Woman Her Own Mans World:

A Woman's View Jeanine Basinger, 1995-06-23 In this highly readable and entertaining book Jeanine Basinger shows how the woman's film of the 30s 40s and 50s sent a potent mixed message to millions of female moviegoers At the same time that such films exhorted women to stick to their proper realm of men marriage and motherhood they portrayed usually with relish strong women playing out liberating fantasies of power romance sexuality luxury even wickedness Basinger examines dozens of films whether melodrama screwball comedy musical film noir western or biopic to make a persuasive case that the woman's film was a rich complicated and subversive genre that recognized and addressed if covertly the problems of women Amazon.com viewed 7 31 2020 Woman in a Man's World Rosamund Essex, 1977 Cassidy et al.: Women and Empire, 1750-1939, Vol. III Elizabeth Dimock, 2021-12-24 First published in 2008 Women and Empire 1750 1939 functions to extend significantly the range of the History of Feminism series co published by Routledge and Edition Synapse bringing together the histories of British and American women's emancipation represented in earlier sets into juxtaposition with histories produced by different kinds of imperial and colonial governments The alignment of writings from a range of Anglo imperial contexts reveals the overlapping histories and problems while foregrounding cultural specificities and contextual inflections of imperialism The volumes focus on countries regions or continents formerly colonized in part by Britain Volume I Australia Volume II New Zealand Volume III Africa Volume IV India Volume V Canada Perhaps the most novel aspect of this collection is its capacity to highlight the common aspects of the functions of empire in their impact on women and their production of gender and conversely to demonstrate the actual specificity of particular regional manifestations Concerning questions of power gender class and race this new Routledge Edition Synapse Major Work will be of particular interest to scholars and students of imperialism colonization women's history and women's writing Collier's, 1910 Map Worlds Will C. van den Hoonaard, 2013-09-21 Map Worlds plots a journey of discovery through the world of women map makers from the golden age of cartography in the sixteenth century Low Countries to tactile maps in contemporary Brazil Author Will C van den Hoonaard examines the history of women in the profession sets out the situation of women in technical fields and cartography related organizations and outlines the challenges they face in their careers Map Worlds explores women as colourists in early times describes the major houses of cartographic production and delves into the economic function of intermarriages among cartographic houses and families It relates how in later centuries working from the margins women produced maps to record painful tribal memories or sought to remedy social injustices Much later one woman so changed the way we think about continents that the shift has been likened to the Copernican revolution Other women created order and wonder about the lunar landscape and still others turned the art and science of making maps inside out exposing the hidden unconscious and subliminal text of maps Shared by all these map makers are themes of social justice and making maps work for the betterment of humanity On the Contrary Martha Rainbolt, Janet Fleetwood, 1984-06-30 On The Contrary contains a balance of writings by men and women The essays are presented in pairs a man and a woman writing on each topic This balanced juxtaposition allows students to discuss think and write about changing roles and relationships without being forced into either a feminist or traditionalist party line The essays in each section reverberate suggestively with each other and this effect is reinforced by the discussion questions writing topics and introductory material An additional table of contents arranges the essays according to rhetorical rubrics

Right-Wing Women Andrea Dworkin, 2025-02-25 With a new foreword by Moira Donegan this long awaited reissue of Dworkin's iconic study of women in American conservatism is paired with a bold modern package to match Dworkin's visionary perspective and style Andrea Dworkin wrote Right Wing Women in 1983 a crucial and deeply illuminating analysis of the right's position on abortion homosexuality antisemitism female poverty and antifeminism Forty years later the book feels more vibrant clear eyed and visionary than ever especially as these issues get relitigated in both legal and public forums In addition to her revelatory and nuanced portraits of figures like Anita Bryant and Phyllis Schlafly and an examination of the roots of a distinctly woman led brand of American conservatism Right Wing Women will give readers the thrill of rediscovering the force and elegance of Dworkin's arguments and her skill as one of our most adept and prophetic feminist thinkers

Jessie Bernard Reader Jessie Bernard, Michael S. Kimmel, Yasemin Besen, 2015-11-17 Jessie Bernard was one of the foremost early feminist sociologists and public intellectuals in women's studies In The Jessie Bernard Reader Michael S Kimmel and Yasemin Besen have compiled her most intriguing and influential work on marriage the family sexuality and changing women's roles in the United States Bernard's pioneering works bridged the gap between academic social science and public advocacy for gender equality Her books were landmarks in demarcating the effects of the separation of spheres Among her most celebrated arguments was that couples experienced two different marriages his and hers and that his was better than hers This volume will inspire a new generation of scholars a generation that inherits the gains for which Bernard struggled her entire career

Nobody's Girl Friday J. E. Smyth, 2018-03-02 Nobody's Girl Friday is a revisionist history but it's also a deeply personal collective account of hundreds of working women the studios they worked for and the films they helped to make For many years historians and critics have insisted that both American feminism and the power of women in Hollywood declined and virtually disappeared from the 1920s through the 1960s The story of the women who called the shots in studio era Hollywood has never fully been told until now

Identity, Gender and Teaching English in Japan Diane Hawley Nagatomo, 2016-04-07 How do teachers who have chosen to settle down in one country manage the difficulties of living and teaching English in that country How do they develop and sustain their careers and what factors shape their identity This book answers these questions by investigating the personal and professional identity development of ten Western women who teach English in various educational contexts in Japan all of whom have Japanese spouses The book covers issues of interracial relationships expatriation equality and employment practices as well as the broader topics of gender and identity The book also provides a useful overview of

Gender Talk Johnnetta B. Cole, Beverly Guy-Sheftall, 2003-12-30 A groundbreaking look at the controversial topic of sexism and gender politics within African American communities Ebony In the Black community rape violence against women and sexual harassment are as much the legacy of slavery as is racism In Gender Talk Johnnetta Betsch Cole and Beverly Guy Sheftall argue powerfully that the only way to defeat this legacy is to focus on the intersection of race and gender Examining why the race problem has become so male centered and how this has opened a deep divide between Black women and men the authors turn to their own lives offering intimate accounts of their experiences as daughters wives and leaders They examine pivotal moments in African American history when race and gender issues collided with explosive results Along the way they present the testimonies of a large and influential group of Black women and men including Byllye Avery Derrick A Bell Farai Chideya Kimberl Crenshaw Michael Eric Dyson Marcia Gillespie bell hooks and Faye Wattleton Fearless and eye opening Gender Talk is required reading for anyone concerned with the future of African American women and men

The Inclusion of Women in STEM in Kuwait and the United States The Kuwait Foundation for the Advancement of Sciences, National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Policy and Global Affairs, 2020-10-08
Women in the United States and Kuwait have made advances as researchers and leaders in science, engineering, and medical disciplines, yet challenges and barriers remain to enter and advance in these fields in both countries. Building on recent collaborations, the National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine and the Kuwait Foundation for the Advancement of Sciences agreed on convening two workshops to identify evidence-based practices and resources for improving the inclusion of women as full participants in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics. This publication summarizes the presentations and discussion from the first workshop held October 28-29, 2019, in Washington, D.C.
