The Way Forward Nurturing New Believers:

The Way Forward - Nurturing New Believers Michael Green,2013-05-31 This little book was written to help new Christians make the transition to a wholly different life on which they've now embarked. The Way Forward stands as a bridge between the non-Christian or the merely nominal church member and those who are actively enjoying the warm relationships of fellowship in Christ. Sadly, there is a real shortage of materials that can be used to address the critical need of nurturing a new believer. New believers definitely need some help if they are going to be able to adjust to the fresh world of being in Christ. In The Way Forward, Michael Green gives us exactly what is needed: a refreshingly straightforward path but a theologically sound one that also leaves room for the Holy Spirit to work. It is aimed at those who have recently come to personal faith in Christ but is also of value for any Christian. The content has already proved to be fruitful, having been extensively tested in both church and university settings in America and the U.K. The Living Church, 2002-06 A Handbook for New Believers Shelleann M. Brown,2022-08-01 Congratulations! The Holy Spirit has knocked on your heart's door. You opened and let Him in. Then you made a public declaration to serve Him in believer's baptism. What are the next steps? In A Handbook for New Believers, author Shelleann M. Brown provides you advice, tips, and tools to help you survive your early life with Christ Jesus. This guide includes information on a host of topics including lifestyle changes, prayer, fasting, reading and understanding the word, tithes and offerings, testimony, sanctification, the Holy Spirit, communion, doctrine, and church culture and discipleship. Geared toward Christians of all denominations, its reflections and questions encourage you to take time with God to develop some new values, norms, and morals that will change some of your old doings and be transformed to the newness of life in your new walk. From the center of Jamaica in the heart of Downtown Kingston, its capital, Brown produces a Biblical friend and guide for all babies in Christ, aiding in the spiritual growth of each new believer.

All believers, particularly those who aspire to be in leadership or are currently in ministry, should own this evangelism manual. This manual is a much-needed resource in the field of evangelistic outreach. It seeks to give practical training and equipping to those who wish to fulfill the call of the Great Commission. The manual is useful for teaching, training, witnessing, follow-up, discipleship, launching your own ministry, and even for acquiring personal knowledge of evangelism.

God's Church for God's World Stephen Spencer,2023-07-25 Convened by the Archbishop of Canterbury in 2022, the Lambeth Conference was an international meeting of Anglican bishops. The conference discussed church and world affairs and the global mission of the Anglican Communion for the decade ahead. The Lambeth Conference 2022 Report: God's Church for God's World offers a detailed record of the conference and full outlines of the major addresses and departmental reports. It also presents the final wording of the Lambeth Calls and Statements. From the Ground Up Stephen Leston,2025-06-27

In the pursuit of making disciples of all nations it's essential to remember the core of our mission: gospel-centered relationships. It's not about numbers or visible success. Instead, it's about the deep personal connections we form to make disciples. Yet in a world where globalism clashes with nationalism and tribalism, and civilizations clash with civilizations, missionaries face tough challenges to overcome hate and distrust and authentically engage believers. In a comprehensive guide filled with wisdom and personal stories, pastor and missionary Stephen Leston relies on his professional experience in cross-cultural church planting in complex regions to share a groundbreaking approach to church planting and discipleship. He frames discipleship as a lifelong journey for followers of Jesus, not at the moment of conversion or teaching doctrine. Included are strategies to navigate diverse and hostile environments while fostering vibrant communities, practical methods to build trust, and ensure the church blends seamlessly with the local culture without compromising the gospel, and reminders to measure discipleship impact through the lens of relationships and multiplication, not attendance, buildings, or cash. From the Ground Up offers a revolutionary approach and practical strategies that guides church planters and missionaries to first love people, then make disciples, and then form those disciples into local churches.

A Profile of Jewish Believers in the UK Church Jonathan Allen, 2018-03-02 Given that mission agencies have been reporting for the last two hundred years or more the number of Jewish people coming to faith in Christ, this book asks the question: where are they and their descendants now? Using a multidisciplinary approach covering social identity theory, social memory theory, and translation theory, this book constructs a profile of Jewish believers in the UK church based upon interviews carried out with church members and leaders who are Jewish or have experience working with Jewish believers. After examining both theory and data, the conclusion is that church is a hostile environment for Jewish identity. Unlike Chinese, Ghanaian, and Korean churches, whose members are encouraged to retain their traditions as diaspora communities reaching out to their own people, the church has a strongly assimilationist policy toward Jewish believers who are encouraged, even pressured, to forget their Jewish traditions, customs, and practices in favor of blending into Gentile church, and disappearing Jewish believers are at best an oxymoron, at worst an anathema, not to be trusted or tolerated unless, as in the days of the early church from the third century onwards, they renounce their previous lives, families, and communities.

Nurturing Faith and Hope Anne E. Streaty Wimberly, 2010-02-01 Wimberly's latest work presents pastors, church lay leaders, and scholars with a new lens to think critically and joyously about how Christian education undergirds and supports the worship experience in nurturing faith and hope in black parishioners. David L. Wallace, Sr. Dean Johnson C. Smith Theological Seminary, The Interdenominational Theological Center, Atlanta, Georgia. This highly recommended work provides a thoughtful yet comprehensive framework of the black Christian worshipping community as the context where faith and hope are nurtured. Marsha Snulligan Haney, Associate Professor of Missiology and Religions of the World, The Interdenominational Theological Center, Atlanta, Georgia. This is a must-read for all pastors and worship designers who desire to make worship relevant for African American

Practices of Power Robert Ewusie Moses, 2014 The conception of powers and principalities in Paul's thought has been amply explored but how did the powers work in the Pauline community Robert Ewusie Moses argues that Paul's conception of the powers is best understood through examining the practices he advocates for the early believers In this detailed study Moses shows that Paul believed certain practices guarded believers from the dominion of the powers while others exposed humans to the work of powers of darkness Moses traces the distinct function of power practices in each of Paul's letters and draws illuminating comparisons with traditional African religious practices
