The Voice Of The African Child:

The African Child's Dream Rachel Adekunle, 2020-10-29 An innovative book from a different perspective to the run of the mill self help books that basically goes into the deep waters of the struggles and challenges that stand in the path of the young child aspiring to a dream and it cuts across the role of the parent in a participatory as well as spiritual level to ensure that the role of every party is specified A book that uses the story telling approach to show the path to achieving dreams with the roles of the parent and ward and inclusive of nuggets for those living in a dream not of their own choosing A book for anyone who wants to live a full and rich life doing what they love and needing the tools to equip themselves The status of the implementation of the African Children's Charter: A ten-country study Elvis Fokala, Nkatha Murungi, Mai Aman, 2022-06-01 In 2020 the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child ACRWC celebrates 30 years since its adoption To date 50 African States have ratified the ACRWC and 28 have submitted the initial report 12 have submitted both initial and periodic reports to the African Committee of Experts on the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child ACERWC on the implementation of the ACRWC and have received recommendations from the ACERWC To ascertain the extent of children's rights protection in Africa the Centre for Human Rights was commissioned to undertake a study on the implementation of the ACRWC in 10 countries namely Algeria Burkina Faso Burundi Cameroon Ethiopia Ghana Mozambique Namibia Sudan and Tanzania In country researchers were engaged to collect data using desk based research to obtain information consisting of literature documents and online sources that was then thematically analysed The African

Child Asuzu Agwunobi, 2016-07-28 The African Child author tells it as it happened from the harrowing childhood experience to the ups and downs of his adulthood in the African capital cities and the rural typical village The interesting mix of hard work and faith in God's Providence makes for an exhilarating reading that challenges African policy makers The author's critical assessment of the Nigerian crisis in the mid sixties soon after Independence as he places blame on both sides of the conflict depicts the writer's sense of impartiality to be encouraged by political leaders particularly in Africa This book examines thoughtfully the various stages in human development and finds no excuse in the down trodden level of the black man from his native land in Africa to his imposed second home anywhere particularly in the United States In the closing chapters the book exposes the hardship the loss of human dignity and personal exploitation of all black people from the days of the slave trade till today The book challenges the conscience of world leaders and calls for Reparation for slavery and colonialism Besides the author seeks to inculcate the spirit of self respect in all African people maintaining that self respect is the smoothening oil for human dignity while chastising all races of mankind to judge a person not by the color of his skin but by the content of his character as Dr Martin Luther King Jr admonished This is a must read for all civil rights activists college young students and world leaders and politicians Asuzu Agwunobi Children and AIDS Margaret Lombe, Alex

Ochumbo, 2017-05-08 The disproportional loss of individuals to HIV AIDS in their most productive years raises concerns over the welfare of surviving members of affected families and communities One consequence of the rapid increase in adult mortality is the rise in the proportion of children who are orphaned Sub Saharan Africa accounts for about 90 percent of these Mainly due to the staggering toll of HIV AIDS research effort has focused on treatment and prevention Children have received attention primarily in relation to mother to child transmission and paediatric AIDS These issues are important and compelling but fail to capture the whole story the unprecedented surge in the number of children made vulnerable by HIV AIDS In this book we reflect on the plight of children classified as vulnerable review interventions implemented to improve their welfare and grapple with the concept of vulnerability as it relates to human rights and the African child Unmasking Kelvin Kagimbi Waweru, 2020-04-27 Growing up anywhere brings its share of problems but growing up in a continent such as Africa is a struggle beyond imagination for many residents Put yourself in the shoes of an African child or should I say feet because many children do not wear shoes Imagine growing up in a world where you lack the very basics in life food clean water medicine shelter safety a bed of your own Beyond that there are no toys no dolls and no soccer balls no sweets and treats at best a bed of reeds to sleep on School would be wonderful to attend but there is no money for school fees So you stay at home and wait for a miracle but for most there is none Life is simply survival and staying alive It would be amazing to learn how to read and write but it may never happen for some ordinary African child in fact there are not many in the family that Acquire the very basic education There are few ways out of the slum in which you live One is to get education join criminal gangs practice prostitution and at its worst get recruited to terror groups However that is not the way you learned in your church just up the path from your slum called Emanuel where they spoke of Holiness right living and faith in God to bring about a future with hope You have had a lot of hope prayed a lot but not seen the bright future In fact many of the African children do not live long to know what life had in store for them They succumb to illness calamities and hostility in the community Some are abandoned by their parents while others die in full watch of their parents who cannot do anything to stop the ordeal The big question would be did their parents choose to be poor Did they choose to live in drought invested regions which are unproductive Did they choose not to seek education Did they choose to bear children only for them to die or live a miserable life Well when you get to the depth of this book you will realize that you are only lucky that life did not serve you with the same fate It s sad that most people assume life is a bed of roses for everyone while it s totally a nightmare for many especially in poor African countries Precious Onyinye Oyedele, 2011-06-27 Precious is a collecti on of poems from everyday life It is writt en in a style that captures cherished moments Faith People Roots Love Places Sights Motherhood Christmas Life and Family Precious is a collage of images and scenes from Europe Africa and North America It will make you laugh cry pause and ask What are the Precious things in my life When you dare to care Beauti ful feet An African child Love is like a baby Shakara Flame The Immigrant Molue Where is the true light On the Wings of Hope A celebrati on of Nigeria 50 A rainy day in Lagos Naked trees A Mothers Heart60 poems for your delight The Palgrave

The African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child: A Commentary Julia Sloth-Nielsen, Elvis Fokala, Godfrey Odongo, 2025-01-01 Since its adoption in July 1990 and entry into force in November 1999 the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child (African Children's Charter) has become a key treaty within the African human rights system governing children's rights in Africa. To date 51 out of 55 African Union member states have ratified the African Children's Charter which demonstrates a growing commitment to respect protect and promote the rights of children. There is no doubt that the Charter since entering into force has significantly contributed to the development of standards and practice related to children in Africa. This comprehensive commentary on the African Children's Charter the first of its kind provides a systematic analysis of each article of the Charter tracing the origin of the rights highlighting and explaining unique African concepts and normative standards featured in the Charter. The Commentary aims to be a one stop shop for anyone interested in protecting and promoting children's rights in Africa such as researchers teachers students practitioners policy makers and activists. Authored by an array of contributors steeped in African jurisprudence and human rights values comprising 38 discrete chapters it constitutes an essential and contemporary guide to the legal understanding of the various provisions the Charter provides for. It is edited by three African scholars prominent in the field of children's rights in Africa Prof Julia Sloth Nielsen Prof Elvis Fokala and Dr Godfrey Odongo. This Commentary is the second in the PULP series of Commentaries on African human rights law.

The World of Children Simone Lässig, Andreas Weiß, 2019-10-03 In an era of rapidly increasing technological advances and international exchange how did young people come to understand the world beyond their doorsteps Focusing on Germany through the lens of the history of knowledge this collection explores various media for children from textbooks adventure stories and other literature to board games museums and cultural events to probe what they aimed to teach young people about different cultures and world regions These multifaceted contributions from specialists in historical literary and cultural studies delve into the ways that children absorbed combined and adapted notions of the world

Voice of African Children ,2001 Gumal and Lina; or, the African Children. An instructive and entertaining history, designed chiefly for the use of young people. Translated from the French [of J. L. A. Dumas] by S. B. Moens Caspar Friedrich LOSSIUS,1817 Do African Children Have Rights? Stephen Nmeragini Achilihu,2010 The United Nations 1989 Convention on the Rights of the Child CRC constitutes a landmark in the development of international human rights law and reflects an historic turn in universal thinking about children and their rights Many children in Africa today face the future with a deep sense of uncertainty and foreboding Many have no hope of education and the issues of child trafficking sexual exploitation and child labour reflect a profound crisis of the family The current socio economic situation has radically changed the world views and the life expectations of the African child This book attempts to respond to some of the questions that could be asked to what extent have the provisions of the CRC been implemented in the national legislations of African States What effect have they had on children in Africa What mechanisms exist to prevent and sanction rights abusers Are children s rights in Africa reality or simply rhetoric

Welcoming Africa's children - Theological and ministry perspectives Jan Grobbelaar,Gert Breed,Stephan de Beer,Nico Koopman,Elijah Mahlangu,Malan Nel,Dirkie Smit,Pieter Verster,2016-12-31 The purpose of this book is to combine perspectives of scholars from Africa on Child Theology from a variety of theological sub disciplines to provide some theological and ministerial perspectives on this topic The book disseminates original research and new developments in this study field especially as relevant to the African context In the process it addresses also the global need to hear voices from Africa in this academic field It aims to convey the importance of considering Africa s children in theologising The different chapters represent diverse methodologies but the central and common focus is to approach the subject from the viewpoint of Africa s children The individual authors varied theological sub disciplinary dispositions contribute to the unique and distinct character of the book Almost all chapters are theoretical orientated with less empirical but more qualitative research although some of the chapters refer to empirical research that the authors have performed in the past Most of the academic literature in the field of Child Theologies is from American or British European origin The African context is fairly absent in this discourse although it is the youngest continent and presents unique and relevant challenges This book was written by theological scholars from Africa focussing on Africa s children It addresses not only theoretical challenges in this field but also provides theological perspectives for ministry with children and for important social change Written from a variety of theological sub disciplines the book is aimed at scholars

across theological sub disciplines especially those theological scholars interested in the intersections between theology childhood studies and African cultural or social themes It addresses themes and provides insights that are also relevant for specialist leaders and professionals in this field No part of the book was plagiarised from another publication or published elsewhere

Plurilingualism in Teaching and Learning Julie Choi,Sue Ollerhead,2018-01-09 Assembling a rich and diverse range of research studies on the role of plurilingualism across a wide variety of teaching and learning settings this book supports teacher reflection and action in practical ways and illustrates how researchers tease out and analyze the complex realities of their educational environments With a focus on education policies teaching practices training and resourcing this volume addresses a range of mainstream and specialized contexts and examines the position of learners and teachers as users of plurilingual repertoires Providing a close look into the possibilities and constraints of plurilingual education this book helps researchers and educators clarify and strengthen their understandings of the links between language and literacy and offers them new ways to think more rigorously and critically about the language ideologies that shape their own beliefs and approaches in language teaching and learning

150 177 with 85 citations K Kindiki The normative and institutional framework of the African Union relating to the protection of human rights and the maintenance of international peace and security A critical appraisal 2003 3 African Human Rights Law Journal 97 117 with 59 citations and T Kaime The Convention on the Rights of the Child and the cultural legitimacy of children s rights in Africa Some reflections 2005 5 African Human Rights Law Journal 221 238 with 54 citations This occasion allows some perspective on the role that the Journal has played over the past 20 years It is fair to say that the AHRLJ contributed towards strengthening indigenous African scholarship in general and human rights related themes specifically Before the Journal there was no academic outlet devoted to human rights in the broader African context Both in quantity and in quality the Journal has left its mark on the landscape of scholarly journals The AHRLJ has provided a forum for African voices including those that needed to be fine tuned Different from many other peerreviewed journals the AHRLJ has seen it as its responsibility to nurture emerging but not yet fully flourishing talent This approach allowed younger and emerging scholars to be guided to sharpen their skills and find their scholarly voices The AHRLJ has evolved in tandem with the African regional human rights system in a dialogic relationship characterised by constructive criticism When the Journal was first published in 2001 the Protocol on the Establishment of an African Court on Human and Peoples Rights African Court Protocol was not yet in force Over the years the Journal tracked the evolution of the African Court on Human and Peoples Rights African Court from a faltering start through a phase when it increasingly expressed itself in an emerging jurisprudence to the current situation of push back by states signalled by the withdrawal by four states of their acceptance of the Court s direct individual access jurisdiction The same is largely true for the African Committee of Experts on the Rights and Welfare of the Child African Children s Committee It was in 2001 that the AU elected the first members of this Committee It first met in 2002 and its first decade or so was lackluster The Committee examined its first state report only in November 2008 and decided its first communication in March 2011 Articles by authors such as Mezmur and Sloth Nielsen who also served as members of the Committee and Lloyd placed the spotlight on the work of the Committee Initially these articles primarily served to describe and provide information that otherwise was largely inaccessible but over time they increasingly provided a critical gaze and contributed to the constructive evolution of the Committee s exercise of its mandate By 2011 the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights African Commission was already quite well established but it also underwent significant growth over the subsequent 20 year period Numerous articles in the Journal trace and analyse aspects of this evolution Contributions in the Journal also cover most of the AU human rights treaties and soft law standards A number of issues contain a special focus section dealing with a thematic issue of particular relevance or concern such as the focus on the Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Women 2006 no 1 30 years of the African Charter 2011 no 2 and sexual and reproductive rights and the African Women s Protocol 2014 no 2 The scope of the Journal extends beyond the supranational dimension of human rights Over the years many contributions explored aspects of the domestic human rights situation in countries such as the Democratic Republic of the Congo Eswatini Ethiopia Lesotho Malawi Mauritius Nigeria South Africa Tanzania Uganda and Zimbabwe From time to time the specific focus sections also veered towards domestic human rights protection See for instance the focus on 20 years of the South African Constitution 2014 no 2 on adolescent sexual and reproductive rights in the African region 2017 no 2 on the rule of law in sub Saharan Africa 2018 no 1 and on dignity taking and dignity restorations 2018 no 2

Exploring Norms and Family Laws across the Globe Melissa L. Breger, 2022-03-28 Bringing together some of the world s leading family law scholars as well as bright and emerging minds in the field of global family law this book explores the differences and commonalities in the conceptualization and legal treatment of families throughout different legal traditions Each chapter delves into topics integral to family law jurisprudence and serves as a novel examination into a deep slice of family law Together the four parts and sixteen chapters create a melodious and intriguing examination of groundbreaking and cutting edge areas of law in the realm of the family The four parts primarily focus upon a major family law topic with the authors examining the laws across jurisdictions cross nationally or in some cases intra jurisdictionally It is through this comparative lens that we see how family law concepts are woven into the fabric of overall society around the globe This book is of interest to family law international law sociology and socio legal scholars

Africanising the Curriculum Vuyisile Msila, 2016-03-01 The alienating nature of the dominant curriculum in African schools and universities is an issue which simmered just below the surface in the 2015 student protests that swept through the South African higher education sector The collection of essays found in this timely publication offers compelling arguments for the deliberate embrace of the African culture to advance African knowledge and enhance African lives It proposes fresh perspectives on what shape and form a decolonised curriculum should take on
