Postcolonial Explorations NA NA,2019-06-12 Travel writing has gained new appeal and writers from the British Isles have been particularly productive and successful in this genre This volume provides a concise introduction to the basic characteristics and historical development of travel writing as it has emerged in the British Isles from the Middle Ages to the present day Examples considered include many classics such as Defoe Sterne and Smollett Isabella Bird and Mary Kingsley Chatwin and Raban and also lesser known representatives Types of travel writing discussed include pilgrims itineraries

Travellers Manfred Pfister,2023-04-12 This is the first anthology of British travel writing on Italy which traces the development of the genre and the history of the British perception of Italy from the Renaissance to the present As an annotations for each of them and their nearly hundred authors some of them like Smollett Byron Dickens or Huxley well known others virtually unknown amongst them many unduly neglected women writers Further features are a substantial

Sachs,2023-12-22 In his cultural analysis of the motor car in Germany Wolfgang Sachs starts from the assumption that the automobile is more than a means of transportation and that its history cannot be understood merely as a triumphant march of technological innovation Instead Sachs examines the history of the automobile from the late 1880s until today for evidence on the nature of dreams and desires embedded in modern culture Written in a lively style and illustrated by a wealth of cartoons advertisements newspaper stories and propaganda this book explores the nature of Germany s love affair with the automobile A history of our desires for speed wealth violence glamour progress and power as refracted through images of the automobile it is at once fascinating and provocative Sachs recounts the development of the automobile industry and the impact on German society of the marketing and promotion of the motor car As cars became more affordable and more common after World War II advertisers fanned the competition for status refining their techniques as ownership became ever more widespread Sachs concludes by demonstrating that the triumphal procession of private motorization has in fact become an intrusion The grand dreams once attached to the automobile have aged Sachs appeals for the cultivation of new dreams born of the futility of the old ones dreams of a society liberated from progress in which location distance and speed are reconceived in more appropriately humane dimensions In his cultural analysis of the motor car in Germany Wolfgang Sachs starts from the assumption that the automobile is more than a means of transportation and that its history cannot be understood merely as a triumphant march of technological innovation

 Heinz-Gerhard Haupt, Michael G. Müller, Stuart Joseph Woolf, 1998-07-03 In late 20th century Europe both national and regional loyalties have retained a surprising strength and topicality despite the advance of supra national integration This volume addresses some specific aspects of this phenomenon that lay at the centre of the interdisciplinary work of the first European Forum of the European University Institute in Florence during the academic year 1993 94 It aims at contributing to a better understanding of the origins and the nature of territorially based identities in Europe and it also offers some analysis of current problems arising at various levels of the relationships between regional national and international structures The contributions to this volume refer to three major fields of historical and contemporary research The study of the factors that constitute territorially based imagined communities Under what conditions can certain cultural characteristics shared by a given group such as language religious affiliation or cultural heritage acquire social and political meaning in a process of creating territorial loyalties And how do regional and national loyalties relate to other patterns of particularist group identities In examining these questions special attention is given to the concept of primordial identities and to the problem of ethnicity The analysis of the mechanisms by which particular group interests social political or cultural are translated into narratives of regional or national identity The loyalty to a community within a given territory is never merely a product of invention and of arbitrary ideological indoctrination Deutsche Bibliographie ,1981 Fernweh und Reiselust Sigrid Bertuleit, Museum Georg Schäfer, Andreas Strobl, 2001 Reiseberichte als Quellen europäischer Kulturgeschichte Antoni Mączak, Hans Jürgen Teuteberg, 1982 Guidebook Gazes Joanna Dybiec, 2004 Tourism as a mode of interaction visualization and experience provides a valuable insight into the transformation processes in modern societies and cultures Travel guides both document and contribute to these processes This study analyses over forty American and German travel guides to Poland formerly a politically isolated destination now a considerably globalized EU member state In this historically based analysis the author examines the creation of a tourist gaze of Poland discussing stereotypes of Poles and the development of the country s touristic attractiveness Kulturgeschichte des Reisens Gabriele M.
