Why Did They Do It? Cheryl Critchley, Helen McGrath, 2015-08-01 The cases that stunned Australia and left us all with one question Why did they do it Peter Caruso bludgeoned his wife to death after almost fifty years of happy marriage John Myles Sharpe killed his pregnant wife and their young daughter with a speargun Katherine Knight stabbed and skinned her partner with the intention of serving his cooked carcass to his children These and other crimes committed by people described as average ordinary normal In Why Did They Do It respected journalist Cheryl Critchley teams with esteemed psychologist Professor Helen McGrath to meticulously dissect the crimes the evidence the testimony the confessions and the overwhelming diagnostic evidence to analyse the minds and motivations behind crimes that shocked the nation A history of the case study Birgit Lang, Joy Damousi, Alison Lewis, 2017-03-31 This collection tells the story of the case study genre at a time when it became the genre par excellence for discussing human sexuality across the humanities and life sciences It is a transcontinental journey from the imperial world of fin de siècle Central Europe to the interwar metropolises of Weimar Germany and to the United States of America in the post war years Foregrounding the figures of case study pioneers and highlighting their often radical engagements with the genre the book scrutinises the case writing practices of Sigmund Freud and his predecessor sexologist Richard von Krafft Ebing writers including Leopold von Sacher Masoch and Alfred Döblin Weimar intellectuals such as Erich Wulffen and psychoanalyst Viola Bernard The results are important new insights into the continuing legacy of such writers and into the agency increasingly claimed by the readerships that emerged with the development of modernity An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence

A Writing Life Bernadette Brennan, 2017-04-03 This is literary critique and biography at its finest Australian Financial Review Helen Garner is one of Australia's most important and most admired writers She is revered for her fearless honesty in the pursuit of her craft But Garner also courts controversy not least because she refuses to be constrained by the rules of literary form She has never been afraid to write herself into her nonfiction and many of her own experiences help to shape her fiction But who is the I in Helen Garner's work Bernadette Brennan's A Writing Life is the first full length study of Garner's forty years of work a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life Brennan has had access to previously unavailable papers in Garner's archive and she provides a lively and rigorous reading of the books journals and correspondence of one of Australia's most beloved women of letters Dr Bernadette Brennan is an academic and researcher in contemporary Australian writing literature and ethics She is the author of a number of publications including a monograph on Brian Castro and two edited collections Just Words Australian Authors Writing for Justice UQP 2008 and Ethical Investigations Essays on Australian Literature and Poetics Vagabond 2008 She lives in Sydney Garner has always been a boundary crosser Refusing the constrictions of literary genre she has sought to write across and craft her own versions of them She readily admits to a me character in all her work That character is a carefully constructed self In her fiction she unsettles her readers assumptions about protagonists by creating Helen characters most blatantly in Little Helen s Sunday Afternoon Habe Dank and The Spare Room In so doing she demonstrates the complexity of a constructed fictional self Billed as the first full length study of Garner s 40 years of work a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life Well who wouldn t want to read that Australian Bernadette Brennan s ingenious A Writing Life Helen Garner and Her Work which gets around the subject s resistance to biography by viewing her life through her writing as Garner herself does Susan Wyndham Best Books of 2017 Australian Book Review Brennan s depiction of Garner s fearless approach to the very difficult subjects of The First Stone Joe Cinque s Consolation and This House of Grief is beautifully modulated and a real triumph She has captured and interpreted an important writer and her work beautifully Books Publishing Brennan has produced a literary portrait that more than does its subject justice It is not a biography Garner was quite clear that she didn t want that but because Garner is so often present in her own writing it s inevitable that her life is reflected in the discussion of her works This helps put her works in context and a picture emerges of an amazing writer Bernadette Brennan has done us all a great favour in delivering this immensely enjoyable book Mark Rubbo Readings Brennan is an astute and sensitive reader of Garner s work Big Issue The writing is clear measured and graceful throughout The readings of the fiction are astute and straightforward tracing Garner s development from the allegedly unstructured Monkey Grip which in fact offers a formal equivalent to the push me pull you vagaries of love and junk through the perfection of The Children s Bach and the experiments in voice and style in Postcards from Surfers to the late style bareness and hardness of The Spare Room Sydney Morning Herald This book offers an illuminating discussion of Garner s boundary crossing work Its own magic lies in bringing elements of memoir and criticism into an absorbing conversation that begins with a rich contextualisation of Garner s work and extends into the literary and ethical questions with which Brennan has long been concerned Australian Absorbing informative and engaging read Conversation Brennan examines both assumptions by tracing Garner s steps to becoming a full time writer in a style that is both thoughtful and readable Australian Book Review Bernadette Brennan brings a calm eye and an easy grace to her descriptions of Garner s life literature and impact on Australia s cultural and socio political landscape She draws a more complex picture of one of our best known and most skilled writers than we ve enjoyed in a full length volume before A Bigger Brighter World Probably my favourite book so far this year A marvellous tribute to one of Australia s great writers Mark Rubbo The Best Books We ve Read This Year So Far 2017 Readings Bernadette Brennan s first full length study of Helen Garner s work A Writing Life has inspired me to pile Garner s books on my bedside table and to look at each of them again with fresh eyes The Best Books We ve Read This Year So Far 2017 Readings A remarkably shrewd study of Garner s work knitted with a tender representation of her personal life

Mascara Literary Review Brennan performs a kind of call for literature its criticism as well as creation Sydney Review of Books You might also include academic Bernadette Brennan s superb literary portrait of Garner A Writing Life Helen Garner and Her Work which combines a close analysis of Garner s work with illuminating insights into her life Garner gave Brennan unprecedented access to her archives and spent long hours in conversation with her It shows Sydney Morning Herald Can t Put Down Titles for Summer A book for those who want to understand Garner s work more But it is also a book which makes clear the significant contribution Garner has made to Australian literature And in doing that it is itself a significant book

Whispering Gums Crime Fiction and National Identities in the Global Age Julie H. Kim,2020-05-25 To read a crime novel today largely simulates the exercise of reading newspapers or watching the news The speed and frequency with which today s bestselling works of crime fiction are produced allow them to mirror and dissect nearly contemporaneous socio political events and conflicts This collection examines this phenomenon and offers original critical essays on how national identity appears in international crime fiction in the age of populism and globalization These essays address topics such as the array of competing nationalisms in Europe Indian secularism versus Hindu communalism the populist rhetoric tinged with misogyny or homophobia in the United States racial religious or ethnic others who are sidelined in political appeals to dominant native voices and the increasing economic chasm between a rich and poor More broadly these essays inquire into themes such as how national identity and various conceptions of masculinity are woven together how dominant native cultures interact with migrant and colonized cultures to explore insider outsider paradigms and identity politics and how generic and cultural boundaries are repeatedly crossed in postcolonial detective fiction Guilty People Abbe

Smith,2020-01-17 In Guilty People law professor and longtime criminal defense attorney Abbe Smith gives us a thoughtful and honest look at people under trial from petty criminals to rapists and murderers Telling compelling stories about real cases she reveals how individuals get embroiled in the justice system and what happens to them there Women and the Monkey Grip Helen Garner,2025-06-17 A BBC 100 Books That Shaped the World Helen Garner s novels give the impression of being in sharper focus than most New Yorker The novel that launched the career of one of Australia s greatest writers following the doomed infatuations of a young single mother enthralled by the excesses of late 70s Melbourne Set in Australia in the late 1970s Monkey Grip follows single mother and writer Nora as she navigates the tumultuous cityscape of Melbourne s bohemian underground often with her young daughter Gracie in tow When Nora falls in love with the flighty Javo she becomes snared in the web of his addiction And as their tenuous relationship disintegrates Nora struggles to wean herself off a love that feels impossible to live without When it first published in 1977 Monkey Grip was both a sensation and a lightning rod While some critics praised the upstart Garner for her craft many scorned her gritty depictions of the human body and all its muck her frankness about sex and drugs and the mess of motherhood and her unabashed use of her own life as inspiration Today Monkey Grip is considered a modern masterpiece A seminal novel of Australia's turbulent 1970s and all it entailed communal households thrumming clubs friendships children love drugs and sex Monkey Grip now makes its long overdue American debut

Speculative Biography Donna Lee Brien, Kiera Lindsey, 2021-09-30 While speculation has always been crucial to biography it has often been neglected denied or misunderstood This edited collection brings together a group of international biographers to discuss how and why each uses speculation in their work whether this is to conceptualise a project in its early stages work with scanty or deliberately deceptive sources or address issues associated with shy or stubborn subjects After defining the role of speculation in biography the volume offers a series of work in progress case studies that discuss the challenges biographers encounter and address in their work In addition to defining the speculative spectrum within the biographical endeavour the collection offers a lexicon of new terms to describe different types of biographical speculation and more deeply engage with the dynamic interplay between research subjectivity and that which Natalie Zemon Davis dubbed informed imagination By mapping the field of speculative biography the collection demonstrates that speculation is not only innate to biographical practice but also key to rendering the complex mystery of biographical subjects be they human animal or even metaphysical

1,000 Books to Read Before You Die James Mustich, 2018-10-02. The ultimate literary bucket list. THE WASHINGTON POST. Celebrate the pleasure of reading and the thrill of discovering new titles in an extraordinary book that is as compulsively readable, entertaining, surprising and enlightening as the 1,000 plus titles it recommends. Covering fiction, poetry, science and science fiction, memoir, travel, writing, biography, children's books, history and more, 1,000 Books to Read Before You Die ranges across cultures and through time to offer an eclectic collection of works that each deserve to come with the recommendation 'You have to read this'. But it is not a proscriptive list of the great works; rather, it is a celebration of the glorious mosaic that is our literary heritage. Flip it open to any page and be transfixed by a fresh take on a very favorite book. Or come across a title you always meant to read and never got around to. Or like browsing in the best kind of bookshop, stumble on a completely unknown author and work and feel that tingle of discovery. There are classics of course and unexpected treasures too. Lists to help pick and choose like Offbeat Escapes or A Long Climb, but What a View and its alphabetical arrangement by author assures that surprises await on almost every turn of the page with Cormac McCarthy and The Road next to Robert McCloskey and Make Way for Ducklings, Alice Walker next to Isaac Walton. There are nuts and bolts too, best editions to read, other books by the author if you like this, you'll like that, recommendations and an interesting endnote of adaptations where appropriate. Add it all up and in fact there are more than six thousand titles by nearly four thousand authors mentioned a life changing list for a lifetime of reading 948 pages later you still want more THE WASHINGTON POST A to Z of Creative Writing Methods Deborah Wardle,Julienne van Loon,Stayci Taylor,Francesca Rendle-Short,Peta Murray,David Carlin,2022-10-20 The A to Z of Creative Writing Methods is an alphabetical collection of essays to prompt consideration of method within creative writing research and practice Almost sixty contributors from a range of writing traditions and across multiple forms and genre are represented in this volume from poets essayists novelists and performance writers to graphic novelists illustrators and those engaged in multi media writing or writing related arts activism Contributors bring to this collection their distinct and diverse literary and cultural contexts defining expanding and enacting the methods they describe and providing new possibilities for creative writing practice Accessible and provocative A to Z of Creative Writing Methods lays bare new developments and directions in the field making it an invaluable resource for the teachers research students and scholar practitioners in the field of creative writing studies The Odd Fellow's Companion ,1870
