the work of practitioners such as Arthur Erickson Ron Thom and Barry Downs the West Coast Modern style remains widely celebrated and highly influential for residential architects in British Columbia and beyond

even as its expressions evolve and adapt to contemporary contexts What are the contours of its legacy today and has a new Cascadia regional style emerged To explore these questions Clinton Cuddington co principal of Measured Architecture invited dozens of B C based architects to share residential projects that best exemplified their design process Their responses range from palatial mountain chalets to cabins sitting lightly in the forest to oceanfront retreats to sensitive urban renovations Each house is presented through full colour photos by professional photographers including Andrew Latreille and Ema Peter and accompanied by short essays by curator and critic Michael Prokopow that draw on visits to each house and interviews with the architects to elucidate the many aesthetic and programmatic accomplishments on display The houses are grouped by typology within Mountain Forest Shore and City sections and followed by profiles of each firm with photos of additional work As Prokopow details in an incisive essay each house is necessarily also a response to the conditions of its creation notably its site locations include the Sea to Sky Region Vancouver and the Lower Mainland Southern Vancouver Island the Gulf Islands and the West Kootenays as well as its social and cultural context and so is revealing of modern ideas about home and family leisure and vocation ecological concerns and communion with nature on Canada s West Coast With thoughtful deeply informed prose and over 300 considered photos Reside is an absorbing and inspiring tour of some of the most exceptional houses in the country and a portrait of how the unique character of the region is expressed in built form

CRM, 1993 The Changing Image of Affordable Housing Ulduz Maschaykh, 2016-03-09 Illustrated by a range of case studies of affordable housing options in Canada this book examines the liveability and affordability of twenty first century residential architecture Focussing on the architects and communities commitment to these housing programmes as well as that of the private building sector it stresses the importance of the context of the neighbourhoods in which they are placed which are either in the process of urban transition or already gentrified In doing so the book shows how and to what extent twenty first century dwelling architecture developments can help to create an integrated sense of community diminish social and demographic exclusions in a neighbourhood and incorporate people s desires as to what their buildings should look like This book shows that there are significant architectural projects that help to meet the needs and desires of low to middle income households as well as homeowners and that gentrification does not necessarily lead to the displacement of low income families and singles if housing policies such as those highlighted in this book are put into place Moreover the migration of the middle class can result in a healthy mix of classes out of which everyone can enjoy a peaceful and habitable coexistence Rural Modern Russell Abraham ASMP, The Images Publishing Group, 2013-07-19 0 0 1 128 732 The Images Publishing Group 6 1 859 14 0 Normal 0 false false false EN AU JA X NONE Style Definitions table MsoNormalTable mso style name Table Normal mso tstyle rowband size 0 mso tstyle colband size 0 mso style noshadow yes mso style priority 99 mso style parent mso padding alt 0in 5 4pt 0in 5 4pt mso para margin 0in mso para margin bottom 0001pt mso pagination widow orphan font size 10 0pt font family Cambria The latest from leading architectural photographer and writer Russell Abraham

Rural Modern presents a tantalising selection of modern country houses in a variety of styles and forms The 21st century has seen rural residential architecture take ideas from both the Modern Bauhaus design movement and the ever popular Shingle Style The result is a style that borrows from vernacular forms and materials but uses them in new ways Issues of sustainability and energy conservation are also key to contemporary country house design Orienting windows to capture heat in winter but protect the house from the sun in summer is an ongoing design objective The modern country house is a hybrid of several ingenious ideas blended together to create a modern sustainable and highly liveable architecture that respects the past and looks forward into the future
