WORKFORCE INVESTMENT ACT: Youth Provisions Promote New Service Strategies, But Additional Guidance Would Enhance Program Development, 2002 The Workforce Investment Act WIA of 1998¹ provides states and local areas an unprecedented opportunity to substantially change the way youth workforce development services are configured and delivered Historically programs designed to assist at risk youth to attain employment and self sufficiency were a patchwork of short term stand alone services delivered by a loosely coordinated network of providers often resulting in redundancies and inefficiencies WIA aims to broaden the job training and placement focus of its predecessor the Job Training Partnership Act JTPA by requiring states and localities to create a more comprehensive workforce investment system that addresses youths many development needs In addition WIA requires states and localities to streamline the delivery of at least 17 federally funded employment and training services most of which may include some youth services² that are administered by the Departments of Labor Education and other agencies through one stop centers physical sites that serve as gateways to information and services found in communities ³ Through its holistic approach to serving at risk youth WIA its implementing regulations and Department of Labor DOL guidance call for a comprehensive youth development system⁴ that is linked more closely to local labor market needs and community youth activities emphasizes comprehensive service strategies to engage youth year round and requires parents program participants and other members of the community with experience in youth services to provide input on youth programs To ensure youth programs are tailored to the needs of youth and the community WIA promotes partnerships among diverse programs and community representatives in part through their participation on newly created state and local workforce investment boards and youth councils Summer Youth Employment & Training Program Kansas. Division of Employment and Training, 1986 Learn and Earn Through Tryout Employment, 1986 Intended for use by local persons responsible for planning managing and evaluating Job Training Partnership Act JTPA programs this guide draws on the experiences that Private Industry Councils Service Delivery Areas SDAs and local program operators have had providing tryout employment Tryout employment programs provide entry level work experiences to young people who would not usually be hired because they lack good work behaviors attitudes or skills or because they face other barriers to employment The guide describes alternative approaches and techniques used in current tryout programs

The first section of the guide defines tryout employment experience and explains why it is important The second section provides a systematic approach to use in designing tryout employment programs The third section uses that approach to describe locally developed programs or program functions such as assessment This section also contains some examples of key forms developed by SDAs or operators for use with employers and participants in clarifying responsibilities and tracking performance A list of National Alliance of Business regional service offices concludes the document CML
