Lives of the Three Mrs. Judsons Arabella W. Stuart,2017-03-10 And it seems peculiarly appropriate that woman who doubtless owes to Christianity most of the domestic consideration and social advantages which in enlightened countries she regards as her birthright should be the bearer of these blessings to her less favored sisters in heathen lands If the Christian religion was a Gospel to the poor it was no less emphatically so to woman whom it redeemed from social inferiority and degradation the fruit for ages of that transgression which brought death into the world and all our wo Never until on the morning of the resurrection she came early unto the sepulchre was she made one in Christ Jesus in whom there is neither in male nor female with him who had hitherto been her superior and her master Nor does she seem then to have misunderstood her high mission or to have been wanting to it The sisters in the infant churches rivalled the brethren in attachment and fidelity to the cause and to their ministry the new religion was indebted in no small degree for its unparalleled success
