door de wereldleiders werd omarmd hebben individuele staten nog steeds de primaire verantwoordelijkheid voor de bescherming van hun inwoners Maar als ze die verantwoordelijkheid niet kunnen of willen nemen komt de verantwoordelijkheid bij de internationale gemeenschap te liggen R2P heeft de ambitie om herhaling van Rwanda Srebrenica en Kosovo te voorkomen maar er bestaat nog grote onduidelijkheid over inhoud en potentieel van dit beginsel Deze bundel verkent R2P als moreel politiek en juridisch beginsel en onderzoekt hoe de Verenigde Naties de Europese Unie individuele staten en NGO's R2P kunnen gebruiken om ernstige mensenrechtenschendingen te voorkomen Geo Year Book 2007 United Nations Environment Programme, Justice and Governance in East Timor Rod Nixon, 2013-06-17 Focusing on the case study of Timor Leste this book presents the New Subsistence State as a conceptual tool for understanding governance challenges in countries characterised by subsistence economic and social relations It examines the ways in which Timor Leste conforms to the typology of the New Subsistence State taking into consideration geographic historical and socio political aspects The book defines a New Subsistence State as an overwhelmingly subsistence economy corresponding to little or no historical experience of the generation and administration of large surpluses with minimal labour specialisation and the predominance especially in rural areas of traditional authority relations It looks at how these features restrict the capacity of the new state to operate effectively in accordance with the modern state model The book presents a case for prioritising sustainable approaches to public administration in New Subsistence State contexts It goes on to examine the historical role of village justice systems and demonstrates how a community justice and mediation program building on existing capacities could prove an economical means of promoting human rights values and reducing the burden on the national courts The book presents an interesting contribution to studies on Southeast Asian Politics and Governance

Index to International Statistics ,2007 Political Settlements in Divided Societies Christalla Yakinthou,2009-07-23 The problem of how political settlements are to be adopted in divided or post conflict societies is one which is receiving growing attention as the international community increasingly views protracted intra state conflicts as carrying trans national consequences It is not only finding the most appropriate kind of political settlement that is so problematic but also how to reach the point where those proposals are adopted Cyprus provides an illuminating case study of these problems The object of many years of scrutiny and multiple sustained efforts at resolution of its division means that Cyprus can reveal a good deal about what impedes and what assists progress towards a settlement The experiences of Cyprus therefore can offer lessons to both practitioners working on political solutions for divided and post conflict societies and to academics and others seeking to understand how conflicts become intractable where the primary impediments lie to successful constitutional architecture and how those impediments can be overcome The book offers answers for why political leaders in Cyprus have been so unwilling to adopt a power sharing solution In so doing it offers new material for the wider debate regarding constitutional design and adoption of peace plans in divided societies on the politics of institutionalising peace
