I was there, stuck in the pit of bitterness and anger, not knowing where to go and what to do. I felt abandoned and forgotten. It seemed no one had answers for me after the tragic death of our teenage son. It took years, but I finally got answers. And they came from someone I had turned my back upon: Jesus Christ. He waited and waited for years until I was ready to listen. His answers were still the same, but this time I answered an important question: first, Elaine, do you want to be healed? Dear friend, do you want to be healed? That is the question you must answer, and once you have said yes, your healing path to a new life can begin. This little, easy-to-read book will answer thirty-one questions that we are forced to ask after a painful tragedy.
