The White House Boys An American Tragedy:

The White House Boys Roger Dean Kiser, 2010-01-01 Hidden far from sight deep in the thick underbrush of the North Florida woods are the ghostly graves of more than thirty unidentified bodies some of which are thought to be children who were beaten to death at the old Florida Industrial School for Boys at Marianna It is suspected that many more bodies will be found in the fields and swamplands surrounding the institution Investigations into the unmarked graves have compelled many grown men to come forward and share their stories of the abuses they endured and the atrocities they witnessed in the 1950s and 1960s at the institution The White House Boys An American Tragedy is the true story of the horrors recalled by Roger Dean Kiser one of the boys incarcerated at the facility in the late fifties for the crime of being a confused unwanted and wayward child In a style reminiscent of the works of Mark Twain Kiser recollects the horrifying verbal sexual and physical abuse he and other innocent young boys endured at the hands of their caretakers Questions remain unanswered and theories abound but Roger and the other White House Boys are determined to learn the truth and see justice served

White House Boys Roger Kiser, 2013-06-15 The forming of the organization which became known as THE WHITE HOUSE BOYS was formed to expose the bloody beatings molestations rapes and murder of many young boys at the former Florida Industrial School for Boys at Marianna The University of South Florida is now digging up the remains of hundreds of boys who were killed at that facility This was exposed by Roger Dean Kiser in his book titled The White House Boys An American Tragedy

The White House Boys The Screenplay Roger Dean Kiser, 2013-10-14 Screenplay version of the autobiography the author one of many boys suffering verbal sexual and physical abuse at the hands of their caretakers tells the story of his boyhood years in the Florida Industrial School for Boys in Marianna A group of the white house boys has promised to learn the truth and see justice served

Burning Down the House Nell Bernstein, 2014-06-03 When teenagers scuffle during a basketball game they are typically benched But when Will got into it on the court he and his rival were sprayed in the face at close range by a chemical similar to Mace denied a shower for twenty four hours and then locked in solitary confinement for a month One in three American children will be arrested by the time they are twenty three and many will spend time locked inside horrific detention centers that defy everything we know about how to rehabilitate young offenders In a clear eyed indictment of the juvenile justice system run amok award winning journalist Nell Bernstein shows that there is no right way to lock up a child The very act of isolation denies delinquent children the thing that is most essential to their growth and rehabilitation positive relationships with caring adults Bernstein introduces us to youth across the nation who have suffered violence and psychological torture at the hands of the state She presents these youths all as fully realized people not victims As they describe in their own voices their fight to maintain their humanity and protect their individuality in environments that would deny both these young people offer a hopeful alternative to the doomed effort to reform a system that should only be dismantled Burning Down the House is a clarion call to shut down our nation s brutal and counterproductive juvenile
