Contemporary Islam Oliver Leaman, 2013-10-08 This book helps to deepen our understanding of the varieties of contemporary Islam and the issues that are of most concern to Muslims today Oliver Leaman explores some of the controversies and debates that exist within Islam and between Islam and other religions He considers how the religion can be defined by looking at the contrast between competing sets of beliefs and arguments amongst Muslims themselves over the nature of the faith Areas covered include Qur anic interpretation gender finance education and nationalism Examples are taken from a range of contexts and illustrate the diversity of approaches to Islam that exists today Feminism, Tradition and Change in Contemporary Islam Shehnaz Haqqani, 2024-10-17 The Islamic tradition has always been flexible changing over time and constantly adapting to the different societies Muslims find themselves in Few Muslims today would abide by the fatwa against the printing press under the Ottomans Moreover although Islamic law legislates for slavery and child marriage only a vanishing minority of Muslims consider these practices acceptable today and some will even argue that Islam never permitted them Yet some issues like the prohibition on female led prayer and female interfaith marriage seem curiously impervious to change Why is that Through a mixture of interviews with ordinary Muslims in Texas and critical analysis of contemporary and historical scholarship Shehnaz Haqqani demonstrates the gendered dimensions of change and negotiation in Islamic tradition She argues that a reliance on a mostly male scholarly consensus means that the tradition preserves male privilege at the expense of justice for Muslim women The Changing World Religion Map Stanley D.

Brunn, 2015-02-03 This extensive work explores the changing world of religions faiths and practices It discusses a broad range of issues and phenomena that are related to religion including nature ethics secularization gender and identity Broadening the context it studies the interrelation between religion and other fields including education business economics and law The book presents a vast array of examples to illustrate the changes that have taken place and have led to a new world map of religions Beginning with an introduction of the concept of the changing world religion map the book first focuses on nature ethics and the environment It examines humankind s eternal search for the sacred and discusses the emergence of green religion as a theme that cuts across many faiths Next the book turns to the theme of the pilgrimage illustrated by many examples from all parts of the world In its discussion of the interrelation between religion and education

it looks at the role of missionary movements It explains the relationship between religion business economics and law by means of a discussion of legal and moral frameworks and the financial and business issues of religious organizations The next part of the book explores the many new faces that are part of the religious landscape and culture of the Global North Europe Russia Australia and New Zealand the U S and Canada and the Global South Latin America Africa and Asia It does so by looking at specific population movements diasporas and the impact of globalization The volume next turns to secularization as both a phenomenon occurring in the Global religious North and as an emerging and distinguishing feature in the metropolitan cosmopolitan and gateway cities and regions in the Global South The final part of the book explores the changing world of religion in regards to gender and identity issues the political religious nexus and the new worlds associated with the virtual technologies and visual media

Contemporary Issues in Islam Asma Afsaruddin,2015-08-31 This book deals with certain hot button contemporary issues in Islam that are often the focus of public scrutiny including the Sharia jihad the caliphate women s status and interfaith relations Notably it places the discussion of these topics within a longer historical framework in order to reveal their multiple interpretations and contested applications over time Most public and some academic discourses however present the Islamic tradition as unchanging and therefore unable to respond to the modern world Such an ahistorical approach fosters the belief that Muslim and Western societies are destined to clash with one another In contrast this book allows the reader to see the diversity and transformations within Islamic thought over time Focusing on this internal diversity permits us to appreciate the scriptural and intellectual resources available within the Islamic tradition for responding to the challenges of modernity even as it interrogates and shapes modernity itself

The Position of Women in Islam Mohammad Ali Syed,2012-02-01 Challenging the conservative framers of Islamic law who accorded a lesser status to women Mohammad Ali Syed argues that the Quran and the Hadith the two primary sources of Islamic law actually place Muslim women on the same level as Muslim men Syed provides an overview of both sources and explores their respective roles in Islamic law emphasizing the Quran s role as the supreme authority and questioning the authenticity of some of the alleged sayings of the Prophet Muhammad pbuh From these texts he elaborates women s rights in a variety of areas including treatment by God marriage divorce financial provisions and custody of children coming out of seclusion purdah and taking part in social economic legal and political activities Rather than presenting what is practiced today the book covers the theoretical position of Muslim women as sanctioned by the Quran and the authentic Hadith and offers a glimpse of the exalted position of honor and dignity enjoyed by Muslim women in the early days of Islam This well researched book is made more distinctive by the author s personal experience Raised in Bengal India Syed was inspired by his family who valued men and women equally As he grew up Syed realized that most Muslim women lived very differently than the women of his family According to the author his family was egalitarian because his father and male relatives were not only devout Muslims but also very knowledgeable about Islam This book is a culmination of his lifelong concern for women s rights under Islam

Contemporary Rationalist Islam in Turkey Gokhan Bacik,2021-07-29

Nineteenth century Istanbul was an intellectual hub of rich discussions about Islam in which leading reformists had a significant role Turkey today appears to be an intellectual vacuum to anyone searching for ongoing critical engagement with Islam The main purpose of this book is to adjust this view of Turkey by showcasing the modern Turkish theologians who challenge mainstream Sunni interpretations of Islam Labelling these theologians as rationalist rather than reformist the author reveals that their theology is inherently anti establishment and thus a religiously oriented challenge to the hegemony of the state sanctioned Islam for the rationalists Turkey s problems have their origins in the Sunni interpretation of Islam Contemporary Rationalist Islam in Turkey analyses nine prominent scholars of Islam who provide a religious opposition to the Sunni revival in Turkey H seyin Atay Yasar Nuri zt rk M Hayri Kirbasoglu Ilhami G ler R Ihsan Elia ik mer zsoy Mustafa zt rk Israfil Balci and Mehmet Azimli These scholars writings are almost exclusively published in Turkish so this book makes their ideas available in English for the first time It also examines the scope methodology and argumentation of the scholars theology categorizing their theological interpretations from historicist to universalist and from empiricist to rationalist In identifying a new rationalist school of Turkish theology and outlining its different manifestations the book breaks new ground It fills a significant gap in the literature on Islamic studies and reveals an understudied dimension of Turkey and Turkish Islam beyond the well known ideas of the AKP and the Gulenists

Islamic Public Law - Islamic Law in Theory and Practice Ahmed Akgunduz, 2011-11-01 Islamic law contains explications and divisions that imply a classification in terms of public and private law In this book we will explain the outlines of Islamic public law e.g. First Chapter Islamic constitutional law al-siyasah al-shariyyah and administrative law al-siyasah al-shariyyah Second Chapter penal law al-uqubah Third Chapter financial law zakat ushr arj and other taxes Fourth Chapter trial law qada and Fifth Chapter international public law al-siyar The fields of especially Islamic constitutional law administrative law financial law tazir penalties and arrangements concerning military law based on the restricted legislative authority vested by Shariah rules and those jurisprudential decrees based on secondary sources like customs and traditions and the public good maslahah all fell under what was variously called public law al-siyasah al-shariyyah Shariah policy qanun legal code qanun mahorfuq etc Since these laws could not go beyond Shariah principles either at least in theory they should not be regarded as a legal system outside of Islamic law But Islamic penal law financial law trial law and international law depend mostly on rules that are based directly on the Qur'an and the Sunnah and codified in books of fiqh Islamic law called Shariah rules Shariah law Such rules formed 85% of the legal system In this book we will focus on some controversial problems in the Muslim world today such as the form of government in Islamic law and the relation between Islam and democracy Islamic law does not stipulate a certain method of state government nonetheless we may say that the principles it decrees and its

concept of sovereignty suggest a religious republic As a matter of fact ulaf al R shid n the Rightly Guided Caliphs were both caliphs and religious republican presidents We could say that this book has three main characteristics i We have tried to base our explanations directly on the primary Islamic law sources For example after reading some articles on the caliphate or t m r system in articles or books by some Western scholars and even by some Muslim scholars one might conclude that there are different views on these subjects among Muslim scholars This is not true Muslisms have agreed on the basic rules on legal subjects but there are some conflicts regarding nuances and interpretations If one reads works by Im m Gazzali Ibn Taymiyyah al M wardi and al Farr one will not find any disagreement on the main rules but there are some different interpretations of some concepts We have tried to discover where they agreed and we have sometimes pointed to where they differed ii We have researched practices of Islamic law especially legal documents in the Ottoman archives For example we explain add i sariqa but also mention some legal articles from the Ottoman legal codes q nunn mes and some Shar ah court decisions like legal decrees i l m t i shar iyyah It is well known that nobody can understand any legal system without implementing and practicing it That also holds for Islamic law because theory alone does not yield a complete understanding of Shar ah rules iii We have worked hard to correct some misconceptions and misunderstandings about Islamic law That is why we appeal to the primary sources For example some scholars claim that the anaf jurist Im m Sara s did not accept the idea of punishment for apostasy We have studied his work al Mabs t and found this claim to be unfounded The comparison between t m r and fief is another example because the t m r system is different from the fief system Some scholars confuse the concept of sovereignty and governance The Islamic state is not a theocratic state in the sense in which Europeans understand the term

Sloan,2011-02-23 This work includes 1000 entries covering the spectrum of defining women in the contemporary world

Women in Islam Terence Lovat,2012-06-12 The role of women in Islamic societies not to mention in the religion itself is a defining issue It is also one that remains resistant to universal dogma with a wide range of responses to women s social roles across the Islamic world Reflecting this heterogeneity the editor of this volume has assembled the latest research on the issue which combines contemporary with historical data The material comes from around the world as well as from Muslim and non Muslim researchers It takes in work from majority Muslim nations such as Bangladesh Iran Iraq Lebanon Pakistan Palestine Tunisia and Turkey as well as countries with troubled interfaith relations such as India and Israel Nations with minority Muslim populations such as France the UK Canada and Australia are also represented The work also features varying Islamic sub groups such as the two main ones Sunni and Shi a as well as less well known populations such as the Ismaili Muslims In each case the work is underpinned by the very latest socio theological insights and empirical data
