The Socio-Political Practice of Human Rights Kiran Kaur Grewal,2016-06-23 This book examines discourses of rights and practices of resistance in post conflict societies exploring the interaction between the international human rights framework and different actors seeking political and social change Presenting detailed new case studies from Sierra Leone Sri Lanka and Kosovo it reveals the necessity of social scientific interventions in the field of human rights The author shows how a shift away from the realm of normative political or legal theory towards a more sociological analysis promises a better understanding of both the limits of current human rights approaches and possible sites of potential Considering the diverse ways in which human rights are enacted and mobilised The Socio Political Practice of Human Rights engages with major sites of tension and debate examining the question of whether human rights are universal or culturally relative their relationship to forms of economic and political domination the role of law as a mechanism for social change and the ways in which the language of human rights facilitates or closes sites of radical resistance By situating these debates in specific contexts this book concludes by proposing new ways of theorizing human rights Empirically grounded and offering an alternate framework for understanding the fluid and ambiguous operation of power within the theory and practice of human rights this volume will appeal to scholars of sociology law and politics with interests in gender resistance international law human rights and socio legal discourse The Oxford Handbook of the Responsibility to Protect Alex Bellamy,Tim Dunne,2016-06-30 The Responsibility to Protect R2P is intended to provide an effective framework for responding to crimes of genocide ethnic cleansing war crimes and crimes against humanity It is a response to the many conscious shocking cases where atrocities on the worst scale have occurred even during the post 1945 period when the United Nations was built to save us all from the scourge of genocide The R2P concept accords to sovereign states and international institutions a responsibility to assist peoples who are at risk or experiencing the worst atrocities R2P maintains that collective action should be taken by members of the United Nations to prevent or halt such gross violations of basic human rights This Handbook containing contributions from leading theorists and practitioners including former foreign ministers and special advisors examines the progress that has been made in the last 10 years it also looks forward to likely developments in the next decade The Democratization Project Ashok Swain,Ramses Amer,Joakim Öjendal,2011 This volume drawing on the work of a variety of scholars contributes to identifying and understanding the challenges and opportunities presented by the current wave of democratization to the peace and development of the world both at the domestic level in selected countries trends in regions of the world and in the global system of the post Cold War Era Index to Proceedings of the Security Council United Nations,2005-07-15

Basic Documents on International Investment Protection Martins Paparinskis,2012-07-09 The increase in the number and complexity of investor State treaty arbitrations in the last decade has attracted considerable attention from practitioners and academics of international investment protection law Rules aimed at regulating the protection of foreign investment have been expressed in a decentralised manner making a clear and comprehensive overview of the topic important This volume focuses on the relevant documents and aims to provide an exhaustive treatment of relevant procedural and substantive issues It includes documents explaining the historical development of investment law substantive investment rules multilateral and bilateral treaties and model documents and general rules on the law of treaties and responsibility and procedural investment rules relating to the arbitral process in different fora immunity recognition and enforcement The book is aimed at teachers students and practitioners in the area It can be used both as a practitioners handbook and as a classroom companion for courses on international dispute settlement and investment protection law This title is included in Bloomsbury Professional s International Arbitration online service Index to International Statistics ,2005 Ownership of Proceeds of Corruption in International Law Kolawole Olaniyan,2023-11-06 Recovery of proceeds deriving from corruption is now increasingly recognized as a principle of contemporary international law However people s sovereign and ownership rights over their wealth and natural resources have remained more theoretical than real especially in the global fight against corruption As a result the populations of victim states often cannot hold their governments accountable for misusing proceeds of corruption and do not benefit from the recovery repatriation management and use of returned proceeds In the first comprehensive study on the issue Kolawole Olaniyan challenges the conventional notion that sovereign and ownership rights over wealth and natural resources and by extension the proceeds of corruption should be exclusively exercised by states Olaniyan s Ownership of Proceeds of Corruption in International Law examines the relationship between the right to wealth and natural resources proceeds of corruption and economic activities Focusing on victims of corruption the book argues that victim states populations ought to be empowered to pursue grand corruption and asset recovery actions against their governments It proposes theoretical and legal remedies for recovering proceeds of corruption encouraging the development of domestic laws One Planet, Many People Ashbindu Singh, United Nations Environment Programme, 2005 Launched to mark World Environment Day 2005 and produced by the UNEP in collaboration with organisations such as the US Geological Survey and NASA this publication uses text illustrations satellite images and ground photographs to depict and analyse humanity's impact on our environment Issues discussed include population growth and urbanisation natural resources consumption land use intensification biodiversity and habitat loss environmental impacts and trends including global warming air and water pollution and the impacts on oceans and coastal zones forests and tundra changes that result from geo hazards such as earthquakes and tsunamis climate hazards such as floods and droughts and industrial hazards such as nuclear accidents and oil spills and suggestions for mitigating the effects of global environmental change Book Review Index, 2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation The Middle East, Abstracts and Index, 2006 Index to Proceedings of the General Assembly, 2006 Includes special sessions Index to Jewish Periodicals, 2005 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests

Disseminating and Developing International and National Space Law United Nations. Office for Outer Space Affairs, 2005 Proceedings of the third in a series of workshops on space law organised by the UN Office for Outer Space Affairs together with the Associação Brasileira de Direito Aeronáutico e Espacial SBDA and the Government of Brazil and held in Rio de Janeiro Brazil from 22 to 25 November 2004 International Business John D. Daniels, Lee H. Radebaugh, Daniel P. Sullivan, 2009 For undergraduate and graduate level international business courses International Business 12 e is an authoritative and engaging voice on conducting business in international markets Hospice and Palliative Care in Africa Michael Wright, David Clark, 2006-08-24 Conflict poverty endemic diseases and lack of clean water pose serious challenges for the population in Africa This book focuses on palliative care and hospice development examining the development of palliative care services in 26 African countries where initiatives have been identified Darfur David Hoile, 2008 In 2003 and 2004 Darfur became the epicentre of an international crisis The three Darfur states the size of Texas lie in the largest African state Sudan Darfur itself has a complex tribal ethnic and linguistic composition and the complexities of the conflict have been magnified by international and regional events But this is no excuse for the disinformation and confusion about Darfur This book analyses the causes and course of the war as well as the obstacles to peace In so doing it challenges accusations of genocide and racism made against the government of Sudan It is also critical of much of the simplistic and often inaccurate media coverage of the war Most important of all the book examines the road map to peace in Darfur
