Reading the Two Books of God Thomas W. Mann,2022-09-29 Thomas W Mann is a biblical scholar and retired parish minister and the author of numerous books and articles He is particularly interested in how experiences in nature prompt theological reflection based in the Bible shaping our sense of sacred time and place and how the lectionary readings of the church year also provide a spiritual calendar for the seasons of our lives The result is a conversation inspired by poets and writers like Mary Oliver Wendell Berry and John Muir but also by philosophers and theologians ranging from Abraham Joshua Heschel to David Kelsey Along the way we enter beach time and take backpacking trips in the Sierras but also join the triumphal entry parade on Palm Sunday and listen to the stable animals on Christmas Eve We perceive the beauty of creation through the eyes of science as well as religion sensually as well as intellectually We celebrate our communion with all creatures from fungus to forests inspired with awe and reverence and with a responsibility to care for the earth so threatened by climate change

Making Nature Sacred John Gatta,2004-10-14 Since colonial times the sense of encountering an unseen transcendental Presence within the natural world has been a characteristic motif in American literature and culture American writers have repeatedly perceived in nature something beyond itself and beyond themselves In this book John Gatta argues that the religious import of American environmental literature has yet to be fully recognized or understood Whatever their theology American writers have perennially construed the nonhuman world to be a source in Rachel Carson's words of something that takes us out of ourselves Making Nature Sacred explores how the quest for natural revelation has been pursued through successive phases of American literary and intellectual history And it shows how the imaginative challenge of reading landscapes has been influenced by biblical hermeneutics Though focused on adaptations of Judeo Christian religious traditions it also samples Native American African American and Buddhist forms of ecospirituality It begins with Colonial New England writers such as Anne Bradstreet and Jonathan Edwards re-examines pivotal figures such as Henry Thoreau and John Muir and takes account of writings by Mary Austin Rachel Carson and many others along the way The book concludes with an assessment of the spiritual renaissance underway in current environmental writing as represented by five noteworthy poets and by authors such as Wendell Berry Annie Dillard Marilynne Robinson Peter Matthiessen and Barry Lopez This engaging study should appeal not only to students of literature but also to those interested in ethics and environmental studies religious studies and American cultural history

Devotions: A Read with Jenna Pick Mary Oliver, 2020-11-10 Tell me what is it you plan to do with your one wild and precious life Mary Oliver from The Summer Day Pulitzer Prize winning poet Mary Oliver presents a personal selection of her best work in this definitive collection spanning more than five decades of her esteemed literary career No matter where one starts reading Devotions offers much to love The Washington Post Throughout her celebrated career Mary Oliver has touched countless readers with her brilliantly crafted verse expounding on her love for the physical world and the powerful bonds between all living things Identified as far and away this country's best selling poet by Dwight Garner she now returns with a stunning and definitive collection of her writing from the last fifty years Carefully curated these 200 plus poems feature Oliver's work from her very first book of poetry No Voyage and Other Poems published in 1963 at the age of 28 through her most recent collection Felicity published in 2015 This timeless volume arranged by Oliver herself showcases the beloved poet at her edifying best Within these pages she provides us with an extraordinary and invaluable collection of her passionate perceptive and much treasured observations of the natural world

God of Dirt Thomas W. Mann, 2004-06-25 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize for American Primitive Mary Oliver has published twelve books of poetry and five books of essays Her poems are quoted in everything from Web sites to hymn books Earthlight a Magazine of Spiritual Ecology has declared her an earth saint In this engaging study Mann shows Oliver to have keen eyes and ears for reading the book of nature Readers will discover that the correspondence between Oliver's poetry and traditional religious language provides a fresh perspective from which to enjoy her work Here there is a god but one who at first seems unrecognizable at least to Judeo Christian religious tradition We know of the God of heaven and even the God of heaven and earth but a god of dirt Oliver's reading of the Other Book of God invites us into nature's temple where we may come into the presence of the holy and from which we may leave rejuvenated and blessed God of Dirt is an important study of a contemporary poet whose work is as likely to be read by a preacher in a pulpit as by an activist at an environmental rally and will help us experience a new vision of the beauty of our world

Register University of Tennessee (Knoxville campus),1899 The Truro Bear and Other Adventures Mary Oliver,2008-10-01 The Truro Bear and Other Adventures a companion volume to Owls and Other Fantasies and Blue Iris brings together ten new poems thirty five of Oliver s classic poems and two essays all about mammals insects and reptiles The award winning poet considers beasts of all kinds bears snakes spiders porcupines humpback whales hermit crabs and of course her beloved but disobedient little dog Percy New and Selected Poems Mary Oliver,2005 Official Register of the Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical College Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical College,1922 The Best American Poetry 2000 Rita Dove,2000-09-19 Former Poet Laureate Dove has chosen the best poems of the year from a wide range of literary magazines and journals presenting works by W S Merwin Lucille Clifton Susan Mitchell John Ashbery and others The poets comment about their work Lehman writes the Foreword Treatment and Management of Maladaptive Schemas Eric A. Kreuter,Kenneth M. Moltner,2014-08-01 This volume explores new ground in the area of personal transformation achieved partly through a person s volition with a guide or catalyst The authors research and define the dynamics of paradigmatic thinking incorporating a series of case vignettes of personal transitions They describe impediments to such change as well as the post transformation state of mind where vulnerabilities may persist The resultant need for on going commitment may include guidance or coaching in order to sustain the positive effect of a change in paradigm An important feature of the book is a case study written by Rex a participant in Dr Kreuter s earlier work Rex has achieved significant change in his thought process both in how he sees the world less sinister and his self perspective worthy and connected An in depth view of the new Rex shows the extent to which change has been possible in one human being Combined with other evidence of shifting paradigms drawn from a cross section of therapeutic practice the authors connect the clinical data with their own developed philosophy on the subject of human behavior and the ability to change with the assistance of a therapist guide to effectuate and sustain such change

Interrogating Boundaries of the Nonhuman Sune Borkfelt,Matthias Stephan,2022-05-23 Interrogating Boundaries of the Nonhuman Literature Climate Change and Environmental Crises asks whether literary works that interrogate and alter the terms of human nonhuman relations can point to new more sustainable ways forward Bringing insights from the field of literary animal studies a diverse and international group of scholars examine literary contributions to the ecological framing of human nonhuman relationships Collectively the contributors to this edited collection contemplate the role of literature in the setting of environmental agendas and in determining humanity s path forward in the company of nonhuman others
