Conceptualising Women's Working Lives Wendy Patton, 2013-04-20 Theoretical work on the career development of women has travelled a journey from critique to creation Early work responded to and criticised a literature that focused on theorising male roles in a workplace that was conceptualised as providing vertical career paths primarily for middle class males More recently theorists are creating new constructions and frameworks to enable a more holistic understanding of career applicable to both women and men These constructions include broadening the discussion from women's careers to women's working lives This is the fifth book in the Sense Publishers Career Development Series It features the vibrant work of contributors from around the world writing in the field of women's working lives It emphasises the need to explore theoretical connections and understandings in order to facilitate a more holistic and inclusive understanding of women's working lives The writers in the current volume acknowledge the changing roles of women in both public and private spheres Women's roles in paid work are changing both in their nature and type of engagement In addition with an ageing population women's roles in care work are increasingly being extended from child care to aged care This book provides a history of theorising about women's careers in addition to presenting a focus on current empirical and theoretical work which contributes to understandings of women's working lives It's contributions both map the current discourse and challenge future work to extend the boundaries of that discourse Retiring Women Philip Taylor, Elizabeth Brooke, Christopher McLoughlin, 2021-02-26 With current policy concerns about shortfalls of labour supply and effects on the social welfare system due to population ageing there is a need to understand the factors that shape women's choices about if when and how to retire Recent trends indicating the increased workforce participation of women demand new policy responses to the end of careers and retirement transitions to sustain acceptable levels of participation and productivity This book is innovative in that it will examine constellations of factors that disadvantage or advantage women's career and retirement trajectories against a backdrop of public policy efforts to extend working lives The Life of Madie Hall Xuma Wanda A. Hendricks, 2022-10-25 Revered in South Africa as An African American Mother of the Nation Madie Beatrice Hall Xuma spent her extraordinary life immersed in global women's activism Wanda A Hendricks's biography follows Hall Xuma from her upbringing in the Jim Crow South to her leadership role in the African National Congress ANC and beyond Hall Xuma was already known for her social welfare work when she married South African physician and ANC activist Alfred Bitini Xuma Becoming president of the ANC Women's League put Hall Xuma at the forefront of fighting racial discrimination as South Africa moved toward apartheid Hendricks provides the long overlooked context for the events that undergirded Hall Xuma's life and work As she shows a confluence of history ideas and organizations both shaped Hall Xuma and centered her in the histories of Black women and women's activism and of South Africa and the United States

Women and Retirement Susan Moore, Doreen Rosenthal, 2018-09-06 In the last century changes to the nature and patterns of women's working lives have been vast Notably the huge increase in women's participation in the paid workforce means that today women are retiring in unprecedented numbers How do they cope with this lifestyle transition What major difficulties do they face How do they process the problems associated with managing this transition in fulfilling ways while juggling family financial friendship ageing and health issues To date most retirement studies have focused on men and therefore gender specific issues relating to post work life such as the pay gap the double shift women's longer lifespans and their traditional roles as carers and social nurturers have been afforded far less attention Women and Retirement Challenges of a New Life Stage is the first book of its kind to examine women's retirement using a lifespan perspective Based on the authors extensive study of over 1 000 retired Australian women as well as current research the book presents models of various retirement trajectories and compares women's experiences with the more widely researched retirement experiences of men Moore and Rosenthal consider the nature of the transition from full time work to retirement and the many different pathways and factors influencing this journey women s financial status in the retirement years their health changes and the varied activity patterns they adopt Women and Retirement is a comprehensive up to date and evidence based review of the female retirement experience It will be invaluable for courses on ageing and health within psychology women s studies social work and sociology and for use by practitioners in these fields Doing Transitions in the Life Course Barbara

Stauber,Andreas Walther,Richard A. Settersten, Jr.,2022-09-14 This open access book provides a unique research perspective on life course transitions Here transitions are understood as social processes and practices Leveraging the recent practice turn in the social sciences the contributors analyze how life course transitions are done This book introduces the concept of doing transitions and its implications for theories and methods It presents fresh empirical research on doing transitions in different life phases e g childhood young adulthood later life and life domains e g education work family health migration It also emphasizes themes related to institutions and organizations time and normativity materialities such as bodies spaces and artifacts and the reproduction of social inequalities in education and welfare In coupling this new perspective with empirical illustrations this book is an indispensable resource for scholars from demography sociology psychology social work and other scientific fields as well as for students counselors and practitioners and policymakers Modern Motherhood and Women's Dual Identities Petra Bueskens,2018-05-31 Why do women in contemporary western societies experience contradiction between their autonomous and maternal selves What are the origins of this contradiction and the associated double shift that result in widespread calls to either lean in or opt out How are some mothers subverting these contradictions and finding meaningful ways of reconciling their autonomous and maternal selves In Modern Motherhood and Women s Dual Identities Petra Bueskens argues that western modernisation consigned women to the home and released them from it in historically unprecedented yet interconnected ways Her ground breaking formulation is that western women are free as individuals and constrained as mothers with the twist that it is the former that produces the latter Bueskens theoretical contribution consists of the identification and analysis of modern women s duality drawing on political philosophy feminist theory and sociology tracking the changing nature of discourses of women freedom and motherhood across three centuries While the current literature points to the pervasiveness of contradiction and double shifts for mothers very little attention has been paid to how some women are subverting contradiction and rewriting the sexual contract Bridging this gap Bueskens interviews ten revolving mothers to reveal how periodic absence exceeding the standard work day disrupts the default position assigned to mothers in the home and in turn disrupts the gendered dynamics of household work A provocative and original work Modern Motherhood and Women s Dual Identities will appeal to graduate students and researchers interested in fields such as Women and Gender Studies Sociology of Motherhood and Social and Political Theory Research
