Which Side Are You On? Elaine Harger, 2016-02-26 Shattering any idea that librarianship is a politically neutral realm this insider's account of seven debates from the floor of the American Library Association Council illustrates the mechanisms the governing body used to maintain the status quo on issues like racism government surveillance and climate change At play in each debate are rules of parliamentary procedure appeals to authority denial and chastisement of librarians who pushed the ALA to make real its commitments to human rights and social justice Providing a fascinating look at the Council's inner workings the author parses debates concerning anti apartheid boycotts partnerships between ALA McDonald's and the Boy Scouts of America spying by the National Security Agency censorship in Israel and the Occupied Territories fossil fuel industry divestment and the recent revival by ALA's Office of Intellectual Freedom of the infamous film The Speaker

Corruption, Ethics, and Governance in South Africa Modimowabarwa Kanyane, 2024-05-20 This book assesses landmark empirical studies state capture concerns corruption and fraud in South Africa's public sector and thereby reflect on issues of accountability and ethics as cornerstones of governance Bringing together some of the best minds about corruption ethics and governance from a multidisciplinary perspective the book pushes critical thinking to interrogate interventions that could stamp out and stop the rot of corruption in society The book investigates the behaviours of officials and politicians engaging in acts of corruption and considers how state institutions have been captured and corrupted by these people Considering South Africa's historical and regional context the book also considers the role of watchdogs auditors and public opinion In suggesting mechanisms for combating and preventing corruption the book ultimately advocates for long lasting preventive interventions instead of current short lived and costly approaches to combating corruption Combining original case studies empirical work and some comparisons in Zimbabwe and Botswana with South

Dear Comrade President André Odendaal,2022-08-01 In his annual presidential address on 8 January 1986 ANC president Oliver Tambo called on South Africans to make apartheid ungovernable through armed action and militant struggle But unknown to the world on that very day the quiet spoken mathematics teacher and aspirant priest turned reluctant revolutionary had also set up a secret think tank in Lusaka which he named the Constitution Committee giving it an ad hoc unique exercise that had no precedent in the history of the movement Knowing that all wars end at a negotiating table and judging the balance of forces to be moving in favour of the liberation movement Tambo wanted the ANC to hold the initiative after the fall of apartheid Assisted by Pallo Jordan he instructed his new think tank to formulate the principles and draft the outlines of a constitution that could unite South Africa when the time came to talk in the fledgling days of freedom and democracy The seven member team including Albie Sachs Kader Asmal and Zola Skweyiya started deliberating and reporting to Tambo In correspondence they typically addressed him as Dear Comrade President Drawing on the personal archives of participants Dear Comrade President explains how the purposeful first steps were taken in the making of South Africa's Constitution Why and how did this process happen What were the first written words When and where were they put on paper By whom What values did they espouse And how did the committee's work fit into the broader struggle This book answers these questions in new paradigm shifting ways On Class, Race, and Educational Reform Antonia Darder, Cleveland Hayes II, Howard Ryan, 2023-03-23 On Class Race and Educational Reform provokes new dialogue between Marxists critical race theory scholars and other race inspired educational theorists with the aim of countering racism and class inequalities The book opens with a lead chapter by Howard Ryan a doctoral student with a background in teaching and labor organizing that substantively engages questions of class race and educational reform In response to the opening chapter educational theorists from Germany South Africa the UK and the USA provide insightful and penetrating responses highlighting the differences and similarities in perspectives The responses show how educators can overcome theoretical differences to create international collaborations and educational campaigns of solidarity that counter the treacherous impact of racism and class inequalities in the classroom and beyond The book includes a Foreword by Stephen Brookfield University of St Thomas USA and an Afterword by Cheryl Matias University of Kentucky USA Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2014-09-17 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Providing both an international organizations and research bibliography Volume 4 cites over 46 000 publications and information resources supplied by international organizations and provides nearly 18 000 research citations under 40 subject headings This volume also includes a research bibliography on international organizations and transnational associations Who's who of Southern Africa, 1992 Vols for 1967 70 include as a section Who's who of Rhodesia Mauritius Central and East Africa Parliamentary Papers Queensland.
