Vroomheid en volksgeloof in Vlaanderen Jozef R. S. Cauberghe, 1968 Medieval English Theatre 44 Meg

Twycross, Sarah Carpenter, Elisabeth Dutton, Gordon Kipling, 2023-06-13 Newest research into drama and performance of the Middle Ages and Tudor period Medieval English Theatre is the premier journal in early theatre studies Its name belies its wide range of interest it publishes articles on theatre and pageantry from across the British Isles up to the opening of the London playhouses and the suppression of the civic religious plays and also includes contributions on European and Latin drama together with analyses of modern survivals or equivalents and of research productions of medieval plays The papers in this volume explore richly interlocking topics Themes of royalty and play continue from Volume 43 We have the first in depth examination of the employment of the now famous Black Tudor trumpeter John Blanke at the royal courts of Henry VII and Henry VIII An entertaining survey of the popular European game of blanket tossing accompanies the translation of a raucous sophisticated but surprisingly humane Dutch rederijkers farce The Towneley plays remain fertile ground for further research and this blanket tossing farce illuminates a key scene of the well known Second Shepherd s Play New exploration of a colloquial reference to Stafford Blue in another Towneley pageant Noah not only enlivens the play s social context but contributes to important current re thinking of the manuscript s date Two papers bring home the theatrical potential of food and eating We learn how the Tudor interlude Jacob and Esau dramatises the preparation and provision of food from the Genesis story Serving and eating meals becomes a means of social theological and theatrical manipulation Contrastingly in the N Town Last Supper play and a French convent drama we see how the bread of Passover the Last Supper and the Mass could be evoked layered and shared in performance In both these plays the audiences experiences of theatre and of communion overlap and inform each other
