Woman Jacking Off A Man:

Pornography Andrea Dworkin, 2005-02-25 Andrea Dworkin's 1981 critique of pornography is an important and urgent document about how the culture consumes and manipulates images of women. Essential and discomfiting reading in a social media era where women's bodies are being commodified and displayed more than ever. Andrea Dworkin's seminal 1981 work on the issue of pornography argues that the industry serves only to harm and oppress women. Her discussion of pornography as an outgrowth of the power that men exert over women, the power of owning, the power of money and the power of sex among others still blazes with its clarity and immediacy and illustrates how these inequities while displayed in raw form in pornography are endemic in all media. With a lively and deeply compelling voice, Andrea Dworkin succinctly outlines her anti-pornography stance. Though the media environment may have changed, this passionately and powerfully argued classic remains a relevant and crucial contribution to the area of feminist studies.

Men Seeking Women Po Bronson, Richard Dooling, Eric Garcia, Paul Honda, Gary Krist, 2001-02-20 Men Seeking Women Love and Sex On line is an exciting and original collection of new short fiction by men about men seeking women and women seeking men in the digital age. The Internet revolution has altered the look of the traditional relationship. Here ten talented storytellers offer thoroughly contemporary portraits of relationships in the world of new media and high technology in chat rooms, porn sites and other online realms. Men Seeking Women is a fresh and unconventional look at the cyber landscape of love, sex and companionship.
