The Vision Of Matthew Christ Church And Morality In The First Gospel:

The Vision of Matthew John P. Meier, 2004-09-30 In this volume Father Meier explores how Matthew remodeled the form the Christological message and the moral demand of the gospel Part I shows Matthew's church in crisis It was experiencing a shift in its Christian existence from a narrow Jewish Christian past to a universal Gentile future To preserve yet reinterpret the particularistic traditions of that Jewish Christian past Matthew drew up a model of salvation history and then reshaped the gospel message to fit it Part II offers a mini commentary on the whole gospel to illustrate this reshaping of the message Pericope by pericope Matthew presents Jesus as Son of God and Son of Man and therefore as the definitive teacher of his Church Indeed the nexus between Christ and his Church emerges as the outstanding characteristic of Matthew's gospel Part III studies Matthew's construction of a unified moral vision on the basis of this connection between Christ and Church The basic stance of Jesus and his disciples towards the Mosaic Law is one of fulfillment a prophetic fulfillment which involves at times a deepening of at times the abrogation of the letter of the Law The Bible in History David W. Kling, 2004-08-12 No one can doubt that the Bible has exerted a tremendous influence on Western civilization since the dawn of Christianity But few of us have considered the precise nature of that influence in particular historical contexts In this book David Kling traces the fascinating story of how specific biblical texts have at different times emerged to be the inspiration of movements that have changed the course of history By examining eight such pivotal texts Kling elucidates the ways in which sacred texts continue to shape our lives as well as our history Among the passages he discusses are Upon this rock I will build my church Matthew 16:18 which inspired the formation of the papacy and has served as its foundation for centuries The righteous will live by faith Romans 1:17 which caught the imagination of Martin Luther and sparked the Protestant Reformation Go to Pharaoh and say to him Thus says the Lord Let my people go so that they may worship me Exodus 8:1 which has played an important and diverse role in African American history from early slave spirituals through the modern civil rights movement and beyond There is no longer Jew or Greek there is no longer slave or free there is no longer male and female for all of you are one in Christ Jesus Galatians 3:28 which has been adopted by feminists as a rallying cry in the battle for women's ordination Each of the historical episodes he explores from the beginning of Christian monasticism to the emergence of Pentecostalism is evidence of the dynamic interplay between Scripture and the social and cultural context in which it is interpreted Kling's innovative study of this process shows how sacred texts can give life to social movements and how powerful social forces can give new meaning to Scripture The Concept of Disciple in Matthew's Gospel, as Reflected in the Use of the Term "Mathetes" Michael J. From Synagogue to Ecclesia Charles E. Carlston, Craig A. Evans, 2014-09-11 Charles E. Carlston and Craig A. Evans show how the Evangelist took over a variety of traditions from Judaism and early Christianity and worked them into a theological portrait that would be accessible to both Jews and Gentiles as they became followers of Jesus. Back cover Four Portraits, One Jesus, 2nd Edition Mark L.

Strauss, 2020-03-24 A thorough introduction to the four biblical Gospels and their subject: the life and person of Jesus. Like different artists who render the same subject using unique styles and points of view, the Gospels paint four distinctive portraits of the same Jesus of Nazareth. To Christians worldwide, he is the centerpiece of history, the object of faith, hope, and worship. Even those who do not follow him admit the vast influence of his life. With clarity and insight, biblical scholar Mark Strauss illuminates these four books, addressing the following important areas: The nature, origin, methods for study, and historical, religious, and cultural backgrounds of each of the Gospels; A closer study of the narratives and themes found in Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John and their contribution to our understanding of Jesus; A detailed examination of what the Gospels teach about Jesus' ministry, message, death, and resurrection, with excursions into the quest for the historical Jesus and the historical reliability of the Gospels. For anyone interested in knowing more about Jesus, study of the four biblical Gospels is essential. This fully updated textbook, together with its workbook, video lectures, and laminated sheet, gives students everything they need for a thorough and enriching study of Jesus and the Gospels.

Beside his monographs on John and Hebrews are numerous contributions to journals, conference volumes, and Festschriften of which a representative

Studies in the Function of Scripture in Early Judaism and Christianity

Craig A. Evans, H. Daniel Zacharias, 2012-03-08 These essays explore new methods and overlooked traditions that appear to shed light on how the founders of the Christian movement understood the older sacred tradition and sought new and creative ways to let it speak to their own times Gurtner discusses the Matthean version of the temptation narrative Chandler investigates the exhortation to love your neighbour as yourself from Lev 19 18b Talbot re-examines Jesus' offer of rest in Mt 11 28-30 Myers explores the ways Matthew's appeal to Isa 42 1-4 in Mt 12 17-21 affects the characterization of Jesus in his Gospel Hamilton explores 1 Enoch 6 1-11 as a retelling of Genesis 3 6 Herzer seeks to explain various aspects of Mt 27 51b-53 McWhirter explores the citation of Exod 23 20 Mal 3 1 and Isa 40 3 in Mk 1 2-3 Hopkins investigates the manner in which Jesus engages questions and persons regarding purity and impurity Miller notes that victory songs are a generally acknowledged category of Hebrew poetry Gregerman argues that studies of early Christian proselytism to Gentiles are largely focussed on missionary methods of converts The Politics of Race and Ethnicity in Matthew's Passion Narrative

Wongi Park, 2019-01-21 In Matthew's passion narrative the ethnoracial identity of Jesus comes into sharp focus The repetition of the title King of the Judeans foregrounds the politics of race and ethnicity Despite the explicit use of terminology previous scholarship has understood the title curiously in non-ethnoracial ways This book takes the peculiar omission in the history of interpretation as its point of departure It provides an expanded ethnoracial reading of the text and poses a fundamental ideological question that interrogates the pattern in the larger context of modern biblical scholarship Wongi Park issues a critique of the dominant narrative and presents an alternative reading of Matthew's passion narrative He identifies a critical vocabulary and framework of analysis to decode the politics of race and ethnicity implicit in the history of interpretation Ultimately the book lends itself to a broader research agenda the destabilization of the dominant narrative of early Christianity's non-ethnoracial origins The Recovery of Mission Vinoth Ramachandra, 2002-10-03 In recent years the term religious pluralism has come to be used not only in a descriptive sociological sense but also as theologically prescriptive Within this new paradigm traditional Christian understandings of Christ conversion evangelism and mission have been radically reinterpreted The Recovery of Mission explores the pluralist paradigm through the work of three of its most influential Asian exponents Stanley Samartha Alousius Pieris and Raimundo Panikkar subjecting each to a theological and philosophical critique On the basis of biblical patristic and contemporary theological writings Vinoth Ramachandra argues for the uniqueness and decisiveness of what God has done for us in Jesus Christ Ramachandra seeks to show that many of the valid concerns of pluralist theologians can best be met by reappropriating the missionary thrust at the heart of the gospel The book ends with suggestions challenging to pluralists and conservatives alike as to how the gospel needs to be communicated in a multifaith world

The Mystery and the Passion David G. Buttrick, 2002-09-06 resurrection and death in order to connect modern preaching with the excitement of a changed world Although we may be jaded by sermons that chase Bible verses tediously for twenty minutes or more original listeners heard the gospel as a huge excitement The apostles announced a changed world The human world they claimed had begun all over again we are living now in a new creation They invited startled listeners to join God's new humanity From the Introduction Buttrick's treatment is no romanticizing of early Christianity The church then was as dismaying as it is now Instead this book focuses on the early Christian sense that they had passed from death to new life a reversal that began with Jesus resurrection then explored his passion and finally his ministry and life This book carefully examines the Gospel traditions so that this great reversal can be captured in Christian theology and proclamation

The Sermon on the Mount and Moral Theology William C. Mattison, III,2017-07-03 In this volume William C Mattison III demonstrates that virtue ethics provides a helpful key for unlocking the moral wisdom of the Sermon on the Mount Showing how familiar texts such as the Beatitudes and Petitions of the Lord s Prayer are more richly understood and can even be aligned with the theological and cardinal virtues he also locates in the Sermon classic topics in morality such as the nature of happiness intentionality the intelligibility of human action and the development of virtue Yet far from merely placing the teaching of Aristotle in the mouth of Jesus he demonstrates how the Sermon presents an account of happiness and virtue transformed in the light of Christian faith The happiness portrayed is that of the Kingdom of heaven and the habits needed to participate in it in the next life but even initially in this one are possible only by God s grace through Jesus Christ and lived in the community that is the Church
