Stanley,2004-01-13 In this world you will have trouble We will have trouble God has already promised us this in His Word Tragedy is an inevitable part of life And that means that we will also experience grief anger and overwhelming questions What do we do now How do we respond to this tragedy Where is God when this happens Dr Charles Stanley has heard those questions has even asked them himself as he and those in his congregation have faced individual moments of tragedy Tragedy whether on a national scale or as part of a

Eternal Insecurity or Eternal Security James McClain,2018-07-24 Is it possible for a person to know with certainty that they have a future with God in Heaven Some hold the position that no one can know the answer to that question until they pass on from this life In a sincere search for an accurate answer guesswork will not provide the kind of clarity we seek It has to be one of the most serious questions if not the most serious question we each need the answer for Either a person can know that assurance or they cannot If we can know we have a home in Heaven then how If we cannot have that assurance then why not Is it too much to hope for that a person could have the promise of eternal peace with God As Believers we rejoice that the Lord Jesus promised His followers peace not as the world gives and that one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit is a continuing ministry of peace while we His people are here on earth Could it not be considered Biblically normal for a Believer to enjoy the comforting assurance of eternal life even as the Lord promised His followers abundant life while on earth If not it certainly appears that Believers are missing out on peace comfort joy happiness security and a source of fervor for a life of service to the Lord I believe the Lord wants the best for His people and that the Bible teaches we will never perish and never thirst again Perhaps the most challenging question a professing Believer especially a new convert has to deal with is whether or not a Christian could ever go to hell It is shocking to find that there is such unsettled belief about such an eternally serious question I was raised in a church that taught a person who professed Christ could be truly redeemed saved born again and then later in their Christian walk turn away be deceived away rebel sin away their faith and end up lost and undone and headed for separation from God It s as if what they are advocating is OK Jesus your sacrificial blood was sufficient to get me saved but if I m going to make it to heaven someday I have to be faithful read my Bible every day pray regularly witness to others daily win others to Christ regularly attend every church service and church sponsored event coming or going in effect saying Christ s Work needs supplemented I now believe that this doctrinal position is blasphemy When Jesus cried out from His cross It is finished He wasn t talking about His ordeal of suffering He was talking about His Sacrificial Work of Redemption nothing to be taken from It nothing added to It He alone accomplished it Heb 1 3 Anything mankind would offer could try to take away from His Glory The good works that a Believer does Bible reading witnessing praying etc are done because we are saved not in order to be more assured of making it to Heaven someday Nothing human could ever supplement the atoning Work of the Lord Jesus Christ a ministry only HE has Heb 1 3

Stanley, 1996-12 Charles Stanley passes along the wisdom gained as father of a grown son and daughter and several grandchildren In this plainspoken book about creating and maintaining loving loyal parent child relationships Stanley focuses on the parental role as one of stewardship rather than one of ownership He explains not only the parents roles of responsibility but also the child s role of responsibility Includes a special discussion guide God's Diminishing Power Larry Bushnell, 2012-06-28 One of the major reasons the Jews of Jesus day did not recognize Him as their Messiah was their false traditions that blinded their understanding of the truth The churches worldwide are falling for the same type of deception by Satan This problem makes it difficult for the Holy Spirit to effectively use us for Jesus glory This book attempts to address some of these problems disguised as traditions You can think of others
