The Wealth Or Health Of Nations Transforming Capitalism From Within:

The Wealth or Health of Nations Carol Johnston, 2010-10-01 Why has our society become so focused on money and at what human cost Carol Johnston explores the value assumptions of Western economic theory revealing what economists contributed and what opportunities were missed as the theory kept narrowing until only market decisions were considered and money became the only reality She then offers a proposal to transform the focus of capitalism from wealth to community and national health

The Child in American Evangelicalism and the Problem of Affluence David A. Sims, 2009-06-01 This work presents an evangelical theology of the child nurtured in the context of American evangelicalism and affluence It employs an eclectic theological critical method to produce a theological anthropology of the affluent American evangelical child AAEC through interdisciplinary evangelical engagement of American history sociology and economics Sims articulates how affluence constitutes a significant impediment to evangelical nurture of the AAEC in the discipline and instruction of the Lord Thus the problem he addresses is nurture in evangelical affluence conceived as a theological anthropological problem Nurture in the cultural matrices of the evangelical affluence generated by technological consumer capitalism in the U S impedes spiritual and moral formation of the AAEC for discipleship in the way of the cross This impediment risks disciplinary formation of the AAEC for capitalist culture cultivates delusional belief that life consists in an abundance of possessions and hinders the practice of evangelical liberation of the poor on humanity's underside The result is the AAEC's spiritual moral lack in late modernity Chapter 1 introduces the problem of the AAEC Chapters 2 and 3 provide a diachronic lens for the theological anthropology of the AAEC through critical assessment of the theological anthropologies of the child in Jonathan Edwards Horace Bushnell and Lawrence Richards Chapters 4 and 5 constitute the synchronic perspective of the AAEC Chapter 4 presents an evangelical sociology of the AAEC drawing upon William Corsaro's theory of interpretive reproductions and chapter 5 constructs an evangelical theology of the AAEC through critical interaction with John Schneider's moral theology of affluence Chapter 6 Whither the AAEC concludes with a recapitulation of the work and a forecast of possible futures for the AAEC in the twenty first century

Freedom in Resistance and Creative Transformation Michael St. A. Miller,2013-04-11 In Freedom in Resistance and Creative Transformation Michael Miller addresses the concept of freedom that is central to the grammar of Christian faith and important in a wide range of religious and nonreligious settings across the globe He confronts the fact that despite the claimed importance of freedom there continues to be interpersonal socio political and religious power hierarchies that keep some people dominant and others subjugated The book suggests that often these hierarchies are informed by Christian teachings that deny freedom to human beings on the basis of their humanity per se Having classified humanity as fallen we are instructed that freedom is experienced by disparaging our humanity as we actually experience it seeing ourselves as our own worst enemies and accepting bondage to God the bondage reflected in the character of relations with those seen as God's special representatives in the world Miller presents a case against this understanding of the human situation and in the process he critically engages the Old and New Testaments along with ideas of significant representatives of Christian orthodoxy As an alternative he promotes freedom that is finite realistically libertarian and relational as most compatible with the character of human beings that are partially self creating and self determining Contributing to this position is the view that an infinitely temporal God by character and desire participates in human life in a way that ensures the requisite space for authentic decision making from which emerges genuinely novel possibilities for human life This dynamic has implications for the continued development of the human species and the quality of life in the cosmos as a whole Of Divine Economy Marion Grau, 2004-10-26 God gives Green Stamps A look at the theological and economic meanings of redemption
