Understanding Globalization The Social Consequences Of Political Economic And Environmental Change:

Understanding Globalization Robert K. Schaeffer, 2005-07-28 This book examines the globalization of production and its impact on work and gender relations the impact of technology on workers around the world the economic problems associated with debt crisis the political opportunities associated with democratization the impact of global warming the reasons behind China's rise as an economic superpower and the problems in countries across the Middle East that culminated in the attacks of 9/11

Environmental and Natural Resource Economics Jonathan M. Harris, Brian Roach, 2021-11-28 Environmental issues are of fundamental importance and a broad approach to understanding the relationship between the human economy and the natural world is essential In a rapidly changing policy and scientific context this new edition of Environmental and Natural Resource Economics reflects an updated perspective on modern environmental topics Now in its fifth edition this textbook includes enhanced and updated material on energy climate change greening the economy population agriculture forests and water reflecting the greater urgency required to solve the big environmental problems in these areas It introduces students to both standard environmental economics and the broader perspective of ecological economics balancing analytical techniques of environmental economics topics with a global perspective on current ecological issues such as population growth global climate change and green national income accounting Harris and Roach's premise is that a pluralistic approach is essential to understand the complex nexus between the economy and the environment This perspective combined with its emphasis on real world policies is particularly appealing to both instructors and students This is the ideal text for undergraduate classes on environmental natural resource and ecological economics and postgraduate courses on environmental and economic policy To access Student and Instructor resources please visit sites.tufts.edu/gdae/environmental-and-natural-resource-economics Transformations Torry D. Dickinson, Robert K. Schaeffer, 2015-12-03 Bringing feminist and world systems theories together this analytic anthology examines the rise of intersecting women centered movements that contribute to alternative development and the rise of new societies The authors consider feminist movements and humanistic transformations that create new work and market relations promote democracy and equality redefine gender and sexuality regenerate the environment and construct nonviolent and peaceful relations At the end of each chapter articles by feminist theorists and practitioners on these topics are included to illustrate the analysis Using a global historical framework the book shows how diverse multicultural and international feminist ideas can be brought together to provide a comprehensive and differentiated understanding of change

Climate Change and Sustainable Development Mohamed Abdel Rahim M. Salih, 2009-01-01 this book gives a good overview of major challenges facing policy makers researchers and ultimately humankind in dealing with climate change The reader also gets a good understanding of how fragmented and transversal the issues of climate change and sustainable development are Quarterly Journal of International Agriculture a unified useful and stimulating book which should act as a springboard for further work into what is a very topical and extremely important issue for everyone in the world not just academics and policymakers This book serves its intended audience but also deserves to be more widely read World Entrepreneurship Society Too often writings on climate change are placed into two categories climate change deniers and climate change supporters What this timely and insightful collection of Mohamed Salih s does is to problematise the issue taking the debate to a level where it desperately needs to be asking the thorny questions of how do the politics and international relations of climate impact upon the most vulnerable the least affluent the dwellers of the majority world In short Salih challenges us How did the climate change about climate change The responses of his contributors are salient to the point sometimes disturbing but always thought provoking Timothy Doyle Keele University UK Editing the proceedings of a symposium into a cogent and coherent book is no easy task This book a tribute to Professor Opschoor is no exception with disperse contributions of some highly acclaimed authors covering a wide spectrum of themes It is a credit to Professor Salih s insight to string them together in the introductory chapter and entice the reader to read on This book has food for thought on many fronts reaching far beyond climate change as did the oeuvre of Hans Opschoor an instructive read Paul Vlek Center for Development Research ZEF Bonn Germany It is difficult if not impossible to formulate and implement sustainable policy without first understanding the dynamic relationships between nature society economics and technology and research plays a pivotal role in this regard Climate Change and Sustainable Development is an important book which deals with these issues in the context of climate change and the changing global context of development It alerts us to the relationship climate change has with two urgent tasks poverty reduction and sustainable development which require efforts that span countries regions and communities In this interdependent world argue the authors a shared vision and common effort are vital to sustaining our life support system It is a must read Jacqueline Cramer The Netherlands Minister for Spatial Planning and the Environment This unique book provides cutting edge knowledge and analyses of the consequences that climate change will have for sustainable development and poverty reduction within the context of global development Exploring alternative resource management approaches including federal resource management governance ecosystem services digital dematerialization ecological cities biofuels versus food and children and climate change this innovative volume provides fresh insights on the human condition with regards to the current debates on climate change The distinguished contributors examine climate change induced processes that present profound challenges to sustainable development and poverty reduction at the local national and global levels This groundbreaking study will be a welcome addition for graduate and post graduate students in development and environmental studies It will also have great appeal to scientists policy makers and researchers in these fields

Social Change in the Age of Globalization Institut international de sociologie. World Congress,2006 This volume provides a compendium of papers presented at the 36th World Congress of the International Institute of Sociology papers which address issues related to the age of globalization and social change including cultural diversities migration and equality social transformation and national identity Social Change Steven Vago,2003 A timely and comprehensive social analysis of one of the most important social concerns of our time this fifth edition of Social Change greatly increases the contemporary multicultural and international components yet retains its pedagogically sound features and proven organizational framework It provides a readable and up to date analysis of the major theoretical perspectives sources processes patterns and consequences of social change The author also incorporates empirical works from anthropology social psychology economics political science and history Socio-cultural Diversities and Globalization Shiv Rattan Mehta,2010 Contributed papers presented at the seminar organized by Indian Institute of Advanced Study partly with reference to India Globalization, Art, & Education Elizabeth Manley Delacruz,2009 What can art educators contribute to the world in an age of globalization Timely research critical analyses narrative essays and case studies from 49 scholars form all over the world examine how globalization interfaces not only with are and education but also with local and regional cultural practices and identities economies political strategies and ecological environmental concerns of people around the world Administrative Culture in a Global Context Joseph G. Jabbra,O. P. Dwivedi,2005 This book provides an overview of the administrative challenges facing various nations While bureaucratic structures among nations appear similar the methods of conducting government business vary from nation to nation It is clear however that the process of globalization has narrowed the differences in the operations of administrative systems Practices are being changed to comply with international requirements due to liberalization the WTO and the pressure brought to bear upon governments by multinational corporations Is it possible that the twenty first century could create one universally understood administrative culture The editors of this volume believe diversity in thought and action is more desirable than the self proclaimed universal paradigms originating in the West and that diversity will ultimately lead to a just and sustainable world The major challenge before the non Western nations will be how to maximize the positive effects of globalization and yet keep their identity and their indigenous systems alive but with proper accountability and transparency in governance IBSS: Sociology: 2009 Vol. 59 Compiled by the British Library of Polit,2010-11 First published in 2010 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The New African Diaspora Isidore Okpewho,Nkiru Nzegwu,2009 The New York Times reports that since 1990 more Africans have voluntarily relocated to the United States and Canada than had been forcibly brought here before the slave trade ended in 1807 The key reason for these migrations has been the collapse of social political economic and educational structures in their home countries which has driven Africans to seek security and self realization in the West This lively and timely collection of essays takes a look at the new immigrant experience It traces the immigrants progress from expatriation to arrival and covers the successes as well as problems they have encountered as they establish their lives in a new country The contributors most immigrants themselves use their firsthand experiences to add clarity honesty and sensitivity to their discussions of the new African diaspora Human Security in Southeast Asia Zarina Othman,2002

Building the Critical Anthropology of Climate Change Hans A. Baer, Merrill Singer, 2024-08-14 This book applies a critical perspective to anthropogenic climate change and the global socio ecological crisis The book focuses on the critical anthropology of climate change by opening up a dialogue with the two main contending perspectives in the field namely the cultural ecological and the cultural interpretive perspectives Guided by these the authors take a firm stance on the types of changes that are needed to sustain life on Earth as we know it Within this framework they explore issues of climate and social equity the nature of the current era in Earth s geohistory the perspectives of the elite polluters driving climate change and the regrettable contributions of anthropologists and other scholars to climate change Engaging with perspectives from sociology political science and the geography of climate change the book explores various approaches to thinking about and responding to the existential threat of an ever warming climate In doing so it lays the foundation for a brave new sustainable world that is socially just highly democratic and climatically safe for humans and other species This book will be of interest to researchers and students studying environmental anthropology climate change human geography sociology and political science
