Understanding Rwandas Agribusiness And Manufacturing Sectors:

Understanding Rwanda's Agribusiness and Manufacturing Sectors Sachin Gathani, Dimitri Stoelinga, 2013-08 This book comes after the 50th anniversary of Rwanda's Independence and provides the first ever comprehensive overview of firms in the country's agribusiness and manufacturing sectors Understanding Rwanda's Agribusiness and Manufacturing Sectors puts these sectors into context historically explaining how decisions and initiatives going back to the 1930s have contributed to determining the shape and composition of agribusiness and manufacturing in Rwanda today These sectors more than any others have followed the ups and downs of Rwanda's history The book also provides an in depth analysis of agribusiness and manufacturing in Rwanda today with a focus on understanding the origins evolution and capabilities of firms and how these capabilities came to be This overview or Enterprise Mapping gives the reader a detailed understanding of the ownership structures products systems resources and exports of leading firms in Rwanda's agribusiness and manufacturing sectors today Finally this book individually profiles forty three of Rwanda's largest manufacturing and agribusiness firms This book is targeted at policymakers academics business people and prospective investors interested in gaining a better understanding of Rwanda's industrial sector

State Fragility Nematullah Bizhan, 2022-09-27 Presenting case studies and comparisons across seven countries this book addresses key questions as to the nature of state fragility policies used to mitigate it assessment of outcomes and prospects It offers a novel empirical contribution in examining a range of distinct but interdependent dimensions of state fragility not only focusing on questions of state legitimacy capacity and authority but also involving the economy and resilience to political and economic shocks as well as at vital questions of context and diversity Examining Afghanistan Lebanon Burundi Pakistan Sierra Leone Papua New Guinea and Rwanda within the context of their different local circumstances and within broader questions of global security the book identifies unique factors that have played a part in their specific context and explores key drivers and dominant features This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of state fragility and more broadly to students of politics public policy development studies state society relations political economy state building peace and conflict studies international studies security studies regional studies as well as NGOs and international organizations

Deals and Development Lant Pritchett, Kunal Sen, Eric Werker, 2017-11-10 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations When are developing countries able to initiate periods of rapid growth and why have so few of these countries been able to sustain growth over decades Deals and Development The Political Dynamics of Growth Episodes seeks to answer these questions and many more through a novel conceptual framework built from a political economy of business government relations Economic growth for most developing countries is not a linear process Growth instead proceeds in booms and busts yet most frameworks for thinking about economic growth are built on the faulty assumption that a country's economic performance is largely stable Deals and Development explains how growth episodes emerge and when growth once ignited is maintained for a sustained period It applies its new framework to examine the growth of countries across a range of institutional and political contexts in Africa and Asia using the examples of Bangladesh Cambodia India Malaysia Thailand Ghana Liberia Malawi Rwanda and Uganda Through these country analyses it demonstrates the explanatory power of its framework and the importance of feedback cycles in which economic trends interact with political behaviour to either sustain or terminate a growth episode Offering a lens through which to analyse complex scenarios and unwieldy amounts of information this book provides actionable levers of intervention to bring around reform and improve a country's chance at achieving transformative economic growth

Language as Statecraft Kate Spowage, 2024-07-18 This book examines the rise of English in Rwanda offering critical insights into the links between language colonialism and capitalism with implications for our understanding of global English Spowage takes an interdisciplinary approach drawing on political theory cultural materialism and critical sociolinguistics She positions language policy as an instrument for social reproduction and exploitation but also a site of struggle and contest Unravelling the complex history of language politics and policy in Rwanda Spowage elaborates a theory of language as statecraft This approach draws attention to the endurance of a colonial capitalist link between language and social class while illuminating the specific power of English in legitimising neoliberal political power and class hierarchies On this basis Spowage argues for a theoretical reimagining of the spread of English through the global English n buleuse a model which aims to capture the complex mechanisms that reinforce the dominance of English and to identify points where those mechanisms are fragile This innovative volume will be of interest to scholars in sociolinguistics global Englishes language and politics and African studies

Development and the Power Theory of Economics Patrice Kandolo Kabeya, 2025-11-22 This book examines how power dynamics shape government policy institutions and economic strategies and define both development and economic growth With a particular focus on Africa it explores how power structures influence development outcomes and create a number of development challenges Through the analysis of real world cases from both emerging and developing economies an understanding of how power dynamics influence different countries and parts of the world in different ways is presented The ways in which global power dynamics are shifting are also discussed to highlight future challenges the developing world will face This book provides a practical framework of how to make economic policy and development outcomes resilient to power dynamics and outside influence It will be relevant to students researchers and policymakers working within development economics and economic policy

Industries Without Smokestacks Richard S. Newfarmer, Finn Tarp, John Page, 2018 Although manufacturing has played an important role in the growth of developing countries Africa has lagged in this industry This book argues that activities sharing the characteristics of manufacturing including tourism and ICT are beginning to play an important role in Africa offering new opportunities for growth in coming decades
