The Vlachs Metropolis And Diaspora:

The Vlachs Asterios I. Koukoudēs, 2003 The Vlachs Asterios I. Kukudēs, Konstandinos Stephanopoulos, Deborah Whitehouse, 2003 Homelands and Diasporas Minna Rozen, 2008-10-30 The Greek and Jewish diasporas are the most significant diasporas of Western civilisation Homelands and Diasporas is the first book to explore the similarities and differences between these two experiences In the process it sheds fascinating light on their fundamental importance for both Greek and Jewish societies The authors examine Greek and Jewish diasporas throughout history from classical and Biblical times to the present and all over the world in Greece the Balkans Turkey Russia the Near and Middle East Spain and the US They analyse the very nature of diaspora examining both the Greek concept of noble expansion and the Jewish idea of enforced exile and analyse community structures as well as social and religious networks combining Scriptural analysis with cultural and political history Diaspora is a difficult and emotive concept but Homelands and Diasporas offers a balanced and perceptive guide to the connected histories of these two peoples away from their homelands Encyclopedia of Stateless Nations James B. Minahan, 2016-08-01 This book addresses the numerous national movements of ethnic groups around the world seeking independence more self rule or autonomy movements that have proliferated exponentially in the 21st century In the last 15 years globalization religious radicalization economic changes endangered cultures and languages cultural suppression racial tensions and many other factors have stimulated the emergence of autonomy and independence movements in every corner of the world even in areas formerly considered immune to self government demands such as South America Researching the numerous ethnic groups seeking autonomy or independence worldwide previously required referencing many specialized publications This book makes this difficult to find information available in a single volume presented in a simple format accessible to everyone from high school readers to scholars in advanced studies programs The book provides an extensive update to Greenwood's Encyclopedia of the Stateless Nations Ethnic and National Groups around the World that was published more than a decade earlier Each ethnic group receives an alphabetically organized entry containing information such as alternate names population figures flag or flags geography history culture and languages All the information readers need to understand the motivating factors behind each movement and the current situation of each ethnic group is presented in a compact summary Fact boxes at the beginning of each entry enable students to quickly access key information and consistent entry structure makes for easy cross cultural comparisons Vlachica Mirela Roznoveanu, 2021-06-20 Who are the Vlachs For the first time Mirela Roznoveanu has put Europe's original people her people on the map Living for millennia hidden high in the Balkan and Dalmatian mountains above the shifting tides of empires the Vlachs or Armans have fiercely guarded the unity in variety of their ancient way of life Their long silence breaks at last overflowing with mythology history landscape folklore food customs clothing music magical realism intrigue passion cruelty poetry tragedy and comedy Vlachica is a force of nature total immersion in a rich lost world The Forgotten

Minorities of Eastern Europe Arno Tanner, 2004 Notes from the Balkans Sarah F. Green, 2016-09-26 Maps and borders notwithstanding some places are best described as gaps places with repeatedly contested boundaries that are wedged in between other places that have clear boundaries This book explores an iconic example of this in the contemporary Western imagination the Balkans Drawing on richly detailed ethnographic research around the Greek Albanian border Sarah Green focuses her groundbreaking analysis on the ambiguities of never quite resolving where or what places are One consequence for some Greek peoples in this border area is a seeming lack of distinction but in a distinctly Balkan way In gaps which are never empty marginality is in contrast with conventional understandings not a matter of difference and separation it is a lack thereof Notes from the Balkans represents the first ethnographic approach to exploring the Balkans as an ideological concept Green argues that rather than representing a tension between West and East the Balkans makes such oppositions ambiguous This kind of marginality means that such places and peoples can hardly engage with multiculturalism Moreover the region s ambiguity threatens clear modernist distinctions The violence so closely associated with the region can therefore be seen as part of continual attempts to resolve the ambiguities by imposing fixed separations And every time this fails the region is once again defined as a place that will continually proliferate such dangerous ambiguity and could spread it somewhere else

Гласник Етнографског института , 2004 Borders, Boundaries and Belonging in Post-Ottoman Space in the Interwar Period Ebru Boyar, Kate Fleet, 2022-11-21 Focusing on new nation states and mandates in post Ottoman territories Borders Boundaries and Belonging in Post Ottoman Space in the Interwar Period examines how people negotiated imagined or ignored new state borders and how they conceived of or constructed belonging Through investigations of border crossing population transfer exile and emigration this book explores the intricacies of survival within and beyond newly imposed state borders the exploitation of opportunities and the human cost of political partition Contributors are Toufoul Abou Hodeib Leyla Amzi Erdogdular Amit Bein Ebru Boyar Onur i Liat Kozma Brian McLaren Nikola Minov Eli Osherooff Ramazan Hakk ztan Michael Provence Jordi Tejel and Peter Wien Nation-Building and Identity in Europe R. Tzanelli, 2008-10-24 This book offers a provocative theorization of nationhood focusing on the key role played by dialogic relations of hegemony resistance and reciprocity in the birth of the modern European nation The relationship between Greece and Britain at the end of the nineteenth century uncovers the linguistic construction of nationalism The Spear, the Scroll, and the Pebble Richard A. Billows, 2023-01-12 This book presents a powerful new argument for how and why the Greek city states including their distinctive society and culture came to be and why they had the highly unusual and influential form they took After reviewing early city state formation and the economic underpinnings of city state society three key chapters examine the way the Greeks developed their unique society The spear scroll and pebble encapsulate the book s core ideas The Spear city state Greeks developed a citizen militia military system that gave relatively equal importance to each citizen warrior thereby emboldening the citizen warriors to demand political rights The Pebble the resultant growth of collective political systems of oligarchy and democracy led to thousands of citizens forming the sovereign element of the state they made political decisions through communal debate and voting The Scroll in order for such systems to function a shared information base had to be created and this was done by setting up public notices of laws proposed policies public meeting agendas and a host of other information To access this information these military and political citizens had to be able to read Billows examines the spread of schools and literacy throughout the Greek world showing that the male city state Greeks formed the world s first known mass literate society He concludes by showing that it was the mass literate nature of the Greek city state society that explains the remarkable and influential culture the classical Greeks produced The Romance-Speaking Balkans

,2021-03-22 The relationship between language and identity is a complex topic everywhere in the world but maybe it is even more crucial for those people living in the Balkans who speak a Romance variety This volume is the result of a project started by the Balkan History Association and brings together scholars trained in social sciences and humanities to offer the reader a thorough sociolinguistic and anthropological account of this region It constitutes a contribution to a reformulation of methodological and analytical issues providing a better insight in the linguistic and geopolitical processes taking place in the area Contributors are Michael Studemund Hal vy C t lin Mamali Anna Christine Weirich Ewa Nowicka Daniela Carmen Stoica Mircea M ran Zvezdana Vrzi and Monica Hu anu The Natural Environment in Late Byzantine Correspondence

Kalliope Mavrommati,2025-10-10 This book investigates environmental issues traced through the epistolography of the late Byzantine period which spans roughly the end of the twelfth century to the mid fifteenth century The book s overarching goal is to shed light on the complex ways in which the Byzantines conceptualised their connection to the natural world both in broad strokes and in finer granularity and to provide a general understanding of societal dependence on the environment It offers further details of this relationship by drawing on a wide variety of literary sources as well as archaeological and environmental data Balkan Identities Maria Todorova,2004-04 Balkan Identities brings together historians anthropologists and literary scholars all working under the shared conviction that the only way to overcome history is to intimately understand it The contributors of Balkan Identities focus on historical memory collective national memory and the political manipulation of national identities They refine our understanding of memory and identity in general and explore and assess the significance of particular manifestations of Balkan national identities and national memories in the region The essays in Balkan Identities grapple with three major problems the construction of historical memory sites of national memory and the mobilization of national identities While most essays focus on a single country e g Croatia Romania Turkey Cyprus Albania Serbia Bulgaria Greece Macedonia they are in dialogue with each other and share an opposition to rigid isolationist identities Illuminating and challenging Balkan Identities demonstrates the ever changing nature of a troubled and culturally vibrant region Borders and Mobility Control in and between Empires and Nation-States ,2022-10-24 In a modernist interpretation of migration controls nation states play a major role This book challenges this interpretation by showing that comprehensive migration checks and permanent border controls appeared much earlier in early modern dynastic states and empires and predated nation states by centuries The 11 contributions in this volume explore the role of early modern and modern dynastic kingdoms and empires in Europe the Middle East and Eurasia and the evolution of border controls from the 16th to the 20th century They analyse how these states interacted with other polities such as emerging nations states in Europe North America and Australia and what this means for a broader reconceptualization of mobility in Europe and beyond in the longue dur e Contributors are Tobias Brinkmann Vincent Denis Sinan Din er Josef Ehmer Irial A Glynn Sabine Jesner Olga Katsiardi Hering Leo Lucassen Ikaros Mantouvalos Leslie Page Moch Jovan Pe alj Lewis H Siegelbaum Annemarie Steidl and Megan Williams

Mythopoetic Cinema Kriss Ravetto-Biagioli, 2017-08-08 In Mythopoetic Cinema Kriss Ravetto Biagioli explores how contemporary European filmmakers treat mythopoetics as a critical practice that questions the constant need to provide new identities a new Europe and with it a new European cinema after the fall of the Soviet Union Mythopoetic cinema questions the perpetual branding of movements ideas and individuals Examining the work of Jean Luc Godard Alexander Sokurov Marina Abramovi and Theodoros Angelopoulos Ravetto Biagioli argues that these disparate artists provide a critical reflection on what constitutes Europe in the age of neoliberalism Their films reflect not only the violence of recent years but also help question dominant models of nation building that result in the general failure to respond ethically to rising ethnocentrism In close readings of such films as Sokurov s Russian Ark 2002 and Godard s Notre Musique 2004 Ravetto Biagioli demonstrates the ways in which these filmmakers engage and evaluate the recent reconceptualization of Europe s borders mythic figures and identity paradoxes Her work not only analyzes how these filmmakers thematically treat the idea of Europe but also how their work questions the ability of the moving image to challenge conventional ways of understanding history
