Sex, Knowledge, and Receptions of the Past Kate Fisher, Rebecca Langlands, 2015-09-03 Sex how should we do it when should we do it and with whom How should we talk about and represent sex what social institutions should regulate it and what are other people doing Throughout history human beings have searched for answers to such questions by turning to the past whether through archaeological studies of prehistoric sexual behaviour by reading Casanova s memoirs or as modern visitors on the British Museum LGBT trail In this ground breaking collection leading scholars show that claims about the past have been crucial in articulating sexual morals driving political legal and social change shaping individual identities and constructing and grounding knowledge about sex With its interdisciplinary perspective and its focus on the construction of knowledge the volume explores key methodological problems in the history of sexuality and is also an inspiration and a provocation to scholars working in related fields historians classicists Egyptologists and scholars of the Renaissance and of LGBT and gender studies inviting them to join a much needed interdisciplinary conversation

A Book About Books, Volume I of III E. H. Bernstein, 2018-11-28 This book is Volume I of a three volume book plus accompanying website www.bookaboutbooks.com which adds to subjects already in the book or presents some books and subjects not contained in the books The other volumes are available from the same booksellers as this volume Note this 2024 publication date is a corrected version of the original version of this volume published in 2018 A Book about Books discusses what nonfiction books and subjects the author believes are important to know about This book tries to point to problems in how we live and to see if books have any answers Even though the books are complete the author will update the website periodically in the future E H Bernstein is a former librarian turned author The subtitle of the book describes the author s objective A handbook in three volumes to a choice of essential books writers and subjects in order to understand the world we live in about big questions and possible answers about books and writers that may improve people s lives about neglected writers and other books and subjects A Book about Books attempts to share what the author has learned from nearly 50 years of nonfiction reading and to provide the reader with samples of the most important authors and subjects from that reading While the book is based on research it is intended to be a handbook or guide by trying to make that research understandable to the general reader and to students and for teachers by pointing to what the author believes is missing from today s education A curriculum proposal for college teachers is on the website Note about how the volumes are related each chapter is on a separate subject So the chapters can be read individually but the full message requires reading all the volumes Volume I is important but preliminary to the more important Volumes II and III Note also that the book is not just about books since other sources are also mentioned The author believes we should listen to many voices so the book draws on many types of writers from different times and countries The author says A contemporary writer once said that one of the purposes of writing is that books should be useful I hope that my book will be of use      Visions and Revelations John Taylor Dean,1911
