

The background of the cover is a close-up photograph of several ginkgo leaves. The leaves are a vibrant yellow-green color, showing the characteristic fan shape and the fine, parallel veins that radiate from the base. They are set against a dark, almost black background, which makes the leaves stand out. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture and edges of the leaves.

A World Perspective](#) Daniel Eskinazi, 2001-06-04 This book provides an overview of factors that have influenced and will continue to influence the development of alternative traditional medicine in the world. Traditionally the lack of relevant good quality scientific research is often the reason why a large number of healthcare practices are labeled alternative. However nonscientific factors may be at least as important as the scientific ones. Among such factors are cultural, political, administrative and economic considerations. The articles in this volume provide an international perspective on how such pervasive factors impact on the development, research and practice of alternative medicine in the world.

African Traditional Medicine: Autonomy and Informed Consent Peter Ikechukwu

Osuji, 2014-07-18 This book focuses on informed consent in African Traditional Medicine (ATM). ATM forms a large portion of the healthcare systems in Africa. WHO statistics show that as much as 80% of the population in Africa uses traditional medicine for primary health care. With such a large constituency it follows that ATM and its practices should receive more attention in bioethics. By comparing the ethics of care approach with the ATM approach to Relational Autonomy In Consent (RAIC), the authors argue that the ATM focus on consent based on consensus constitutes a legitimate informed consent. This book is distinctive insofar as it employs the ethics of care as a hermeneutic to interpret ATM. The analysis examines the ethics of care movement in Western bioethics to explore its relational approach to informed consent. Additionally, this is the first known study that discusses healthcare ethics committees in ATM.

Traditional Medicines Around the World Matthew N. O. Sadiku, Janet O. Sadiku, Sarhan M. Musa, 2022-05-18 Our health is our most important asset. Health and the provision of healthcare is fundamental to the welfare of any nation. The desire to have and sustain good health cuts across national, cultural, geographic and political boundaries. Every region of the world has had one form of traditional medicine at some stage in its history. Traditional medicines have been a part of human history all over the world, with knowledge being transferred from generation to generation. It refers to diverse health practices, knowledge and skills based on ancient indigenous experience that are used to maintain health as well as to cure, diagnose or prevent illness. This book focuses on ten most popular traditional medicines around the world. It is a valuable source of guidance and direction for organizations and individuals interested in traditional medicine. It provides an introduction to traditional medicine so that beginners can understand it, its increasing importance and its developments in contemporary time. It is a must-read book for anyone who cares about traditional medicine.

Global Perspectives on Palliative Care Karen Bullock, 2025-06-04 Global Perspectives on Palliative Care is a compilation of twelve chapters consisting of research reports, integrative literature reviews, case studies and expert perspectives that explore palliative care through the lens of a global scope of practice across healthcare disciplines including social work, nursing, psychology and medicine. All chapters are written by global researchers and edited by a leading expert in the field of serious illness care. Each chapter is an original work that is transferable across various health settings, patient populations and levels of professional specialties, intended to promote culturally inclusive and equitable care across illness/disease conditions aimed at relieving serious health-related suffering, whether physical, psychological, social or spiritual.

Bioethics Education in a Global Perspective Henk A.M.J. ten Have, 2014-09-25 This book critically analyses experiences with bioethics education in various countries across the world and identifies common challenges and interests It presents ethics teaching experiences in nine different countries and the basic question of the goals of bioethics education It addresses bioethics education in resource poor countries as the conditions and facilities are widely different and set limits and provide challenges to bioethics educators Further the question of how bioethics education can be improved is explored by the contributors Despite the volume of journal publications agreement on bioethics education is rather limited There are only few examples of core curricula demonstrating consensus on the contents goals methods and assessment of teaching programs We need ask How can agreement on the best modalities of bioethics education be promoted

Global Perspectives on Science and Christianity Mike Brownutt, Keith R. Fox, 2024-09-30 The discussion of how science and Christianity relate to each other is a truly global one Christianity around the world encompasses diverse sets of perspectives ideas and challenges Similarly the practice and perception of science can vary significantly from one region to another When brought together in their global contexts we find a richness in the engagement between science and Christianity that leads to diverse questions and distinctive answers Global Perspectives on Science and Christianity brings together scholars from six continents hailing from disciplines of natural and social sciences theology history and philosophy to provide a unique collection of perspectives on how science and Christianity relate around the world Tackling some issues that are seldom addressed as well as providing fresh perspectives on perennial topics this is an important relevant and genuinely global contribution to the discussion

Global Perspectives on ADHD Meredith R. Bergey, Angela M. Filipe, Peter Conrad, Ilina Singh, 2018 Examining ADHD and its social and medical treatments around the world Attention deficit hyperactivity disorder ADHD has been a common psychiatric diagnosis in both children and adults since the 1980s and 1990s in the United States But the diagnosis was much less common even unknown in other parts of the world By the end of the twentieth century this was no longer the case and ADHD diagnosis and treatment became an increasingly widespread global phenomenon As the diagnosis was adopted around the world the definition and treatment of ADHD often changed in the context of different psychiatric professions medical systems and cultures Global Perspectives on ADHD is the first book to examine how this expanding public health concern is diagnosed and treated in 16 different countries In some countries readers learn over 10% of school aged children and adolescents are diagnosed with ADHD in others that figure is less than 1% Some countries focus on medicating children with ADHD others emphasize parent intervention or child therapy Showing how a medical diagnosis varies across contexts and time periods this book explains how those distinctions shape medical interventions and guidelines filling a much needed gap by examining ADHD on an international scale Contributors Madeleine Akrich Mari J Armstrong Hough Meredith R Bergey Eugenia Bianchi Christian Br er Peter Conrad Claire Edwards Silvia A Faraone Angela M Filipe Alessandra Frigerio Val ria Portugal Gon alves Linda J Graham Hiroyuki Ito Fabian Karsch Victor Kraak Claudia Malacrida Lorenzo Montali Yasuo Murayama Sebasti n Rojas Navarro rla O Donovan Francisco Ortega M nica Pe a Ochoa Brenton J Prosser Vololona Rabeharisoa Patricio Rojas Tiffani Semach Ilina Singh Rachel Spronk Junko Teruyama Masatsugu Tsujii Fan Tzu Tseng Manuel Vall e Rafaela Zorzanelli
