us We have to proceed completely alone like a hair taken out of the butter Therefore regardless of the size of our entourage and the numbers of servants relatives and friends we may have at the time of death none of them can help We will have to leave behind even our body that we have cherished so much and even our body at the end will deceive us Only the mind with grief and sadness will have to proceed to the bardo We then come to the conclusion that the only thing that matters is our Dharma practice The teaching contained in this booklet was given by Denma Loch Rinpoche at his Dharamsala s residence between July 20 and July 26 2009 at the request of a small group of Italian disciples who travelled purposely to Dharamsala It is a commentary on the Lamrim text composed by Panchen Losang Ch gyan pan chen blo bzang chos rgyan 1567 1662 and called De lam The Simple Path

Turning the Wheel Wim van den Dungen, The Sublime Continuum and Its Explanatory Commentary, 2023-06-06 Explore an in depth explanation of buddha nature and self emptiness The original Sublime Continuum Explanatory Commentary was written by Noble Asanga to explain the verses received from the bodhisattva Maitreya in the late fourth century CE in northern India Here it is introduced and presented in an original translation from Sanskrit and Tibetan with the translation of an extensive Tibetan Supercommentary by Gyaltsap Darma Rinchen 1364 1432 whose work closely followed the view of his teacher Tsong Khapa 1357 1419 Contemporary scholars have widely misunderstood the Buddhist Centrist Madhyamaka teaching of emptiness or selflessness as either a form of nihilism or a radical skepticism Yet Buddhist philosophers from Nagarjuna on have shown that the negation of intrinsic reality when accurately understood affirms the supreme value of relative realities Gyaltsap Darma Rinchen in his Supercommentary elucidates a highly positive theory of the buddha nature showing how the wisdom of emptiness empowers the compassionate life of the enlightened as it is touched by its oneness with the truth body of all buddhas With his clear study of Gyalsap s insight and his original English translation Bo Jiang completes his historic project of studying and presenting these works from Sanskrit and Tibetan in both Chinese and now English translations in linked publications Steps toward a Tibetan

Understanding of Purity James E. Morrison,2025-03-27 Though of little concern to most westerners notions of what is considered clean and unclean pure and impure are of great importance to many cultures Both ritual and moral purity and impurity are significant concerns for Tibetan Buddhists and Buddhists at large being foundational to how they live their everyday lives Steps Towards a Tibetan Understanding of Purity provides a detailed analysis of Tibetan conceptions of purity and purification through a careful examination of salient Tibetan texts across a wide range of genres The practical applications of this study articulate ways to contextualize the good news of Jesus in a Tibetan Buddhist context with an emphasis on the gospel of purification Such an approach provides the reader with renewed impetus to share the gospel in meaningful and relevant ways to a Buddhist audience while also providing additional insights into the worldview of Tibetans

Causality Jeaneane Fowler, 2020-02-21 This book examines the concepts of cause and effect from two dimensions The first concerns the macrocosm of the Universe and how each belief system views creation The second dimension explores the ways in which beliefs about creation influence the microcosmic world in terms of the nature of the self the proximate goals within each system the answers each belief system offers to the presence of evil and suffering in existence and ideas about the ultimate goal of release from them All these ideas inform and are fundamental to the understanding of the present day practices of different faiths presenting challenges for scriptural testimony balanced with existential living The final two chapters explore current research in physics concerning the beginnings of the cosmos and what implications such research might have for existence within it with the final chapter examining scientific views of the nature of the self Contents include Judaic and Christian Traditions Islam Hinduism Early Buddhism Sikhism Classical Taoism Recycled Stardust Ashes to Ashes and Dust to Atoms The Life and Death of the Self One Hundred Thousand Moons Tsepon Wangchuk Deden Shakabpa, 2010 A sustained argument for Tibetan independence this volume also serves as an introduction to many aspects of Tibetan culture society and especially religion with a compendium of biographies of the most significant religious and political figures Your Mind Is Your Teacher Khenpo Gawang, Jamgon Mipham, 2013-07-02 This concise handbook of Tibetan Buddhist teachings designed for Western students is centered on a sitting practice called Contemplative Meditation This practice can be used as a way to change troublesome habits even by someone with little knowledge of Buddhism

Although the teachings are based on a nineteenth century text by Lama Mipham they are presented in a non scholarly way with examples drawn from modern life and everyday experience In particular the author addresses the unique attitudes and questions of twenty first century Westerners who are exploring Buddhism The practice taught in the book consists of a reflection on four subjects known as the Four Seals of the Buddha s teaching multiplicity impermanence suffering and emptiness Khenpo Gawang Rinpoche explains how to investigate each of these topics in a way that helps you recognize your innate wisdom mind which is your ultimate teacher Once you learn how to examine your own mind and your life with this method you will start to look at everything differently By helping to dissolve negative thoughts and habits the practice can increase your focus confidence self esteem and happiness Along with exercises and questions short readings a glossary and checklists for study this book provides a complete handbook with simple instructions for additional practices the Ninefold Exhalation a breathing method for expelling stale air before meditation visualization of buddhas and great teachers to inspire practice the practice of bodhichitta or generating love and compassion for all beings the seven branch offering seven devotional thoughts to strengthen efforts dedication of merit the positive energy from the meditation for the benefit of all beings Finally the appendix gives translations of two short readings The Wheel of Analytical Meditation by Lama Mipham which is the source of this book s teaching and the Heart Sutra a famous brief teaching on emptiness along with a traditional commentary The Universal Vehicle Discourse Literature (Mahāyānasūtrālaṅkāra)

Vasubandhu, Maitreyanātha/Āsaṅga, 2014-09-29 The Universal Vehicle Discourse Literature Mah y nas tr la k ra was transmitted from the bodhisattva Maitreyan tha to ry sa ga the fourth century Indian Buddhist scholar adept The most foundational of the set of the famous Five Teachings of Maitreya the Discourse Literature is considered the wellspring of what the Tibetans call the magnificent deeds trend of the path the compassion side which balances the profound view trend of the path the wisdom side The Discourse Literature is also considered to be metaphysically aligned with and foundational for the Idealist Vijñānavādīn school of Mah y na thought Translated from Sanskrit Tibetan and Chinese by Lobsang Jampal Robert Thurman and the AIBS team the present work contains a fully annotated critical English rendition of the Discourse Literature along with its commentary bh ya by sa ga s brother Vasubandhu It also includes an introduction covering essential historical and philosophical topics a bibliography and a detailed index This long awaited work is the founding cornerstone of the AIBS Treasury of the Buddhist Sciences series Travels in the Netherworld Bryan J. Cuevas, 2008-04-02 In Travels in the Netherworld Bryan J Cuevas examines a fascinating but little known genre of Tibetan narrative literature about the d lok ordinary men and women who claim to have died traveled through hell and then returned from the afterlife These narratives enjoy audiences ranging from the most sophisticated monastic scholars to pious townsfolk villagers and nomads Their accounts emphasize the universal Buddhist principles of impermanence and worldly suffering the fluctuations of karma and the feasibility of obtaining a favorable rebirth through virtue and merit Providing a clear detailed analysis of four vivid return from death tales including the stories of a Tibetan housewife a lama a young noble woman and a Buddhist monk Cuevas argues that these narratives express ideas about death and the afterlife that held wide currency among all classes of faithful Buddhists in Tibet Relying on a diversity of traditional Tibetan sources Buddhist canonical scriptures scholastic textbooks ritual and meditation manuals and medical treatises in addition to the d lok works themselves Cuevas surveys a broad range of popular Tibetan Buddhist ideas about death and dying He explores beliefs about the vulnerability of the soul and its journey beyond death karmic retribution and the terrors of hell the nature of demons and demonic possession ghosts and reanimated corpses Cuevas argues that these extraordinary accounts exhibit flexibility between social and religious categories that are conventionally polarized and concludes that contrary to the accepted wisdom such rigid divisions as elite and folk monastic and lay religion are not sufficiently representative of traditional Tibetan Buddhism on the ground This study offers innovative perspectives on popular religion in Tibet and fills a gap in an important field of Tibetan literature
