Daniel van der Merwe

Unisa Previous Exam Papers:

Daniel - a South African Chronicle Daniel van der Merwe, 2015-02-17 Despite being written mainly in the third person this book enables the perceptive reader to study a dramatic part of South Africa's history through the experiences of the main protagonist. Because of his legal background Daniel is able to see how an initially fair legal system is corrupted in order to serve the increasingly desperate needs of the White minority. This is a mere backdrop however to a love story that grows closer to tragedy as time passes because the heroine is an alcoholic. The arrival of the computer alters the career of the hero dramatically and sends him on some overseas adventures to learn more about the legal implications of the new machine. As a leader of a missionary team to Malawi Daniel also gets to grips with people with a totally different background and a differing worldview. The book is sensitive to background and atmosphere and the hero encapsulates some of this in a few poems that form part of the main text. Jealousy that green eyed monster also rears its head occasionally and further complicates relationships.

South African Education Policy Review, 1993-2000 Linda Chisholm, Shireen Motala, Salim Vally, 2003 The South African Education Policy Review is an invaluable historical archive. It reflects upon significant events, trends and debates and provides insightful analysis of this extremely momentous period of South Africa's history.

South African Pressclips, 1990-05 The Light in the Night, 1987 A Man without Ambition (eBook) Arnold Mol, 2012-11-20 A MAN WITHOUT AMBITION is Dr Arnold Mol's autobiography written with the purpose of giving his grandchildren some insight into part of their historical heritage. Even though his family and friends were surprised by the title Dr Mol says that his life has been characterized by responding to opportunities that have come his way rather than purposefully planning to achieve something. A MAN WITHOUT AMBITION begins with Dr Mol recounting the drama surrounding his birth in Holland shortly before the end of the Second World War. He then reflects on the past 68 blessed years of his life about immigrating to South Africa, growing up, the love of his life, his first job, his missionary calling to South America, becoming a parent and his deep gratitude towards the Lord. A MAN WITHOUT AMBITION makes for rather entertaining reading with many anecdotes and readers will see how blessed life can be when they trust God and put their faith in Him alone.
