Witnessing The Disaster Essays On Representation And The Holocaust:

Witnessing the Disaster Michael Bernard-Donals, Richard Glejzer, 2003-12-15 Witnessing the Disaster examines how histories films stories and novels memorials and museums and survivor testimonies involve problems of witnessing how do those who survived and those who lived long after the Holocaust make clear to us what happened How can we distinguish between more and less authentic accounts Are histories more adequate descriptors of the horror than narrative Does the susceptibility of survivor accounts to faulty memory and the vestiges of trauma make them any more or less useful as instruments of witness And how do we authenticate their accuracy without giving those who deny the Holocaust a small but dangerous foothold These essayists aim to move past the notion that the Holocaust as an event defies representation They look at specific cases of Holocaust representation and consider their effect their structure their authenticity and the kind of knowledge they produce Taken together they consider the tension between history and memory the vexed problem of eyewitness testimony and its status as evidence and the ethical imperatives of Holocaust representation

The Holocaust and the Nonrepresentable David Patterson, 2018-05-23 Argues that Holocaust representation has ethical implications fundamentally linked to questions of good and evil Many books focus on issues of Holocaust representation but few address why the Holocaust in particular poses such a representational problem David Patterson draws from Emmanuel Levinas's contention that the Good cannot be represented He argues that the assault on the Good is equally nonrepresentable and this nonrepresentable aspect of the Holocaust is its distinguishing feature Utilizing Jewish religious thought Patterson examines how the literary word expresses the ineffable and how the photographic image manifests the invisible Where the Holocaust is concerned representation is a matter not of imagination but of ethical implication not of what it was like but of what must be done Ultimately Patterson provides a deeper understanding of why the Holocaust itself is indefinable not only as an evil but also as a fundamental assault on the very categories of good and evil affirmed over centuries of Jewish teaching and testimony This book commands respect both for the author's immense and intimate knowledge of what has become a vast body of work and for his unconditional commitment to the subject I am in awe of what I have just read Dorota Glowacka coeditor of Between Ethics and Aesthetics Crossing the Boundaries

Commonplace Witnessing Bradford Vivian, 2017-06-13 Commonplace Witnessing examines how citizens politicians and civic institutions have adopted idioms of witnessing in recent decades to serve a variety of social political and moral ends The book encourages us to continue expanding and diversifying our normative assumptions about which historical subjects bear witness and how they do so Commonplace Witnessing presupposes that witnessing in modern public culture is a broad and inclusive rhetorical act that many different types of historical subjects now think and speak of themselves as witnesses and that the rhetoric of witnessing can be mundane formulaic or popular instead of rare and refined This study builds upon previous literary philosophical psychoanalytic and theological studies of its subject matter in order to analyze witnessing instead as a commonplace form of communication and as a prevalent mode of influence regarding the putative realities and lessons of historical injustice or tragedy It thus weighs both the uses and disadvantages of witnessing as an ordinary feature of modern public life

Judging 'Privileged' Jews Adam Brown, 2015-05 The Nazis persecution of the Jews during the Holocaust included the creation of prisoner hierarchies that forced victims to cooperate with their persecutors Many in the camps and ghettos came to hold so called privileged positions and their behavior has often been judged as self serving and harmful to fellow inmates Such controversial figures constitute an intrinsically important frequently misunderstood and often taboo aspect of the Holocaust Drawing on Primo Levi s concept of the grey zone this study analyzes the passing of moral judgment on privileged Jews as represented by writers such as Raul Hilberg and in films including Claude Lanzmann s Shoah and Steven Spielberg s Schindler s List Negotiating the problems and potentialities of representing the unrepresentable this book engages with issues that are fundamental to present day attempts to understand the Holocaust and deeply relevant to reflections on human nature

The Holocaust in Italian Culture, 1944-2010 Robert Gordon, 2012-07-11 The Holocaust in Italian Culture 1944 2010 is the first major study of how postwar Italy confronted or failed to confront the Holocaust Fascist Italy was the model for Nazi Germany and Mussolini was Hitler s prime ally in the Second World War But Italy also became a theater of war and a victim of Nazi persecution after 1943 as resistance collaboration and civil war raged Many thousands of Italians Jews and others were deported to concentration camps throughout Europe After the war Italian culture produced a vast array of stories images and debate through which it came to terms with the Holocaust's difficult legacy Gordon probes a rich range of cultural material as he paints a picture of this shared encounter with the darkest moment of twentieth century history His book explores aspects of Italian national identity and memory offering a new model for analyzing the interactions between national and international images of the Holocaust

Ezekiel's Sign-Acts Tyler D. Mayfield, Penelope Barter, 2024-11-04 The Ezekiel passages describing the instructions for and dramatization of divine messages Ezekiel 3 5 12 24 37 are among the most bizarre in the Hebrew Bible The prophet is commanded to embody his message of judgment to Jerusalem and these actions clarify the oracles they surround Yet these sign acts are frequently overlooked within Ezekiel studies which tend to focus on the book's strange visions and controversial oracles This volume addresses the growing diversity in approaches in Ezekiel studies by inviting international senior and junior scholars to focus on the texts concerning Ezekiel's sign acts It aims to redirect scholarly attention to these often ignored texts which stand so central to understanding the nature of prophecy as well as the overall book of Ezekiel

Projecting the Holocaust Into the Present Lawrence Baron, 2005 Most Holocaust scholars and survivors contend that the event was so catastrophic and unprecedented that it defies authentic representation in feature films Yet it is precisely the extremity of the Final Solution and the issues it raised that have fueled the cinematic imagination since the end of World War II Recognizing that movies reach a greater audience than eyewitness historical or literary accounts Lawrence Baron argues that they mirror changing public perceptions of the Holocaust over time and place After tracing the evolution of the most commonly employed genres and themes in earlier Holocaust motion pictures he focuses on how films from the 1990s made the Holocaust relevant for contemporary audiences While genres like biographical films and love stories about doomed Jewish Gentile couples remained popular they now cast Jews or non Jewish victims like homosexuals in lead roles more often than was the case in the past Baron attributes the recent proliferation of Holocaust comedies and children s movies to the search for more figurative and age appropriate genres for conveying the significance of the Holocaust to generations born after it happened He contends that thematic shifts to stories about neo Nazis rescuers survivors and their children constitute an expression of the continuing impact the Holocaust exerts on the present The book concludes with a survey of recent films like Nowhere in Africa and The Pianist Human Rights Rhetoric Arabella Lyon, Lester C Olson, 2013-09-13 Rhetoric scholars have articulated diverse approaches to both civil and human rights as political ethical and academic discourses Traditions of Testifying and Witnessing initiates important interdisciplinary conversations within human rights rhetoric concerning the construction of rights knowledge the role of advocacy and politics of representations during acts of witnessing Developing a conceptual framework for rhetorical inquiry into rights discourse the collection of essays by established scholars demonstrates a range of approaches and subject matter From textual analysis of AIDS politics and activism to theoretical discussions of the nature of rights rhetoric and confession the book challenges many current assumptions about rights history and practices and still provides an introduction to the recent themes for classroom use To encourage critical reflection on the assumptions contentions and implications of political representations and human rights the editors have concluded the collection with a series of suggestive visual works without comment to prompt viewers own engagement with them This book was originally published as a special issue of Rhetoric Society Quarterly Trauma, History, Philosophy (With Feature Essays by Agnes Heller and György Márkus) Murray Noonan, Matthew Sharpe, 2009-03-26 In the age of the war on terror and what one critic has called disaster capitalism the topic of trauma has assumed renewed cultural relevance Trauma Historicity Philosophy is a collection of essays by Australian philosophers psychoanalysts and cultural theorists on the genealogy semantics and relevance of the concept of trauma in the contemporary world The collection features two essays by Agnes Heller and Gyorgy Markus addressing trauma and what psychoanalysis elevation of trauma to cultural centrality means and has meant for modern philosophy and social theory Other essays address 911 cyber terrorism the shoah political tyranny the end of history and engage with the thought of Kierkegaard Schmitt Hobbes Derrida Agamben Badiou Zizek Lacan and Freud
