Human-Animal Relationships in San and Hunter-Gatherer Cosmology, Volume II Mathias Guenther, 2019-08-21

Exploring a hitherto unexamined aspect of San cosmology Mathias Guenther's two volumes on human animal relations in San cosmology link new Animism with Khoisan Studies providing valuable insights for Khoisan Studies and San culture but also for anthropological theory relational ontology folklorists historians literary critics and art historians Building from the examinations of San myth and contemporary culture in Volume I Volume II considers the experiential implications of a cosmology in which ontological mutability ambiguity and inconstancy hold sway As he considers how people experience ontological mutability and deal with profound identity issues mentally and affectively Guenther explores three primary areas general receptiveness to ontological ambiguity the impact of the experience of transformation both virtual vicarious and actual direct and the intersection of the mythic spirit world with reality Through a comparative consideration of animistic cosmology amongst the San Bantu speakers and the Inuit of Canada s eastern Arctic alongside a discussion of animistic currents in Western humanities and ethology Guenther clearly paints the relative strengths and weaknesses of New Animism discourse particularly in relation to San ontology and cosmology but with overarching relevance Liberating Mission in Mozambique Robert N. Faris, 2014-08-26 Few people have any extensive knowledge of the life and witness of the Protestant churches in the former Portuguese colonies of southern Africa Yet these communities of faith played a significant role in the liberation struggles that led to the independence of both Mozambique and Angola and subsequently to the independence of Zimbabwe and the ending of apartheid in South Africa In Mozambique Eduardo Mondlane emerged from the Swiss Mission to become the first president of the Mozambique Liberation Front FRELIMO This book examines Mondlane s role in challenging the churches both in Mozambique and globally to support the struggle for independence through a renewed understanding of the missio Dei God s liberating mission in the world Mondlane maintained a strong connection with the World Council of Churches and was a key player in bringing about its Programme to Combat Racism after the 1968 Assembly in Uppsala before his assassination in 1969 This connection was to have important implications for the WCC s complex relationship with Mozambique and its Protestant churches following independence New South African Review 6 Devan Pillay, Gilbert M Khadiagala, Roger Southall, Sarah Mosoetsa, Samuel Kariuki, 2018-01-29 Wide ranging essays demonstrate how the consequences of inequality extend throughout society and the political economy Despite the transition from apartheid to democracy South Africa is the most unequal country in the world Its extremes of wealth and poverty undermine intensifying struggles for a better life for all The wide ranging essays in this sixth volume of the New South African Review demonstrate how the consequences of inequality extend throughout society and the political economy crippling the quest for social justice polarising the politics skewing economic outcomes and bringing devastating environmental consequences in their wake Contributors survey the extent and consequences of inequality across fields as diverse as education disability agrarian reform nuclear geography and small towns and tackle some of the most difficult social political and economic issues How has the quest for greater equality affected progressive political discourse How has inequality reproduced itself despite best intentions in social policy to the detriment of the poor and the historically disadvantaged How have shifts in mining and the financialisation of the economy reshaped the contours of inequality How does inequality reach into the daily social life of South Africans and shape the way in which they interact How does the extent and shape of inequality in South Africa
