

A person stands on a dark, silhouetted hill under a vast night sky. The Milky Way galaxy is visible, stretching across the upper half of the frame with a vibrant pink and purple hue. The lower half of the sky is a deep yellow-orange, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The person's silhouette is centered in the lower half of the image, looking up at the stars.

Yesterday is history. Tomorrow is a mystery. Today is a gift.
That's why we call it the present.

In contrast to much current scholarship on women and material culture which focuses primarily on women as consumers, this essay collection provides case studies of women who produced material objects. The essays collected here make an original contribution to material culture studies by focusing on women's social practices in relation to material culture. The essays as a whole are concerned with women's complex and active engagement with material culture in the various stages of the material object's life cycle from design and production to consumption, use, and redeployment. Also theorized and described are the ways in which women engaged in meaning-making, identity formation, and commemoration through their manipulation of materials and techniques ranging from taxidermy and shell work to collecting autographs and making scrapbooks. This volume takes as its object of investigation the overlooked and often despised categories of women's decorative and craft activities as sites of important cultural and social work. This volume is interdisciplinary with essays by art historians, social historians, literary critics, rhetoricians, and museum curators. The scope of the volume is international with essays on eighteenth-century German silhouettes, Australian aboriginal ritual practices, Brittany mourning rites, and Soviet-era recipes that provide a comparative framework for the majority of essays which focus on British and North American women who lived and worked in the long nineteenth century. This volume will appeal to a broad range of students and scholars in women's history, art history, cultural studies, museum studies, anthropology, cultural and social history, literature, rhetoric, and material culture studies. The Personal History of a Bukharan Intellectual Sharīf Jān Makhdūm Ṣadr Ziyā', 2004. The Diary offers priceless documentation and guidance for an understanding of the rigidity that characterized the Bukharan Amirate throughout its tumultuous final decades of existence ca. 1880-1920.

Clicko Neil Parsons, 2010-12-15. During the 1920s and 30s, Franz Taibosh, whose stage name was Clicko, performed in front of millions as one of the stars of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum Bailey Circus. Prior to his fame in the United States, Taibosh toured the world as the Wild Dancing Bushman, showing off his frenzied dance moves in freak shows, sideshows, and music halls from Australia to Cuba. When he died in 1940, the New York Times called him the only African bushman ever exhibited in this country. In Clicko, Neil Parsons unearths the untold story of Taibosh's journey from boyhood on a small farm in South Africa to top billing as one of the travelling World's Fair Freaks Through Taibosh's tale Parsons brings to life the bizarre golden age of entertainment as well as the role that the dubious new science of race played in it Beginning with Taibosh's early life Clicko untangles the real story of his ancestry from the web of myths spun around him on his rise to international stardom Parsons then chronicles the unhappy middle period of Taibosh's career when he suffered under the heel of a vicious manager Left to freeze and nearly starve in an unheated apartment Taibosh was rescued by Frank Cook Barnum Bailey's lawyer The Cooks adopted Taibosh as a member of their family of circus managers and performers and his happy if far from average years with them make up the final chapter of this remarkable story Equal parts entertaining and disturbing Clicko vividly evokes a forgotten era when vaudeville drew massive crowds and circus freaks were featured in Billboard and Variety Parsons introduces us to colorful characters such as George Auger the giant and the original Zip the Pinhead but above all he gives us an unforgettable portrait of Franz Taibosh rescued at last from the racists and the romantics and revealed here as an ordinary man with an extraordinary life
