They Shall Have Stars James Blish, 1974 They Shall Have Stars James Benjamin BLISH, 1968 They shall have stars James Blish, 1974 Lost? Anthony Carragher, 2017-10-17 As Liverpool F C reach their 125th anniversary amidst the celebrations doubts persist Are they still elite Can their prolonged title drought be ended Foreign owners say they came to win but the trophy cabinet lies bare Where to next for the reds Lost explores the gloried past the moneyed present and the uncertain future of both Liverpool F C and the English game at large Have they lost their way Liverpool F C s most famous manager Bill Shankly declared that the club exists to win trophies and for many years this maxim proved true as Liverpool became one of the most successful clubs in European football and dominated the scene in England for over two decades Yet recently the victories have dried up and Liverpool have not won the league title in over a quarter of a century Football is also in a state of flux as major TV deals have made the Premier league the wealthiest in the world but the gap between the elite clubs and those striving to catch up widens Has the game lost it s soul Who will rise and who will fall as a new uncharted era in football unfolds Lost captures exclusive interviews with key figures including former Liverpool managers Brendan Rogers and Roy Evans the Shankly family and a whole host of footballing legends past and present The book also includes reflective pieces on an array of Premier League clubs from both a sporting and cultural perspective looking not just at the team in isolation but also at the communities and landscapes that shape them Restless Travellers Antonio José Miralles Pérez, 2011-08-08 The first part of this book deals with Britain s imperial age its militants and its critics The selection of works generates a large field of debate explored using traditional or innovative approaches The 19th century is presented as a time for writers J E Aylmer E Marryat Norris G A Henty Conan Doyle who tell stories of Europeans venturing forth into uncivilised regions of the world where they meet other races But writers of a different outlook are also considered Before the twilight of Empire women were born in England Virginia Woolf and in Ireland Elizabeth Bowen who would use the ductile means of literature to narrate journeys into the female self instead of masculine tales set in distant lands The imperial experience is a subject of concern and reflection with special interest when authored by natives of former colonies such as Michael Ondaatje s Hindu Sirk hero in The English Patient and the Nigerian girls in some of Patience Agbabi s poems The idea of travelling into or out of the culture to which one apparently belongs and the contradictory feelings such an experience causes pervades the writer s mind and the ensuing narrative The second part can be regarded as a North American miscellany mostly devoted to the African culture although also dealing with European heritage In order to recognise Asian and South American influences as well authors such as Fred Wah Ariel Dorfman and Julia Alvarez have been included Black literature is represented by two 19th century writers Mary Ann Shadd and Martin R Delany who remind us of the fight against slavery and segregation and the path to equality Various 20th century writers Toni Morrison Ernest Gaines Harryette Mullen August Wilson address the African Americans quest for identity presented by some as a journey southwards away from the place of birth or an unsatisfactory life and in search of self knowledge in the land of their forefathers These journeys provide materials for different genres and tones enabling readers to examine the aspirations and fears of a community whose contribution to the history and literature of America has stimulated continuous study The two parts of the book are connected by the underlying discussion of essential conflicts that have occupied travellers traversing imperial spaces or experiencing foreign lands as well as travellers who instead of exotic adventures or romantic sojourns want to settle in a new country be accepted by a nation their ancestors did not know or exercise rights they were denied on their native soil

Falling Hour Geoffrey Morrison, 2023-02-07 LONGLISTED FOR THE 2024 DUBLIN LITERARY AWARD SHORTLISTED FOR THE ETHEL WILSON FICTION PRIZE THE GLOBE AND MAIL TOP 30 CANADIAN BOOKS TO READ IN 2023 CBC BOOKS WORKS OF CANADIAN FICTION TO READ IN THE FIRST HALF OF 2023 All talk no action The Mezzanine meets Ducks Newburyport in this meandering and captivating debut It s a hot summer night and Hugh Dalgarno a 31 year old clerical worker thinks his brain is broken Over the course of a day and night in an uncannily depopulated public park he will sift through the pieces and traverse the baroque landscape of his own thoughts the theology of nosiness the beauty of the arbutus tree the pathos of Gene Hackman the theory of quantum immortality Louis Riel s letter to an Irish newspaper the baleful influence of Calvinism on the Scottish working class the sea the CIA and ultimately thinking itself and how it may be represented in writing The result is a strange meandering sojourn as if the history haunted landscapes of W G Sebald s The Rings of Saturn were shrunk down to a mere 85 acres These digressions are anchored by remarks from the letters of Keats by snatches of lyrics from Irish rebel songs and Scottish folk ballads and above all else by the world shattering call of the red winged blackbird From the first page to the last I felt wholly captivated by Falling Hour and Hugh s sensitive and far ranging digressions Morrison has captured the magic of Sebald and made it entirely his own a curiously anti capitalist exploration of what it means to live in a fake country Andr Babyn author of Evie of the Deepthorn Falling Hour is a profound incantatory exhalation a quiet triumph to read it is to engage in a smart humane and at times very funny conversation that you will never want to end Simon Okotie author of After Absalon A stellar debut novel by a stellar new talent Falling Hour is written in a prose style that enlivens every page Mauro Javier C rdenas author of Aphasia A Novel Falling Hour deserves mention as a notable debut along the estuary of modern fiction D W White Atticus Books Phoemix AZ How to Do Things with Silence Haig Khatchadourian, 2015-10-16 This work is a detailed analytical study of different forms of silent doing It explores a range of topics related to silence including the theory of silent doing and its relationship to other forms of action and communication silence and aesthetics the ethics and politics of silence and the religious dimensions of silence The book as an original contribution to analytical philosophy should be of interest to philosophers and students What Does a Martian Look Like? Jack Cohen, Ian Stewart, 2007-08-17 A fascinating and useful handbook to both the science and science fiction of extraterrestrial life Cohen and Stewart are amusing opinionated and expert guides I found it a terrific and informative piece of work nothing else like it Greg Bear I loved it Larry Niven Ever wonder about what aliens could be like The world authority is Jack Cohen a professional biologist who has thought long and hard about the vast realm of possibilities This is an engaging swiftly moving study of alien biology a subject with bounds and constraints these authors plumb with verve and intelligence Gregory Benford A celebration of life off Earth A hearteningly optimistic book giving a much needed antidote to the pessimism of astrobiologists who maintain that we are alone in the universe a stance based on a very narrow view of what could constitute life A triumph of speculative nonfiction Dougal Dixon author of After Man A Zoology of the Future To Green Angel Tower Tad Williams,2005-05-03 The loyal allies of Prince Josua desperately struggle to rally their forces at the Stone of Farewell against the evil minions of the undead Sithi Storm King That Summer's Trance J. R. Salama,2011-12-05 In That Summer's Trance his subject is betrayal both of oneself and of others in a culture of material rewards It is an unforgettable story of one actor outdone by another and it tells us more about role playing and the theater of everyday life than I would have thought possible Bomber County Daniel Swift,2010-08-17 In early June 1943 James Eric Swift a pilot with the 83rd Squadron of the Royal Air Force boarded his Lancaster bomber for a night raid on Münster and disappeared Widespread aerial bombardment was to the Second World War what the trenches were to the First a shocking and new form of warfare wretched and unexpected and carried out at a terrible scale of loss Just as the trenches produced the most remarkable poetry of the First World War so too did the bombing campaigns foster a haunting set of poems during the Second In researching the life of his grandfather Daniel Swift became engrossed with the connections between air war and poetry Ostensibly a narrative of the author's search for his lost grandfather through military and civilian archives and in interviews conducted in the Netherlands Germany and England Bomber County is also an examination of the relationship between the bombing campaigns of World War II and poetry an investigation into the experience of bombing and being bombed and a powerful reckoning with the morals and literature of a vanished moment The Long and the Short of It Jonathan Silvertown,2022-12-22 A whimsical book on aging the author mixes art science and humor to brew a highly readable concoction presenting one aging theory after another Publishers Weekly Everything that lives will die That's the fundamental fact of life But not everyone dies at the same age people vary wildly in their patterns of aging and their life spans and that variation is nothing compared to what's found in other animal and plant species With The Long and the Short of It biologist and writer Jonathan Silvertown offers readers a witty and fascinating tour through the scientific study of longevity and aging Dividing his daunting subject by theme death life span aging heredity evolution and more Silvertown draws on the latest scientific developments to paint a picture of what we know about how life span senescence and death vary within and across species At every turn he addresses fascinating questions that have far reaching implications What causes aging and what determines the length of an individual life What changes have caused the average human life span to increase so dramatically fifteen minutes per hour in the past two centuries If evolution favors those who leave the most descendants why haven't we evolved to be immortal The answers to these puzzles and more emerge from close examination of the whole natural history of life span and aging from fruit flies nematodes redwoods and much more The Long and the Short of It pairs a perpetually fascinating topic with a wholly engaging writer and the result is a supremely accessible book that will reward curious readers of all ages Captivating and enlightening The New York Times Well Blog The saga of prayer Robert K. Achievement Literary Award from the South African Ministry of Arts and Culture A year before receiving this acknowledgement of his contribution to local literature he had already embarked on the major project currently under discussion Several visits to Australia had ignited his interest in the Out of Africa hypothesis of modern humanity's peopling of the world Walking to Australia has been the result of extensive travel in the countries occupying the northern shores of the Indian Ocean and of seven years of intermittent researching and writing The book describes a 21st century journey following the direction taken by anatomically modern humans who left the African nursery around 80000 years ago and reached Australia 20000 years later Along the way they laid the genetic foundations for humanity's oldest civilizations and ultimately inhabited every corner of the globe The result of these travels is not a scientific treatise Although the science is not ignored the centre lies elsewhere The author undertakes this west to east endeavor in the imagined company of his autistic grandson who serves both as confidant and as a human archetype This allows the book to verge upon a unique blend of factual travel writing and an almost magical internalised interpretation What the two travellers find together is a tangle of new experiences and responses from which the linkages between primeval past and complex present gradually emerge Here is a work of literary travel writing that describes an enchanted journey through some of the ancient places of the world and into the currently deeply troubled heart of the human adventure The evidence encountered on the journey suggests that a fundamental universality of humanity's place in the cosmos lies beneath all regional differences and is characterised as much by humility and co operation as it is by the imperative to survive and or the will to power The book does not set out to prove a point however but to celebrate the complexity of human responses It is more a creative work than it is a dissertation with an unambiguous conclusion Nevertheless the bibliography gives an indication of some of the sources used which includes the work of historians archaeologists political scientists biographers and psychologists as well as authors writing on the various religions of the world AFIP Letter Armed Forces Institute of Pathology (U.S.),2000 Buffalo Snow Day David Woods,2008-08-10 Buffalo long the world's champion scapegoat city is lionized and becomes an Aspen for the 21st century a world center for humanism food and recreation through a billion dollar media scam involving fictionally prominent real life Buffalo born media celebrities The Little Prince Antoine de Saint-Exupéry,2021-08-31 The Little Prince and Le Petit Prince is a novella and by French aristocrat writer and aviator and Antoine de Saint Exup ry It was first published in English and French in the US by and Reynal and amp Hitchcock and in April 1943 and posthumously in France following the and liberation of France and as Saint Exup ry's works had been banned by the and Vichy Regime The story follows a young prince who visits various planets in space including Earth and addresses themes of loneliness friendship love and loss Despite its style as a children's book and The Little Prince and makes observations about life adults and human nature The Little Prince and became Saint Exup ry's most successful work selling an estimated 140 million copies worldwide which makes it one of the and best selling and and
