African American Women Confront the West Quintard Taylor, Shirley Ann Wilson Moore, 2003 The authors argue that African American women in the West played active though sometimes unacknowledged roles in shaping the political ideological and social currents that influenced the United States over the past three centuries This is the first major historical anthology on the topic Finding Meaning, Facing Fears Jerrold Lee Shapiro, Ph.D., 2012-04-01 Autumn is a time of bright colors and full harvest moons a time to reap and savor what we ve sown Our autumn years are the ideal time to reexamine our lives Often spurred on by a 50th birthday or the last child leaving home it becomes important to question who we are in the larger scheme of things to wonder what we really want from our lives Finding Meaning Facing Fears Winner of the Alpha Sigma Nu Book Awards 2013 invites us to explore the many opportunities this time of life presents opportunities to stretch in our capacities to face and conquer old demons and to meet new challenges with greater resources than were available to us before We will also have a greater opportunity to give back to the world the benefit of our experiences and to think about and implement our personal legacies Dr Shapiro helps us discover which alternatives will serve best in our relationships career even spiritual quests and offers answers to the inevitable questions we face as we get older such as Is that all there is Is it too late to change my life Where do I go from here and I ve got everything I thought I wanted why aren t I happy Issues in Aging Mark Novak, 2015-07-22 Opportunities and optimism in Aging Issues in Aging 3rd edition takes an optimistic view of aging and human potential in later life This book presents the most up to date facts on aging today the issues raised by these facts and the societal and individual responses that will create a successful old age for us all Mark Novak presents the full picture of aging exhibiting both the problems and the opportunities that accompany older age The text illustrates how generations are dependent on one another and how social conditions affect both the individual and social institutions Learning Goals Upon completing this book readers will be able to Understand how large scale social issues social attitudes the study of aging and demographic issues affect individuals and social institutions Identify the political responses to aging and how individuals can create a better old age for themselves and the people they know Separate the myths from the realities of aging Recognize the human side of aging Trace the transformation of pension plans health and opportunities for personal expression and social engagement to the new ecology of aging today Coping with Methuselah Henry

Aaron, William B. Schwartz, 2004-01-20 Many medical authorities predict that average life expectancy could well exceed 100 years by mid century and rise even higher soon thereafter This astonishing prospect brought on by the revolution in molecular biology and information technology confronts policymakers and public health officials with a host of new questions How will increased longevity affect local and global demographic trends government taxation and spending health care the workplace Social Security Medicare and Medicaid What ethical and quality of life issues are raised by these new breakthroughs In Coping with Methuselah a group of practicing scientists and public policy experts come together to address the problems challenges and opportunities posed by a longer life span This book will generate discussion in political social and medical circles and help prepare us for the extraordinary possibilities that the future may hold Aging Into the 21st Century Lissy F. Jarvik, Helene Kratz, 1978 The Woman's Guide to Second Adulthood Suzanne Braun Levine, 2011-12-05 Second Adulthood is a new stage of life for women over fifty The first generation of socially emancipated women have reached an important frontier they have fulfilled all their roles daughter wife mother career woman Yet with longer life expectancy and better health they have no intention of retiring from the world At the same time these women are experiencing an often bewildering array of physical readjustments their brains experience a growth very similar to that in adolescence they enter menopause their sexual and emotional rhythms change Such momentous challenges raise three crucial questions that each woman must answer for herself What matters What works What's next Drawing on interviews science trend analysis and her own struggles Levine explores all the issues and offers countless stories of how others have answered those three questions This is the inspiring handbook and companion for every woman entering these uncharted waters Final Acts Nan Bauer-Maglin, Donna Perry, 2009-12-07 Today most people die gradually from incremental illnesses rather than from the heart attacks or fast moving diseases that killed earlier generations Given this new reality the essays in Final Acts explore how we can make informed and caring end of life choices for ourselves and for those we love and what can happen without such planning Contributors include patients caretakers physicians journalists lawyers social workers educators hospital administrators academics psychologists and a poet and among them are ethicists religious believers and nonbelievers Some write moving personal accounts of good or bad deaths others examine the ethical social and political implications of slow dying Essays consider death from natural causes suicide and aid in dying assisted suicide Writing in a style free of technical jargon the contributors discuss documents that should be prepared health proxy do not resuscitate order living will power of attorney decision making over medical interventions life support hospice and palliative care aid in dying treatment location speaking for those who can no longer express their will and the roles played by religion custom family friends caretakers money the medical establishment and the government For those who yearn for some measure of control over death the essayists in Final Acts from very different backgrounds and with different personal and professional experiences around death and dying offer insight and hope Women's Movements Facing the Reconfigured State Lee

Ann Banaszak, Karen Beckwith, Dieter Rucht, 2003-03-03 Examines the changing relationship between women's movements and states in Western Europe and North America

Women's Health Pamela Dickerson, 2006 Covers a range of the commonly expressed concerns among female patients and their families including heart health osteoporosis breast gynecologic and lung cancers fertility family depression eating disorders nutrition health screening stress management relationships and aging parents

Letting Go Donna King, Catherine G. Valentine, 2015-09-30 At a time when women are being exhorted to lean in and work harder to get ahead Letting Go Feminist and Social Justice Insight and Activism encourages both women and men to let go instead The book explores alternatives to the belief that individual achievement accumulation and attention seeking are the road to happiness and satisfaction in life Letting go demands a radical recognition that the values relationships and structures of our neoliberal competitive striving accumulating consuming exploiting oppressive society are harmful both on a personal level and especially important on a social and environmental level There is a huge difference between letting go and chilling out In a lean in society self care is promoted as something women and men should do to learn how to relax and find a comfortable work life balance By contrast a feminist letting go and its attendant self care have the potential to be a radical act of awakening to social and environmental injustice and a call to activism

Women in American Journalism Jan Whitt, 2024-04-22 In this volume Jan Whitt tells the stories of women who have been overlooked in journalism history offering an important corrective to scholarship that narrowly focuses on the deeds of men like Joseph Pulitzer and William Randolph Hearst She shows how numerous women broadened the editorial scope of newspapers and journals transformed women's professional roles used journalism as a training ground for major literary works and led breakthroughs in lesbian and alternative presses Whitt explores the lives of women reporters who achieved significant historical recognition such as Ida Tarbell and Ida Wells Barnett Investigating the often blurry boundary between journalism and literature she explains how this fluid distinction has actually limited how many scholars perceive the contributions of authors such as Joan Didion and Susan Orlean Whitt also highlights the work of important novelists including Willa Cather Katherine Anne Porter and Eudora Welty to shed light on how their work as journalists informed their highly successful fiction This study also offers a survey of contributions women have made to the alternative presses including the environmental press and civil rights activism Whitt examines important figures in the early feminist press such as Caroline Churchill editor and reporter for Denver's Queen Bee and Betty Wilkins of Kansas City's Call Finally through newsletters newspapers magazines and journals she traces the history of the lesbian press and points out the ways in which it indicates that the alternative press is thriving

Staging Women's Lives in Academia Michelle A. Massé, Nan Bauer-Maglin, 2017-01-12 Argues that institutional change must accommodate women's professional and personal life stages Staging Women's Lives in Academia demonstrates how ostensibly personal decisions are shaped by institutions and advocates for ways that workplaces not women must be changed Addressing life stages ranging from graduate school through retirement these essays represent a gamut of institutions and women who draw upon both personal experience and scholarly expertise The contributors contemplate the slipperiness of the very categories we construct to explain the stages of life and ask key questions such as what does it mean to be a graduate student at fifty Or a full professor at thirty five The book explores the ways women in all stages of academia feel that they are always too young or too old too attentive to work or too overly focused on family By including the voices of those who leave as well as those who stay this collection signals the need to rebuild the house of academia so that women can have not only classrooms of their own but also lives of their own
