Kommunikation und Kulturtransfer im Zeitalter der Personalunion zwischen Großbritannien und Hannover Arnd

Reitemeier, 2014 Mit der Krönung von Georg Ludwig Kurfürst von Braunschweig Lüneburg Hannover zum englischen König Georg I am 31. Oktober 1714 verschieben sich die politischen Kräfteverhältnisse in Europa. Die Personalunion hatte weitreichende Folgen für den Kontinent und den transatlantischen Raum, doch wichtiger noch waren die nun intensiv gegebenen Möglichkeiten eines Kulturtransfers zwischen Großbritannien und dem Kurfürstentum Hannover. Diese vielfältigen kulturellen, sozialen, wissenschaftlichen und ökonomischen Verflechtungen stehen im Zentrum der Beiträge, die immer wieder auf die besondere Bedeutung der Universität Göttingen hinweisen, von der wichtige Impulse für die Personalunion und ihre Kommunikationsnetzwerke ausgingen. Zugleich verdeutlichen die Aufsätze, dass sowohl Großbritannien als auch das Kurfürstentum Hannover aus heterogenen Landesteilen bestanden und dass stets der Kontext des sich wandelnden Europas des 18. Jahrhunderts gesehen werden muss. Der Sammelband beruht auf den Vorträgen, die im Rahmen der Ringvorlesung des Wintersemesters 2013/2014 an der Universität Göttingen gehalten wurden.

Changing Contexts, Shifting Meanings Elfriede Hermann, 2011-09-30 This book sheds new light on processes of cultural transformation at work in Oceania and analyzes them as products of interrelationships between culturally created meanings and specific contexts. In a series of inspiring essays, noted scholars of the region examine these interrelationships for insight into how cultural traditions are shaped on an ongoing basis. The collection marks a turning point in the debate on the conceptualization of tradition. Following a critique of how tradition has been viewed in terms of dichotomies like authenticity vs. inauthenticity, contributors stake out a novel perspective in which tradition figures as context-bound articulation. This makes it possible to view cultural traditions as resulting from interactions between people, their ideas, actions, and objects, and the ambient contexts. Such interactions are analyzed from the past down to the Oceanian present, with indigenous agency being highlighted. The work focuses first on early encounters, initially between Pacific Islanders themselves and later with the European navigators of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries, to clarify how meaningful actions and contexts interrelated in the past. The present-day memories of Pacific Islanders are examined to ask how such memories represent encounters that occurred long ago and how they influenced the social, political, economic, and religious changes that ensued. Next, contributors address ongoing social and structural interactions that social actors enlist to shape their traditions within the context of globalization, and then the repercussions that these intersections and intercultural exchanges of discourses and practices are having on active identity formation as practiced by Pacific Islanders. Finally, two authorities on Oceania, who themselves move in the intersecting space between anthropology and history, discuss the essays and add their own valuable reflections. With its wealth of illuminating analyses and illustrations, Changing Contexts, Shifting Meanings will appeal to students and scholars in the fields of cultural and social anthropology, history, art history, museology, Pacific studies, gender studies, cultural studies, and literary criticism.

This collection became the core of the University's Academic Museum. In addition to thousands of items of natural history (minerals, plants, zoological items), 66 Art Things were part of Buettner's collection. The publication investigates the question if and how the emergence of scholarly disciplines was stimulated by processes of forming and working with specific collections, taking the development of the Ethnographic collection starting from the 66 Art Things 1773 to the foundation of the Institute and Collection of Völkerkunde 1935/36 and the emergence of Völkerkunde as a university discipline in Göttingen as an example Die Wissenschaft vom Menschen in Göttingen um 1800 Hans Erich Bödeker, Philippe Büttgen, Michel Espagne, 2008 Proceedings from the international colloquium Die Wissenschaft vom Menschen in Göttingen um 1800 held at the Max Planck Institut für Geschichte in June 2005 A world of new things Anne Mariss, 2015-12-10 Wie wurde naturkundliches Wissen im 18. Entgegen iterativer Ansätze begreift Anne Mariss in ihrer Studie naturhistorisches Forschen nicht als aufklärerisch-fortschrittsorientierten Prozess, sondern als ein zukunftsoffenes Wirken von Ideen und wissenschaftlichen Theorien einerseits, sozialen und kulturellen Praktiken andererseits. Ausgehend von der Person Johann Reinhold Forsters, der durch die zweite Weltumsegelung James Cooks 1772-1775 internationale Anerkennung erfuhr, an Bekanntheit jedoch hinter seinem Sohn Georg Forster zurücksteht, gelingt es ihr, die europäische Wissenslandschaft und deren globale Netzwerke aufscheinen zu lassen Göttinger Künstlerlexikon Thomas Appel, 2022 Mit der vorliegenden Publikation werden über 450 Göttinger Künstlerinnen und Künstler erstmals unter intensiver Auswertung zahlreicher Quellen mit ihren Biographien und einem Auszug aus ihrem Werkverzeichnis vom 14. Jahrhundert bis zum Geburtsjahr 1950 vorgestellt. Eine große Zahl von unbekannten Künstlern mehr als anfanglich zu erwarten war, konnte ans Licht geholt werden. Zudem war es möglich, bislang anonyme Werke einem Kunstschaaffenden namentlich zuzuweisen. Dabei beleuchtet die Auswertung von Archivmaterial nicht nur die Entstehungsgeschichte der Werke, sondern bietet auch interessante Einblicke in die besonderen und alltäglichen Lebensumstände der Künstler in ihrer Zeit. Damit werden die bisherigen Kenntnisse über die kulturelle Entwicklung der Stadt Göttingen wesentlich erweitert und auf eine wissenschaftlich belegbare Basis gestellt. 231 Abbildungen ergänzen den Text und führen Göttinger Kunst auch plastisch vor Augen.
