Women, Citizenship and Difference Pnina Werbner, Nira Yuval-Davis, 1999-06 Prominent scholars from various disciplines rethink the idea of citizenship and its relation to gender ethnicity class and national status in this collection which focuses on the current dismantling of welfare states and the rise in state terror

Beyond Mothering Earth Sherilyn Macgregor, 2011-11-01 Women's environmental activism is often described in maternalist terms as if motherhood and caring for the environment go hand in hand While feminists celebrate this connection women and all those who care for people and environments are facing increasing burdens and decreasing time for civic engagement In Beyond Mothering Earth MacGregor argues that celebrations of earthcare as women's unique contribution to the search for sustainability often neglect to consider the importance of politics and citizenship in women's lives Drawing on interviews with women who juggle private caring with civic engagement in quality of life concerns she proposes an alternative a project of feminist ecological citizenship that affirms the practice of citizenship as an intrinsically valuable activity while recognizing the foundational aspects of caring labour and natural processes that allow its specificity to flourish Beyond Mothering Earth provides an original and empirically grounded understanding of women's involvement in quality of life activism and an analysis of citizenship that makes an important contribution to contemporary discussions of green politics globalization neoliberalism and democratic justice It will be of value to scholars and activists interested in the politics of environmental sustainability and the shifting meanings of citizenship in an increasingly vulnerable world

Constructing Democracy in Transitioning Societies of Africa S. Wing, 2008-04-28 This book explores the process by which constitutions and democratic institutions are constructed Wing focuses on how innovative constitutional dialogues involving participation negotiation and recognition of groups previously excluded from political decision making may be the key to a legitimate constitution

Democracy's Angels Kristina R. Llewellyn, 2012 A groundbreaking study of the limits that democratic ideals placed on the work of women teachers

Transatlantic Conversations Mary Evans, 2016-02-24 The second wave of feminism which challenged and changed many assumptions about the world in which we live was a product of various western cultures with no single country possessing a monopoly on the writing of the texts that became the canonical statements of the new feminism Though many of the contributions to feminist scholarship that went on to become internationally significant hailed from Europe and the United States these works were often formed within the context of local debates and framed within traditions of feminism and other political engagements specific to these nations Transatlantic Conversations explores the differences yielded by such conditions and their consequences for the meaning of feminism Examining the meaning and implications of the different ways in which various shared categories have been treated on both sides of the Atlantic this volume both analyses differences within feminism and provides a framework for the wider discussion of what is sometimes assumed to be the homogeneity of The West With leading scholars from either side of the Atlantic presenting brand new work Transatlantic Conversations suggests directions for future research which will be of interest to scholars of feminism gender studies sociology political science and international relations geography and cultural studies as well as anyone concerned with the ways in which the different political and intellectual traditions of Europe and the US have shaped current political and intellectual debates

Young Children's Community Building in Action Louise Gwenneth Phillips, Jenny Ritchie, Lavina Dynevor, Jared Lambert, Kerry Moroney, 2019-07-04 Rethinking the concepts of citizenship and community in relation to young children this groundbreaking text examines the ways in which indigenous understandings and practices applied in early childhood settings in Australia and New Zealand encourage young children to demonstrate their care and concern for others and so in turn perceive themselves as part of a larger community Young Children's Community Building in Action acknowledges global variations in the meanings of early childhood education of citizenship and community building and challenges widespread invisibility and disregard of Indigenous communities Through close observation and examination of early years settings in Australia and New Zealand chapters demonstrate how practices guided by Aboriginal and M ori values support and nurture children's personal and social development as individuals and as citizens in a wider community Exploring what young children's citizenship learning and action looks like in practice and how this may vary within and across communities the book provides a powerful account of effective pedagogical approaches which have been long excluded from mainstream dialogues Written for researchers and students of early childhood education and care this book provides insight into what citizenship can be for young children and how Indigenous cultural values shape ways of knowing being doing and relating

Loss and Liquid Citizenship in Europe Ulrike M. Vieten, 2025-06-06 Loss and Liquid Citizenship in Europe offers a means of understanding how experiences of loss intersect with discourses of migration and citizenship to affect feelings of belonging with respect to host communities and newcomers Adopting a de colonial and intersectional perspective it examines the condition of postmigration regarding it as a space of social cultural and political transformation In doing so it questions the dominant binary in terms of both legal distinctions and socio cultural distinctions between settled majorities and migrating minorities Confronted with the spread of a neo populist far right political agenda across the world this book provides new insights into ways in which we might re conceptualise a vision of social inclusion for both majorities and minorities on the move As such it will appeal to scholars and students across the social sciences with interests in migration and diaspora citizenship and belonging      Acts of Belonging in Modern Societies Ilgin Yörükoğlu, 2020-07-01 This book examines the ways in which the need to belong manifests itself in the post 9 11 world from a cross disciplinary perspective Using queer Turkish women in Berlin as its subjects the book shows how individuals with seemingly contradictory belongings develop strategies of emotional survival in the face of conflict which Yörükoglu terms acts of belonging It studies the impact of populist discourses on minorities exploring concepts such as security integration sexual tolerance and cohesion within a causal relationship Questioning this assumed relationship the book proposes an alternative approach to study belonging Acts Of Belonging in Modern Societies supports the empirical research behind the argument that cohesion is not a sine qua non of belonging These acts allow the individual to claim belonging in spite of possible differences The book provides evocative case studies to reveal the affective dynamic complex nature of human connectedness      Negotiating in/visibility Amelia Bonea, Irina Nastasa-Matei, 2025-08-05 This volume brings together scholars from different disciplinary backgrounds to discuss how women contributed to the making pedagogy institutionalisation and communication of scientific knowledge in the twentieth century and to reflect on the theoretical and methodological challenges of documenting such hidden contributions Featuring examples from China former Czechoslovakia Greece Hungary India Japan Romania the United Kingdom and the United States the contributors discuss women s engagement with science across different institutional and non institutional sites ranging from the laboratory and the school to the clinic the home and the media The volume moves beyond the professional scientist model to enlarge our understanding of women s participation in twentieth century science and document the complex combination of factors that rendered such contributions in visible to contemporaries and future generations      Gendering Ethnicity Lori Handrahan, 2018-10-24 Democracy anticipated by American and other Western powers to prevent economic chaos and political conflict within and among states is not evolving as expected This research argues that part of the failure resides in United States democracy assistance s inadequate consideration of gender within democracy programming      Everyday Peace? Philippa Williams, 2015-08-13 Winner of the 2016 Julian Minghi Distinguished Book Award of the Political Geography Specialty Group at the AAG Providing important insights into political geography the politics of peace and South Asian studies this book explores everyday peace in northern India as it is experienced by the Hindu Muslim community Challenges normative understandings of Hindu Muslim relations as relentlessly violent and the notion of peace as a romantic endpoint occurring only after violence and political maneuverings Examines the ways in which geographical concepts such as space place and scale can inform and problematize understandings of peace Redefines the politics of peace as well as concepts of citizenship agency secular politics and democracy Based on over 14 months of qualitative and archival research in the city of Varanasi in Uttar Pradesh India      Postcolonial Subjectivities in Africa Pnina Werbner, 2002 This is the third volume in a trilogy on identity memory and subjectivity Contributors to the book share an ambition to combine personal political and existential dimensions in detailed evocations of the ambitions and vulnerabilities of contemporary Africans Their essays aim to forge alliances between patient local scholarship and adventurous theoretical speculation that should inspire new research and caution against bland generalizations about African marginality Postcolonial Encounters in International Relations Alina Sajed, 2013-07-18 Postcolonial Encounters in International Relations examines the social and cultural aspects of the political violence that underpinned the French colonial project in the Maghreb and the multi layered postcolonial realities that ensued This book explores the reality of the lives of North African migrants in postcolonial France with a particular focus on their access to political entitlements such as citizenship and rights This reality is complicated even further by complex practices of memory undertaken by Franco Maghrebian intellectuals who negotiate in their writings between the violent memory of the French colonial project in the Maghreb and the contemporary conundrums of postcolonial migration The book pursues thus the politics of post colonial memory by tracing its representations in literary political and visual narratives belonging to various Franco Maghrebian intellectuals who see themselves as living and writing between France and the Maghreb By adopting a postcolonial perspective a perspective quite marginal in International Relations the book investigates a different international relations which emerges via narratives of migration A postcolonial standpoint is instrumental in understanding the relations between class gender and race which interrogate and reflect more generally on the shared post colonial violence between North Africa and France and on the politics of mediating violence through complex practices of memory

The Challenge of Post-Zionism Ephraim Nimni, 2003 This volume presents the emerging debate known as Post Zionism about the future and characteristics of Israel Its contributors include some of its main protagonists Israeli citizens of Jewish and Palestinian background They explore Post Zionism s meanings ambiguities and prospects and place it in its political context as Israeli society seems to be reaching an ideological crossroads They also put forward criticisms of post Zionism and explore its implications for out groups including Palestinians Israeli women and Jewish people living outside Israel

Women's Livelihood Rights Sumi Krishna, 2007-09-10 This interdisciplinary book looks at women s natural resource based livelihoods in the wider context of development viewed through the lens of citizenship rights Unravelling the patriarchal social fabric and policy structures in India it argues that the concept of citizenship needs to be extended to include recognition of ways of life and livelihood so that women take their legitimate space as productive human beings entitled to dignity as a political right and not merely to protection and welfare The editor weaves together a historical perspective on varied dimensions of livelihood development and citizenship Drawing upon rich field based researches in 13 states across India the authors deal with complex and inter related themes the need to recognise women s right to resources and their livelihood and employment strategies the challenges of democratic governance and of restructuring institutional systems to make them responsive and the role of women s collective agency in development Reflecting upon and critically analysing context specific issues in several less studied locations the book shows that there is much to be learnt from empathetic interaction with the collective struggles of poor women and from action and dialogue on the ground Further it suggests that feminist politics has to network strategically with other struggles to counter the resistance of traditional and contemporary patriarchal structures and to work towards recasting citizenship for a gender just development that ensures women s livelihood rights     Rights and the Politics of Recognition in Africa Harri Englund, Francis B. Nyamnjoh, 2004-09-18 Publisher Description     Working on the Margins Blair Rutherford, 2001-09 Explores the outer margins of postcolonial culture state and economy This fieldwork rich study focuses on the flue cured tobacco farms that produce Zimbabwe s number one export Building on Foucault s concept of government the book addresses power struggle and accumulation on farms     Marriage by Capture in the Book of Judges Katherine E. Southwood, 2017-03-24 In this book Katherine E Southwood offers a new approach to interpreting Judges 21 Breaking away from traditional interpretations of kingship feminism or comparisons with Greek or Roman mythology she explores the concepts of marriage ethnicity rape and power as means of ethnic preservation and exclusion She also exposes the many reasons why marriage by capture occurred during the post exilic period Judges 21 served as a warning against compromise submission to superficial unity between the Israelites and the Benjaminites Any such unity would result in drastic changes in the character culture and values of the ethnic group Israel The chapter encouraged post exilic audiences to socially construct those categorised as Benjaminites as foreigners who do not belong within the group thereby silencing doubts about the merits of unity     Ibss: Sociology: 1999

Women Citizenship And Difference Postcolonial Encounters: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Women Citizenship And Difference Postcolonial Encounters : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Women Citizenship And Difference Postcolonial Encounters : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Women Citizenship And Difference Postcolonial Encounters : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
