They Dont Make Them Like That Any More:

Field Man Julian D. Hayden, 2016-10-01 Field Man is the captivating memoir of renowned southwestern archaeologist Julian Dodge Hayden a man who held no professional degree or faculty position but who camped and argued with a who s of the discipline including Emil Haury Malcolm Rogers Paul Ezell and Norman Tindale This is the personal story of a blue collar scholar who bucked the conventional thinking on the antiquity of man in the New World who brought a formidable pragmatism and hand sense to the identification of stone tools and who is remembered as the leading authority on the prehistory of the Sierra Pinacate in northwestern Mexico But Field Man is also an evocative recollection of a bygone time and place a time when archaeological trips to the Southwest were expeditions when a man might run a Civilian Conservation Corps crew by day and study the artifacts of ancient peoples by night when one could honeymoon by a still full Gila River and when a Model T pickup needed extra transmissions to tackle the back roads of Arizona To say that Julian Hayden led an eventful life would be an understatement He accompanied his father a Harvard trained archaeologist on influential excavations became a crew chief in his own right taught himself silversmithing married a city girl helped build the Yuma Air Field worked as a civilian safety officer and was a friend and mentor to countless students He also crossed paths with leading figures in other fields Barry Goldwater and even Frank Lloyd Wright turn up in this wide ranging narrative of a desert rat who was at once a throwback and as he only half jokingly suggests ahead of his time Field Man is the product of years of interviews with Hayden conducted by his colleagues and friends Bill Broyles and Diane Boyer It is introduced by noted southwestern anthropologist J Jefferson Reid and contains an epilogue by Steve Hayden one of Julian s sons Georgetown University Round Table on Languages and Linguistics (GURT) 2000: Linguistics, Language, and the Professions James E. Alatis, Heidi E. Hamilton, Ai-Hui Tan, 2002-05-22 The 2000 Georgetown University Round Table on Languages and Linguistics brought together distinguished linguists from around the globe to discuss applications of linguistics to important and intriguing real world issues within the professions With topics as wide ranging as coherence in operating room communication involvement strategies in news analysis roundtable discussions and jury understanding of witness deception this resulting volume of selected papers provides both experts and novices with myriad insights into the excitement of cross disciplinary language analysis Readers will find in the words of one contributor that in such cross pollination of ideas there s tremendous hope there s tremendous power and the power to transform A Week on Mount Olympus Peter Murphy, 2023-11-30 Charlie Walden is the Resident Judge of the Bermondsey Crown Court where he had hoped for a quiet life but has found it to be anything but With the job of balancing the needs of prosecutors judges Grey Smoothies the humourless grey suited civil servants and the overall needs of a Crown Court he soon finds himself struggling to keep the peace and his own delightful humour Charlie is confronted by a number of topical issues he hadn t anticipated invited to join the Court of Appeal he finds himself faced with a case involving the confusion of one of his team In another a teacher must be penalised for defacing a statue a huge and mysterious cat comes to the rescue in yet another case and so the harassed Judge must pick his way through this minefield of exasperating cases in order to keep everyone from the cannabis lobby to the anti slave traders happy with his judgements No hope of a quiet life for Charlie then but as ever he deals with the issues of the day with satirical good humour insight and wit Another entertaining and insightful look at the British court system and the long awaited sole Walden novel

A Long Way from Home Peter Carey, 2018-02-27 Over the course of his stellar writing life Peter Carey has explored his homeland of Australia in such highly acclaimed novels as Oscar and Lucinda True History of the Kelly Gang and Amnesia Writing at the peak of his powers Carey takes us on an unforgettable journey that maps his homeland's secrets in this extraordinary new novel Wildly inventive funny and profoundly moving A Long Way from Home opens in 1953 with the arrival of the tiny handsome Titch Bobs his beautiful doll of a wife Irene and their two children in the small town of Bacchus Marsh Titch is the best car salesman in southeastern Australia Irene loves her husband and loves to drive fast Together they enter the Redex Trial a brutal endurance race around the ancient continent over roads no car is designed to survive With them is their neighbour and navigator Willie Bachhuber a quiz show champion and failed school teacher who calls the turns and creek crossings on a map that will lead them without warning away from the white Australia they all know so well Just like the novel Peter Carey's new masterpiece begins in one way and takes you somewhere you never thought you'd be Often funny the book is also and always a page turner surprising you with history these characters never even knew themselves Its profound reckoning with Australia's brutal treatment of the continent's aboriginal people will also resonate strongly with Canadian readers

Fiddle Game Richard A. Thompson, 2009-12-08 Herman Jackson chose St Paul as his place of permanent exile from Detroit after his former life as a bookie got too hot Now he leads a respectable low profile life as a bail bondsman selling second chances to losers and looking over his shoulder When a young woman named Amy Cox leaves Jackson a priceless antique violin as security for her brother's bail bond it's really the beginning of an elaborate con game But the game has barely begun when she is murdered in front of Jackson's office And for reasons that make no sense the police are calling him the prime suspect unless he gives them the violin as evidence With his criminal past Jackson can't afford to be a prime suspect for jaywalking But he is also not prepared to give in to extortion Soon he is on the run trying to solve Amy Cox's murder pursued by one real and one crooked cop a band of urban Gypsies and an unknown killer who also wants Jackson dead Then the violin reputed to carry a 400 year old curse takes on a life of its own

The Angry Hills Leon Uris, 2026-01-06 From the 1 New York Times bestselling author of Trinity Topaz and Exodus comes a classic World War II thriller of Greek resistance during the German infiltration of Athens based on the diaries of Leon Uris's uncle Just as World War II threatens to break out Mike Morrison arrives in Greece to collect his late wife's inheritance Hoping to quickly finish his business and leave before German troops invade Morrison's plans are derailed when he receives a letter listing the names of Greek patriots pretending to be German collaborators a list Nazi strategists desperately need

With the outcome of the war hinging on Morrison's ability to protect the letter he embarks on an adventure across Greece in an effort to evade Nazi troops and keep the letter from falling into enemy hands

Behind Ghetto Walls Michael Novak, 2017-09-08 This book is about the family lives of some 10 000 children and adults who live in an all Negro public housing project in St Louis The Pruitt Igoe project is only one of the many environments in which urban Negro Americans lived in the 1960s but the character of the family life there shares much with the family life of lower class Negroes as it has been described by other investigators in other cities and at other times in Harlem Chicago New Orleans or Washington D C This book is primarily concerned with private life as it is lived from day to day in a federally built and supported slum The questions which are treated here have to do with the kinds of interpersonal relationships that develop in nuclear families the socialization processes that operate in families as children grow up in a slum environment the informal relationships of children and adolescents and adults with each other and finally the world views the existential framework arising from the life experiences of the Pruitt Igoeans and the ways they make use of this framework to order their experiences and make sense out of them The lives of these persons are examined in terms of life cycles Each child there is born into a constricted world the world of lower class Negro existence and as he grows he is shaped and directed by that existence through the day to day experiences and relationships available to him The crucial transition from child of a family to progenitor of a new family begins in adolescence and for this reason the book pays particular attention to how each new generation of parents expresses the cultural and social structural forces that formed it and continue to constrain its behavior This book in short is about intimate personal life in a particular ghetto setting It does not analyze the larger institutional social structural and ideological forces that provide the social economic and political context in which lower class Negro life is lived These larger macro sociological forces are treated in another volume based on research in the Pruitt Igoe community However this book does draw on the large body of literature on the structural position of Negroes in American society as background for its analysis of Pruitt Igoe private life

Frank O'Hara and the Poetics of Saying 'I' Micah Mattix, 2011-03-03 While recent works of criticism on Frank O'Hara have focused on the technical similarities between his poetry and painting or between his use of language and poststructuralism Frank O'Hara and the Poetics of Saying I argues that what is most significant in O'Hara's work is not such much his borrowing from painters or his proto Derridean use of language but his preoccupation with self exploration and the temporal effects of his work as artifacts Following Pasternak's understanding of artistic inspiration as an act of love for the material world O'Hara explores moments of experience in an effort to both complicate and enrich our experience of the material world On the one hand in poems such as Second Avenue for example O Hara works to muddy language through which experience is in part mediated with the use of parataxis allusions and absurd metaphors and similes On the other in his I do this I do that poems he names the events of his lunch hour in an effort among other things to experience time as a moment of fullness rather than as a moment of loss The book argues furthermore that O Hara's view of the self as both an expression of the creative force at work in the world and as the temporal aggregate of finite experiences places him between so called Romantic and postmodern theories of the lyric While it is often argued that O Hara is a forerunner of a new critically informed materialist poetics this study concludes that O Hara's work is somewhat less radical in its understanding of poetic meaning than is often claimed Moreover while O Hara is preoccupied with his experience in his poems the book argues that he espouses in some respects a rather traditional view of love In addition to being a metaphor for the creative act love for O Hara is the chance coming together of two entities Yet one of the ironies of this is that while love is for O Hara a feeling that is the result of movement or the unexpected coming together of two otherwise separ
