Uncle Charlie's Poems Charles Noel Douglas,2015-07-11 Excerpt from Uncle Charlie s Poems Mirthful and Otherwise

At the urgent request of many friends who have been kind enough to take an interest in the verse I have from time to time contributed to various magazines I have gotten together a number of my published efforts and herewith present them to the public This little work is called a book of poems but as a matter of fact it does not contain a single poem for which I am thankful as publishers inform me that poetry does not sell All I claim for this book is that it contains some verse which may possibly bring a smile to the faces of those who read it if those readers are not hopeless dyspeptics or confirmed hypochondriacs If the mirth seeker finds nothing laughable in the so called humorous verse perhaps in the section devoted to the more serious subjects he may discover sufficient excuse for indulging his risibilities to his heart s content In any event I hope the reader will mark the note of cheerfulness and optimism which runs through the book in spite of the fact that every line in this volume has been written during ten years of shut in life six of which were passed in the wards of hospitals and institutions among scenes which cannot be recalled without a shudder About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Uncle

how you try When you have to sit most all the day on tacks ten inches high And no wonder I m a dunce and all my brains are in a wreck When boys all day put bumblebees and waspses down my neck So Washington and Lincoln I can t imitate because I never heard their names a fore and I don t know who they was THE LITTLE BIED THAT S ALWAYS TELLING MA VE had a present from my pa a dandy new air gun And now I m going out of doors to have no end of fun The neighbors cats are safe from me I ve got no quarrel with them The rabbits squirrels chipmunks hares to death I don t condemn Wolves Indians mountain lions coyotes bear and deer Can look into the muzzle of my gun and have no fear But I have sworn fierce vengeance and am on the trail ha ha Of the horrid spiteful little bird that s always telling Ma How happy would have been my life how gay and free from care Had Nature made no little birds to navigate the air What whippings I would have been spared the lash that fiercely stung Had one mean tell tale bird had but the sense to hold its tongue For since I can remember that s some eight long troubled years That horrid bird has spied on me and oh the bitter tears That tell tale wretch has caused me for no matter what I do That little bird has told my Ma before the day is through If we had birds in all the rooms in cellar attic too I shouldn t wonder then if Ma of all my actions knew But all we ve got s a parrot and since the day Pa came Crash
