Women, Communism, and Industrialization in Postwar Poland Malgorzata Fidelis, 2010-06-21 Malgorzata Fidelis study of female industrial workers in postwar Poland proves that women were central to the making of communist society

Contesting Archives Nupur Chaudhuri, Sherry J. Katz, Mary Elizabeth Perry, 2010 Contesting Archives makes vivid and concrete the way historians must proceed when faced with partial or contradictory sources Historians and anyone interested in how historians work will appreciate the authors strategies for and cautions about unearthing information about women from documents inside and outside the archive Margaret Strobel coeditor of Expanding the Borders of Women's History

The Oxford Handbook of the History of Communism S. A. Smith, 2014 Draws on documentation released since the fall of the Soviet Union to offer a global history of communism in the twentieth century Women and Yugoslav Partisans Jelena Batinić, 2015-05-12 This book focuses on the mass participation of women in the communist led Yugoslav Partisan resistance during World War II Women and Industry in the Balkans Chiara Bonfiglioli, 2019-09-19 Women's emancipation through productive labour was a key tenet of socialist politics in post World War II Yugoslavia Mass industrialisation under Tito led many young women to join traditionally feminised sectors and as a consequence the textile sector grew rapidly fast becoming a gendered symbol of industrialisation consumption and socialist modernity By the 1980s Yugoslavia was one of the world's leading producers of textiles and garments The break up of Yugoslavia in 1991 however resulted in factory closures bankruptcy and layoffs forcing thousands of garment industry workers into precarious and often exploitative private sector jobs Drawing on more than 60 oral history interviews with former and current garment workers as well as workplace periodicals and contemporary press material collected across Croatia Macedonia Serbia Bosnia Herzegovina and Slovenia Women and Industry in the Balkans charts the rise and fall of the Yugoslav textile sector as well as the implications of this post socialist transition for the first time In the process the book explores broader questions about memories of socialism lingering feelings of attachment to the socialist welfare system and the complexity of the post socialist era This is important reading for all scholars working on the history and politics of Yugoslavia and the Balkans oral history memory studies and gender studies Gender, Generations, and Communism in Central and Eastern Europe and Beyond Anna Artwińska, Agnieszka Mroziak, 2020-06-03 Communism in twentieth century Europe is predominantly narrated as a totalitarian movement and or regime This book aims to go beyond this narrative and provide an alternative framework to describe the communist past This reframing is possible thanks to the concepts of generation and gender which are used in the book as analytical categories in an intersectional overlap The publication covers twentieth century Poland Czechoslovakia Czech Republic the Soviet Union Russia former Yugoslavia Turkish communities in West Germany Italy and Cuba as a comparative point of reference It provides a theoretical frame and overview chapters on several important gender and generation narratives about communism anticommunism and postcommunism Its starting point is the belief that although methodological reflection on communism as well as on generations and gender is conducted extensively in contemporary research the overlapping of these three terms is still rare The main focus in the first part is on methodological issues The second part features studies which depict the possibility of generational gender interpretations of history The third part is informed by biographical perspectives The last part shows how the problem of generations and gender is staged via the medium of literature and how it can be narrated Gender in Twentieth-Century Eastern Europe and the USSR Catherine Baker, 2016-09-29 A concise and accessible introduction to the gender histories of eastern Europe and the Soviet Union in the 20th century These essays juxtapose established topics in gender history such as motherhood masculinities work and activism with newer areas such as the history of imprisonment and the transnational history of sexuality By collecting these essays in a single volume Catherine Baker encourages historians to look at gender history across borders and time periods emphasising that evidence and debates from Eastern Europe can inform broader approaches to contemporary gender history

Feminist Transformations and Domestic Violence Activism in Divided Berlin, 1968-2002 Jane

Freeland, 2024-07-19 This is the first in depth historical study of feminist activism against domestic violence in divided Berlin between 1968 and 2002 Starting in the 1970s feminists in West and then East Berlin campaigned against domestic violence as a key issue of women s inequality They exposed the harmful gender norms that left women unprotected and vulnerable to abuse in the home and called for this to change Indeed domestic violence has been one of the issues most effectively addressed by the women s movement in Germany Since the first shelter opened in West Berlin in 1976 women s shelters have spread throughout the country and today up to 45 000 women a year turn to emergency housing in Germany with many more accessing helplines and crisis centres Situating domestic violence activism within a broader history of feminism in post war Germany Feminist Transformations traces the evolution of this movement both across political division and reunification and from grassroots campaign to established professionalised social service In doing so it brings the histories of feminism in East and West Berlin together for the first time and explores how feminism successfully changed women s rights in Germany But it also asks what popular and political support for domestic violence activism has meant for feminism and the advancement of women s rights more broadly Examining the trajectory of feminism in Germany Jane Freeland reveals the limitations of gender equality as advancements in women s rights were often built on the reassertion of patriarchal gender roles Rethinking Gender, Work and Care in a New Europe Triin Roosalu, 2016-04-29 Given the growing importance of Eastern European countries in the development of the EU there is an urgent need to reconstruct the recent dynamic developments in women s work and care in these societies and the socio political determinants thereof Considering their specific cultural economic and historical development it can be assumed that the trends and determinants of women s labour market trajectories in CEE countries differ significantly from those in the other European countries that have frequently made up the basis for established theories in social and labour market research This being the case can standard theoretical approaches mostly modelled on evidence from Western Europe be transferred to the analysis of Eastern European countries This edited collection scrutinises pivotal aspects of women s careers in Eastern Europe providing a detailed overview of trends and determinants of women s employment in Eastern Europe and reflecting critically on theoretical approaches in social and labour market research

Beyond NGO-ization Kerstin Jacobsson, Steven Saxonberg, 2016-04-15 The celebrations marking the 20th anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall provoked a debate on the outcomes of the transition process in the post communist countries including a debate on the functioning of civil society This provided a good opportunity for researchers to collect new data and revise the discourse on collective action and the dynamics of civil society in these countries Jacobsson and Saxonberg s collection of essays looks at social movements and their forms of mobilization and organization as well as action repertoires in relation to the social context and their success or failure The book meets an important need in the discourse on post communist social movements by going beyond the usual discourse about the weak and non participatory civil society in the post communist context This book gives a nuanced and updated view of social movements in post communist Europe by looking at the cases of relatively successful mobilization by examining groups that have often been neglected in the discourse on social movements and civil society including animal rights groups racist movements and non feminist family organizations and by giving a deeper analysis of the different strategies that civil society organizations and groups can use Rather than expecting social movements in post communist Europe to follow the same patterns and operate in the same fashion as in Western Europe this volume shows that a wider view of contentious action is needed in order to understand the variety of strategies employed by collective actors operating in this context

Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2019-10-31 Women in World History brings together the most recent scholarship in women s and world history in a single volume covering the period from 1450 to the present enabling readers to understand women s relationship to world developments over the past five hundred years Women have served the world as unfree people often forced to migrate as slaves trafficked sex workers and indentured laborers working off debts Diseases have migrated through women s bodies and women themselves have deliberately spread religious belief and fervor as well as ideas They have been global authors soldiers and astronauts encircling the globe and moving far beyond it They have written classics in political and social thought and crafted literary and artistic works alongside others who were revolutionaries and reform minded activists Historical scholarship has shown that there is virtually no part of the world where women s presence is not manifest whether in archives oral testimonials personal papers the material record evidence of disease and famine myth and religious teachings and myriad other forms of documentation As these studies mount the idea of surveying women s past on a global basis becomes daunting This book aims to redress this situation and offer a synthetic world history of women in modern times appalling conditions but always involving the combination of various work processes we are often not aware of What is the day to day reality for workers in various parts of the world and how was it in the past How do they work today and how did they work in the past These and many other questions comprise the field of the global history of work a young discipline that is introduced with this handbook In 8 thematic chapters this book discusses these aspects of work in a global and long term perspective paying attention to several kinds of work Convict labour slave and wage labour labour migration and workers of the textile industry but also workers organisation strikes and motivations for work are part of this first handbook of global labour history written by the most renowned scholars of the profession Second World, Second Sex Kristen

Ghodsee,2019-01-31 Women from the state socialist countries in Eastern Europe what used to be called the Second World once dominated women s activism at the United Nations but their contributions have been largely forgotten or deemed insignificant in comparison with those of Western feminists In Second World Second Sex Kristen Ghodsee rescues some of this lost history by tracing the activism of Eastern European and African women during the 1975 United Nations International Year of Women and the subsequent Decade for Women 1976 1985 Focusing on case studies of state socialist Bulgaria and nonaligned but socialist leaning Zambia Ghodsee examines the feminist networks that developed between the Second and Third Worlds and shows how alliances between socialist women challenged American women s leadership of the global women s movement Drawing on interviews and archival research across three continents Ghodsee argues that international ideological competition between capitalism and socialism profoundly shaped the world women inhabit today

The Century of Women Maria Bucur,2018-04-05 This innovative text explores the unprecedented changes in the realms of politics demography economics culture knowledge and kinship that women have brought about in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Global in reach the book provides a comparative analysis of developments worldwide to show both progress as well as new tensions and forms of inequality that have emerged out of women s entry into politics wage employment education and the production of culture Beginning with suffrage and moving to participation in international movements such as anti war labor and environmental rights activism Maria Bucur explores how women have transformed the operation of states and international institutions She focuses on the radical demographic shifts since 1900 through the prism of changing practices in women s sexuality from birth control practices to education Examining the continuing economic gender gap around the world Bucur highlights ways women have been both beneficiaries of new economic opportunities and participants in developing new forms of inequality Considering the remarkable achievements of women in the areas of knowledge making and cultural production the author shifts her gaze toward the future and what these changes mean in terms of gender norms and evolving kinship relations She thus presents a new perspective on contemporary world history centered on how women have become both the subjects and objects of seismic shifts in the political social and economic structures of societies across the globe Ambiguous Transitions Jill Massino,2019-07-30 Focusing on youth family work and consumption Ambiguous Transitions analyzes the interplay between gender and citizenship postwar Romania By juxtaposing official sources with oral histories and socialist policies with everyday practices Jill Massino illuminates the gendered dimensions of socialist modernization and its complex effects on women's roles relationships and identities Analyzing women as subjects and agents the book examines how they negotiated the challenges that arose as Romanian society modernized even as it clung to traditional ideas about gender Massino concludes by exploring the ambiguities of postsocialism highlighting how the legacies of the past have shaped politics and women's lived experiences since 1989

Rethinking Modern Polish Identities Agnieszka Pasięka, Paweł Rodak, 2023 A critical examination of the category of Polishness that is the formation redefinition and performance of various kinds of Polish identities from a wide range of disciplinary perspectives Inspired by new research in the humanities and social sciences as well as recent scholarship on national identities this volume offers a rigorous examination of the idea of Polishness Offering a diversity of case studies and methodological theoretical approaches it demonstrates a profound connection between national and transnational processes and places the Polish case in a broader context This broader context stretches from a larger Eastern European one a usual frame of comparison to the overseas immigrant communities The authors renowned scholars from Europe and the United States thus demonstrate that an understanding of modern Polish identity means crossing not only historical but also geographical boundaries Consequently the narrative on Polish identity that unfolds in the volume is a personalized and multivocal one that presents the perspectives of a wide range of subjects peasants workers migrants ethnic and sexual minorities that is all those actors who have been absent in grand national narratives As such the examination of Polishness sheds light on the identity question more broadly emphasizing the interplay of pluralizing and homogenizing tendencies and fostering a reflection on national identity as encompassing both sameness and difference

Curtain of Lies Melissa Feinberg, 2017-05-04 While the Cold War governments of Eastern Europe operated within the confines of the Soviet worldview their peoples confronted the narratives of both East and West From the Soviet Union and its satellites they heard of a West dominated by imperialist warmongers and of the glorious future only Communism could bring A competing discourse emanated from the West claiming that Eastern Europe was a totalitarian land of captive slaves powerless in the face of Soviet aggression In Curtain of Lies Melissa Feinberg conducts a timely examination into the nature of truth using the political culture of Eastern Europe during the Cold War as her foundation Focusing on the period between 1948 and 1956 she looks at how the truth of Eastern Europe was delineated by actors on both sides of the Iron Curtain Feinberg offers a fresh interpretation of the Cold War as a shared political environment exploring the ways in which ordinary East Europeans interacted with these competing understandings of their homeland She approaches this by looking at the relationship between the American sponsored radio stations broadcast across the Iron Curtain and the East European migrants they interviewed as sources on life under Communism Feinberg's careful analysis reveals that these parties developed mutually reinforced assumptions about the meaning of Communism helping to create the evidentiary foundation for totalitarian interpretations of Communist rule in Eastern Europe In bridging the geopolitical and the individual Curtain of Lies provides a perspective that is both innovative in its methodology and indispensable to its field
